Is Blood Thicker?

IS BLOOD THICKER?

Caught in nature,
With draining thoughts
Desiring to help
Just don't know how.

In a deep intimate sense
Trapped in a cunning lion's den
Promising a complete change
To an irreversible mess.

All question her dignity
With dropping Jaws
As she feeds a fatherless child
And fights an incurable illness.

Expenses exceed
Many offer to help
For her body in return
Hence spreading the virus
In a dint.

Though it doesn't serve her
Satisfies their lust
In a stiff sphere
To make a change.

Shamefully gave up her dreams
For the change they have
But they pointed fingers in return
Leaving her questioning
The thickness of blood to water.

The Beauty Within.

On a cow dung
After a fight in class
For revenge I guess

With the help of another
A treaty is signed
To restore our friendship

Every corner we checked
No suitable jobs
To get us outta money struggles

With sand filled feet
In a company's office
To deny us the vacancy

Aahhhhh
Boiled cabbage nights
Couldn't be detected in morning faces

With positivity on the lead
Sought God's help
For in him we trusted

Every moment with her was memorable
A chiriku she is
But keeping safe the eggs in her circle

With love she treats
A pure heart she got
The queen of the gods

If she can't be kept
Then she shouldn't be forgotten
For the beauty within.
