My Sickness Because Of You

Because of you

Angel i love you.

I love you so heartly

i love you so heartly.

I see you i feel you

but can't say i love you.

My sickness because of you. Every night you wake me up. Your heavenly face make me stop...

I see you for two years.. Everything you do make me crazy.

Your smiling face turned me to easy.

Angel tell me how can to say i love you.

My sickness because of you.

I feel proud seeing your silence.
