LaVon Clayton(02-13-93)

I am 16 yrs. old and i am a very outgoing, fun, and talkative person. I love to have fun: go out and party with my friend. I have wrote 6 books so far but not published yet. I am a growing poet playwright and a novelist. I love to write and i hope that my writings will one day be published.

A Wanta Be Father

you finally relized u let me down. when u told me you'd be around.
Now you want another chance. to pick it up and be a man.
but i dont know if i can take it again the hurting, the heartbreak is to much for me to take.

Abandoned

u blame me but ur the on ethat beat do u see terror in my eyes when we meet ur abuse hurt more than my body u deprive me of me of my mind u rod me of my soul when we left we only deprived u of ur punching bags called children

u can strike me
u can hurt me but i'll still be free

Free of u
free of the fool
free of the abuse when i abandoned u

Come Back

Why did u leave come back 4 me i hate that your gone out of my life i would have made a good wife I loved u
But u say we are to young to love Sitll why did u leave was it because of me i can change into what ever u want me to be Please come back to me

Fantasy

when he looks at me i get lost in his eyes i dnt want to find myself so i dnt know if i'll die or survive i dnt know where he's taking me and i really dnt care as long as i'm with him i will go anywhere he looks at me and speaks the sound of his voice is making me weak i dnt no wut he said so i caress his face instead surely this is a dream Becuz reality isn't always wut it seems i feel him getting closer to me so close, my eyes are getting blurry he grabs my face fiercely i feel his lips on mine pullingme out of place i hear nothing but the sound of his heartbeat i kiss him bck letting myself approve of tis defeat

.....to be continued

First Time

First time Damn
Now i'm ruined
My life was planned out 4 me one mistake one lock
Now i'm knocked up.

My first time
wut am i suppose to do now Now i got 9 months of pain 4 one night of plessure

Now i have a child how am i suppose to raise a child when i am a child

I thought it wasnt gonna happen to me but u see what happened to me i luv this seed i'll give it all it needs i'll be good me i dont need any one else i can do this all alone i am strong this is my mistake let me live with it learn from it

I'm it's momma
it's my baby

i made a mistake
my first time DAMN

Have U Ever Felt Alone

me, i look around and wut i see is just me all alone in this big little world me one else there to help me but me

All alone by myself
u were suppose to be there
where r u now?

U were suppose to be there to protect me
where r u now?

I'M all alone
in this fight to survive.
no one here,
no one there to give advice

U said that u would Always be there
When I needed u
Where r u now?

I know where I am
I am here all alone
No where to go
No where to hide
No one here with me
No one here inside
It's not wut it see, a
It's just me
And the rest
Of the means
I am all alone

Heal Me

feel me touch me
sexually intellectually physically emotionally
hold me control me run your fingers up and down me slowly get faster show me that u are my master u feel me i touch u we heal each other

Hsi Hurt And My Joy

he says your my everything i say your my nothing he says baby i'll never give up on you i say yea, wut eva boo stop spitting those lies he says you'll see i'll try i bet you will, i say i hope i'm there to see that day he says i hope so too i say i still wont be with you he says its never to late i say give it up this is my fate he says come on baby give me a chance i say im just taking my stance he looks at me with water in his eyes i really didnt care because in mine, all i could see was his demise

I Have Loved You

i have loved u throughout da life i had with u thick & thin we wouldnt always win i would watch as you try d out the corner of my eye with all of your grace, now sit here and pace while you lay n there with a breathing mask n ur face you look so weak, as you lay under those hospital sheets i watch u rot away this aint my way i wish that u here so that u can catch all of my tears dont leave not now its something that i can allow ur sweet gentle touch makes me miss u 2 much, u belong to me, i dont want you to leave, there is someone i want u to meet, someone i want u to greet, dont judge me just stick around and you'll see that i mad ethe rite choice for me i'll always luv u, no matter where u go, i know i'll be there with u

I Refuse To Let U Down

I refuse to let you down
As I look deep in your cold blue eyes I know what I need to do I don't want to let you down Even Thou You beat you bruise But my love never changes for you I never want to let you down Like the way you let me down!

If We Were Ment To Be

if we were ment to be
we will find and follow each other if we were ment to be we will find the peace in one another
if we were ment to be
we would always find our way back 2 one another

if we were ment to be
we would know it
no one knows but us

Love Is Nothing But A Dream

Love

Yeah right

There is no such thing

Love

It's just a thing

Broken heart is the effect

So why love

I am never

Gonna love again

question after questions we answer together we ask our selves 'how long is forever' we as 1 it mite be wrong just like in a stupid love song step by step me and you can you see our lite from here i hope so cuz i love u dear

LaVon Clayton

Mine

u were apart of me until you became my enemy now we're here all confused but your new girls seems amused the feelings we have for each other are still here and strong for one another but we could never be again because i dont need a boy i need a man i am sorry i really am but am i wrong
i'm sorry again that we could never be again

My Pain

Every day I Go Through Pain
Every day they should be ashamed

As I look up
To the sky
Ask 4 answers
Or to die
Never receive those answers I ask for

People dying 4 wut but they just make a deeper cut

they don't go through pain they not ashamed 4 wut?
To laugh at my pain

LaVon Clayton

The Better World

This country is suppose to be the land of the free But look at all these people on the you think that they are free?
Gangs are spreading. Little children joining. What are we suppose to do about the problems?

WHAT ARE WE SUPPOSE TO DO! ! ! !

HELP our land, free the trapped, battered, and beaten souls

HELP that's what we need to do but we are just lazy and don't care about these things that's why the School systems are the way they are because the parents just don't care what the children do.

Let them do drugs, let them go and join gangs, let them go and get pregnant, just let them go die! !

That's what they are going to do if their parents don't say anything about their behavior or their actions.

PARENTS IT'S TIME TO STAND UP AND HAVE YOUR SAY! !

IT'S TIME TO HELP THE BATTERED WORLD AND OUR TROUBLED TEENS.
