Lala taylor(18/1/84)

my name is lala and i appreciate all comments which i may recieve which can help me progress as a poet.

thank you

Autunm

fallen through the trees and riding the gentle breeze i watch carefully as i see the world go by.
as i lie for a minute or two than you come along and i go flying above just like a dove now the wind is strong i hope it aint for long there is no set path or no wrath
now its gone there is more than one as we gently glide than we slide into the stream thats when i realise it was just a dream.

Baby I Want It

dont you know its poisonaus and i think i been bit. i want you on the floor i want you screaming for more dont back away

even for one day as every touch has me wanting it so much come and give me a dose and hold me nice and close i wonder if you can take me higher dont you know what i desire i would even do a 69er but dont get me worng i still belive something else would be finer so let me have a play while you lay me down but please baby lease dont keep me waiting or i will carry on stating

Beacuse Of You

lying in bed all these thoughts running through my head the love i gave away the love you took every day i never thought my heart would break maybe i shouldnt of let you take the past tense makes nomore sense when you hold me close u made me dose your kiss that erternal bliss but then i hear what i couldnt bear is it true is it you dont let it be i cant plee just how much you ment to me!

you broke my heart i thought will never part now you call you even send me mail i hope i dont fall i hope i dont fail you cant catch my heart twice you threw your dice

dont lie you only make me sigh you broke, you took i cant bear anymore!

did once more! !

am broken in two just because of you

Being Me

i stand alone looking at the phone hoping i hear something to take away my fear the pressure is gaining i know am already failing i look in the mirror thats where you dare to stare the bully in me as been set free that bully that lives in me.

people look and think i have it all they dont realise that its me who makes me feel so small i wish that one day i could run away i dont want to be me but now with a sight of blood running down my arm i wonder how it helps when i self harm i look at my reflection and i dont like this situation maybe i should think and write it down in ink what will make me smile what will help me go that extra mile thats when i look at my eyes and realise with a tear that my biggest fear is changing me thats how i know i have been set free.

Boy Of Mine

can i take a second of your time to tell you about boy of mine?

hes lovely and tall shame that hes mates dont think hes cool shh dont tell him he likes to think he is always right as you can tell he aint too bright now dont get me wrong i love him with all my heart maybe it will be better if i tell you a story from the start or maybe just maybe you will like to hear that my baby is gentle and kind i will tell you a little secret i sometimes change my mind but that when he aint being so sweet but i dont mind has he keeps me on my feet i can not say he is boring but at times i do wish he would stop snoring it doesnt half get a bit annoying but please keep in mind that even though my baby aint always kind he keeps me smiling trust me am not lying am sorry i took up so much time i hope every one loves that boy of mine

Bully

i hear the taunts about the weight i gain i wonder if you ever stop and think about my pain but instead you call me a freak you even say am a geek when will you think of something new maybe if you knew not everyone can be fake just like you then i think about it abit more and see that open door thats when i realise i know all your lies i will stand so tall and forget about it all as i will always be just like me.

Dreaming- Am Urs

Dreaming a way dreaming of the day
u take me in your arms
and say am urs

Dreaming that its fate but yet i cant see the bait just take me in your arms

dreaming we dnt try hide theres no time to bide just take me in ur arms

Let me see whats it going to be?
is it true can a lay in ur arms
and say am urs?

Ectasy

as you enter you say i cant touch feeling your hands and mouth all over me wanting to touch you has never been this much am in ecstasy from what i feel and see our passion consumes us making it hard to restrain, my head is filling with fantasies for us to do am overwhelmed and my resistance causes me pain our lips now meet as i expose you to i love your body and cant get enough we come close with a connection that true you make me want you more and more i hope you know am in love with you

For You

by day and night i search by light

hoping to share a time of bliss you kiss me here you kiss me there just a moment of eternal bliss dont let me miss

all i want is you for more than a day or two dnt hide away i love you more each day!

Goodbye

Looking out my window watching the rain, no ones realised am in pain. i see people rushing about, yet no one can hear me scream and shout. where can i go where can hide, i have lost all my pride.
I promise i wont look,
it will be like my book. for me to see you but no one to see me, i wounder when i fade away will you look up this way, but for now i shall close my eyes and wish a thousand goodbyes.

Goodbye Dad

My dad's gone
I never felt so alone I wish i could say goodbye but then again i wish it was a lie what can i do, now i know it true

ive never felt so alone.

i remember playing ship and perching high on your hip i wish i could go back to those days and feel the sun rays.

Miss you dad

Goodnight

i bid thee goodnight, but how do i knoe its right?
the love i chose,
the beauty of the rose the sweet, gentle rose, dose this mean our hearts are one they are entwined, so i must bid thee goodnight, 4 when the younder breaks, we shall meet and we shall wed, and are houses shall combine,
but with a promise that are love shall go unchanged.

Hidden

Across the room they seem to see A smiling girl who looks like me.
With two huge dimples on each cheek She laughs and talks, and always speaks.
She's the girl they think would have it all.
But inside her is where tears fall.
Inside her mask is where I dwell This broken girl she hides so well.
I try to wipe her tears away But they fall more each coming day She tries to laugh when her heart breaks But hurts with every smile she fakes.
And inside her is where I dwell The hidden girl she hides so well.
The girl that no one ever sees, Behind a mask that looks like me.

I Miss You

i dont know what to do i think am missing you
i want you back

am sat alone staring at my phone hoping you will call i feel as if i have lost it all

i dont even know why we ended please dont be affended just tell me what ever it will be

is it cause i never tried all is it casue you lied or is it the tears that didnt fall did it make you feel small

it been a while since i saw that smile i hope you tell me what i did i hope i havent missed

I Need Your Kiss

its what i miss the sweet soft kiss promise me this for my life of bliss

dont hide away
as you lay me down i just want to hear you say u promise me this

i gave u a new start u gave me a new heart so let us take part and say u promise me this

so il stay pure cause there is no cure u know what i need x

I Wonder

i wonder what we will be i wonder hat we will see
or will it be you i miss can i tell you what i need i dont mean to plead i want you here i want to feel you near i know i dont always show but baby want you to know that i love you i wish it was just use two but i will still be wondering if it will be you am kissing or am missing

Knocking

you keep knocking you havent clicked i aint leting you in

all i hear is i love you

keep a knocking 1-2-3 keep knocking stop lying to me keep a knocking baby

Love Changes

When you hold my hand I don't understand, why you keep me up at night it doesn't feel right! Because when he holds me I think about you, when kisses me all I can do is miss you!

Your my dream come true why can't he be more like you? I need to make a stand because I don't believe he will understand, that you and him are one of a kind, You and him are the same!

He's changed the way he holds me and he can't show he cares, Please tell me he still loves me?

All I know is am in love with the old him my feelings can't change, this is why I love you, am in love with the old him this I know is true!

Lust

your knocking on my door dont you realise its half four the moon is high i will not lie i need my bed i really want to rest my head we stand for a while then you start to smile whilst you gently lead me to my room i know what going to happen soon now am wide awake i can honestly say that with you there is no need to fake but i better say goodnight as we can easily carry on i the morning light do you belive this is it is this the best bit it cant be this it just cant be lust

My Book

i write and write in my little book hoping that you wont look. am trying to fill the pages but page after page all i write is about your rage all i can do is watch and look and fill my book but now i belive what am ment to do what am ment to be i should write about me no more rage no more living in a cage i shall spread my wings and fly away i shall live my way.

maybe i shall fall in love agin maybe i will kiss but am hoping noone notices that its you i miss i dont know why i aint going to lie i know i shouldnt feel the way i do after all the fights and lies too i can honestly say am still in love with you i dont want you back.

am going to build my lack of self esteem am going to take you out of my book and you can look you can see it all maybe you will notice how you made me feel small. i have so many pages yet to fill maybe il learn a new skill.

My Love

i ask to above to keep me sane and hide my pain dont let my tear falls dont show them all how to break me cause I simply cant flee! every day i fake a smile hoping to go to one extra mile! i never win
i dwell within.
i hope for light or to the dove fly above with my love holding me oh dearest let it be let our love beat all

Perfect

i cant say we have been perfect right from the start that wont be true to either of our hearts
and sometimes you do act like a clown but these are the things i love the most hope you dont mind but i do like to boast about this boy, as he brings me so much joy i can admit at time a tear may fall but i still feel as if i have it all so no matter what i will always give you my heart.

Please

i look into your eyes to found no surprise the love i knew the love that grew still captures my heart it plays a part

the curtains fall am against the wall hoping for the kiss will it still bring my bliss!

am going insane i cant stand no more pain i leave it be il let you flee

you use to be love i pray to above to watch over me to keep me be!

my lord looks after me so i give up, i dnt want and i dont need so please!

Pleasure

you took me by surprise when i got to look into yur eyes slowly i can feel ur hands on my waist and all i can do is wonder how sweet u taste i dont want to miss that first kiss do u understand this? now am up agianst the wall and the clothes begin to fall u touch my bare skin so softly i cant help but roughly feel ur body as u lay me down on the stairs am sorry when i pulled one of ur hairs but u dont seem to care as slid down to kiss my hip i had to bite my lip my head goes back in ectasy u gently guide now ur deeper in me i can hardly see the preasure is growin i cant help but show the pleassure can r dirty sessions be the lessons i promise il pay attention but u can always give me detention but now youve kissed me once more i cant stop thinkin about before!

Regret

now am tossin in my bed why wont u get out of my head all i think about is that night i regret to say it felt so right why didnt i realise u would turn out a sinner i cant help but think about are first dinner how i tried so hard to to please and tease ur every need but instead u changed it by doin your dirty deed n am stuck thinkin about you no matter what i do i cant even sleep cause fell to deep am so tired of screamin n shoutin tell me can anyone hear me or my whinin i just want want some one to tell me it all turn out fine now i know what to do i just dont knw how to if i can go back in time when u first smiled at me i know now i should turn and run a mile i wont trust that smile

Remember

i remember when we first met. my friend made a bet!
on who could make you smile now 2 years on am starting to think i won by miles.

i remember are first kiss though i thought it was amazing am not goin to miss the freezing night.

do u remember sayin u was cold thats when i took ur hand to hold though i thought it was just a line i knew it would be fine.

i understand how much i care. but can i dare to say my love for you will grow more each day?

Secret

come and tell me you darkest secret i need to know your secret show me or tell me what you fear what is it you hold so very near?

i need to know it all we can all tell your not standing so tall so come and tell me your darkest secret

i aint playing no game i promise you dont need to say a name as dont you see for me to be i have to hide deep inside so please come and tell me your darkest secret

i dont mind if one or three as its just between you and me.

Standing Tall

i look at you standing so tall and wonder how you got to have it all what did you lose was it you who was able to choose i wonder if you hide inside so no-one can dent your pride tell me now, i want to know did you take his heart, just to watch it break was it you who told him to wait dont you think it gettin to late i hope once you read this you will realise what you miss will you still be standing so tall even though you lost it all.

Stonger

do you know what happend today do you know what people say i wonder have you ever stopped and realise your bubble as been popped cause il tell you what i forget the lot i dont think about the lies i dont forget the ties but i shall still walk on by you will not see me cry i will try my best not to frown no one will know i am down i will rise above it all i wont be the one to fall i understand i cant get away but i can still pray for another day when i am stronger

Teasing

am lying on my pillow watching you looking out the window why dont you know that i want you i toss and turn thinking when you will learn but all you do is give me a glass of wine when i start to whine dont you see i want you to kiss me i remember when when we went to watch that band you moved in closer, i got excited and all you did was hold my hand so i let you know if a situation arises i will be giving in to temptation but thinking about it i cant wait we need to make a date but i know when we kiss we shall both miss teasing if though it shall be pleasing.

Tonight

it not wrong it can only be right i really need your love tonight dont you see do you know i dont want you to go please dont leave me so low can i tell you i love you there is nothing on else for me to do there is no need to guess when your but to the test you will always come out the best there is no need to lie i just want to carry on looking in to your eyes

Why?

in my room i close my eyes praying and wishing no more lies the tears being to full though i try to hide it all i put a smile on my face to show i aint fazed they can on see what i pretend to be so afraid they wont love the real me another day goes by and am still asking myself why?
