Leesaan Robertson(09/04/1983)

I am from 's bay Jamaica. I am very passionate about writing especially poetry because it speaks to my soul.

I'm looking forward to become a professional writer someday and get published. Also; I yearn to become better at writing poetry.

A Fool For Still Loving You

A fool for still loving you

You broke my heart into a million pieces
And scattered it; all over the floor
You left it damaged; when you walked out the door
Yet I'm craving for you more
You have crushed my soul like ice
And did not stop to think twice.

I feel like a fool for still loving you
After all you have put me through
And ignoring the horrifying things you would do
Repeatedly to me
You have not shown one remorse
At times; I thought you would take my life
And make me a corpse.

My heart is fighting to be whole again
It's hard mending it back together; And I can't pretend
That it won't be a long time; until all this agony comes to an end
You have turned my life upside down
And all I could think of is having you around.

Apart of me died; when you vanished that day
And didn't look my way
You kept on going; with out a word to say
You should have just put a gun to my head
And left me dead
Because that's how cold and terrifying; you had me feeling.

I wish I could stop loving you
But my heart don't want me to
It's like you're a drug; I must have constantly
I don't know why; when you hurt me so badly
You pumped my body up with fear
And made me scared
You were my worse nightmare
So why my heart refuses to stop loving you?
It's not like; you have the same love for me too

That's why I'm ready to let you go and find somebody new.

A Love So Deep

A love so deep like the ocean
Stood still
As the wind blows
It roars through out the day and night
Your heart and mine
Combined together as one for eternity
My heart smiles; whenever you touch me
My heart speaks
It says you're the only man for me
Just one kiss from you; makes my heart beat
Real love like ours is meant to be
My love for you is unconditional
It defines what true love is all about
It's more than eternal
I love you
You love me
Our love is everlasting.

A Scream

The moonlight sets in the still of the night
I heard a scream
Somehow I feel like I'm in a dream
The person voice sounded clear
But they were nowhere near
My body trembles in fear
Suddenly I'm becoming scared.

I'm hearing a scream continually
Now I'm thinking it's me
Could I be losing my sanity?
The scream is louder than it was before
I could hear the lock turning on the door
My bones are breaking
My heart is beating
My soul is shaking
My eyes are wondering.

I can't move because my body is totally freeze
From the cold breeze
That burst the door wide open
I've never been this scared, not as often.
The scream started again
If this is a dream, I wish it hurry up and end
The door slammed by itself
Fearful me
Wrapped up in the bed, thinking if this is happening to someone else.

The scream appears to be close
It's getting more loud than I thought
I hope nobody face a bad night like me, not even my foes
Because this is a complete nightmare, God knows
The person scream was finally near me
I was so frighten, it woke me back up to reality
It was as real as it seems
But it was just a scary dream.

Be Real

Don't say what you don't mean
Keep it real
Don't tell me, you know how I feel
Unless you have walked in my shoes
Don't tell me, time will let me grow
If I just let go
And love will come and washed away all my sorrows
Don't say there's going to be tomorrow
How would you know anyway?
If you live my life day to day.

You can say, your my true friend
But I can see beneath your disguise; that it's all pretend
Don't tell me, you would die for me
When those words are coming from your lying tongue
Don't try to show me, you love me, by giving me fake kisses and hugs
Don't say, you will always be there
And how much your sincere.

Don't take me for a fool
But a woman with sense
I wish, you would be real, and stop putting on all these pretense
Don't tell me, I mean the world to you
And you would never break my heart in two
Don't say, I'm your one and only
Don't say, you would do anything for me
And don't say, we're meant to be
Because in your eyes, all I see is a liar, a faker, and a player.

Faded Dreams

Faded Dreams

When dreams become faded
And visions are no longer clear to see
All hope will be gone from me
The sky turns gray on a sunny day
Instead of blue like the deep sea
The mind stuck in bondage
And fighting to be free
Darkness takes over my soul
And leave it to freeze with the winter cold
Shadows follow me day and night
Dreams now seem dull as a blurred sight
Love don't shine the way it used to; like the sunlight
Dreams have faded; and things will not be the same again
My dreams have completely faded to a tragic end.

I Don'T Know You At All

I don't know you at all

You have ripped apart
My whole heart
The day you depart.

I thought, I knew you
But I really don't have a clue
Who you are
In my eyes; you were my shining star
But it changed when you left me scarred.

Life no longer has any meaning
You made me feel like nothing
I use to think of you; as my everything
I couldn't see past all the lies you were bringing.

Reality finally hits me
And I am now able to see
That you didn't love me at all
You could care less if I fall
You are the reason why I feel real small.

I wanted you to be my man for eternity
But nature showed us; it's an impossibility
You have overshadowed my eyes
With your disguise.

I am stronger today than I was yesterday
I will not think of all the hurtful things; you would say
You are history that has been gone astray
I have totally erased you from my mind
And my soul tells me; one day true love I will find.

I Love You(You Love Me)

Your eyes shows how much you want me
Your body language says you love me only

Sweet words you speak in my ear
Always give me a feeling of good cheer

When you make love to me constantly
I sensed we are one for eternity

Your touch is magical
And is so sensational

When both our bodies intertwine
They bring forth sunshine

Your kisses are sweet like honey
I can't get enough baby

I love the way you would hold me in your arms
And embraced me with your good charms

Our love is beautiful like a rose
You are the man that I chose

I want to spend my life with you
And in my heart, I know you feel the same for me too.

If You Love Me Enough

If you love me enough

If you love me enough

You would look past my mistake

If you love me enough

You should not tell me; that it's too late

If you love me enough

Don't let our love turn into hate

If you love me enough

You would allow me to make it up to you

If you love me enough

You wouldn't broke my heart in two

If you love me enough

Why can't you believe in my trust?

If you love me enough

Then their should still be us

If you love me enough

You would forgive me and forget

But please! have no regret

Just remember, the first time that we met

If you love me enough

Ask yourself how you really feel

Because I need to know if this relationship is real.

My Dream Man

As I sit and write these lines
Memories flash back to ancient times
To a love that was so divine
A man with a heart as big as the world
I thought, I would forever be his girl
But life's full of surprises
For him; I was willing to make compromises.

Without him, I feel like a lost soul
And these feelings; I can't control
He was my every breath I take My every step I make
My heart would beat faster; each time he came close to me
Because I was in love with him unconditionally.

I would do anything to feel him in my arms again
He was my dream man and my best friend
He was someone I could count on
At times I get weak, he would make me feel strong
Just to see his face one more time; would ease my mind.

My Life Story

You think you know my life story
But don't know nothing about me
If I tell you all the pain I had endured
You will be shocked for sure
So I advised you not to judge me
By the smile I carry everyday
It's the only way I can hide the battle, I'm fighting inside

You don't know my life story
And the amount of storms, hurricanes, and tornadoes
I been through constantly
Don't be fooled by my outer appearance
Because there's a war going on inside my soul
I feel lost, empty, and hopeless
All I want is to find happiness

You can't tell my life story
For I am the only one who can
You don't know the hell I face now and then
And I'm still standing tall
There's a reason why I did not fall
I was made to be strong like a brick wall
Yet I feel weak all the time
And it's always hard for me to keep a steady mind.

My Love For You

With your lips on my dark chocolate skin
I crave you from deep within
The love I feel for you is not a sin
It's not a game that's played to win

When I look into your seductive eyes
I see a man of truth, not lies
We are living on a beautiful island in paradise
Enjoying the sunset and the clear blue skies

I love how you massage my body
Always smooth and tenderly
You continually bring out a spark in me
That I want to last for eternity

You're like coffee that gets me addicted
I want you more and to you I'm so attracted
You are the every beat of my heart
I'm dangerously in love with you from the start

I want to experience something new
And it begins with me and you
Let's make love like we never did before
But first, put the lock on the door

I'm going to romance you all night long
You'll see how much you and I belong
I love you so much which is why I wrote you a love song
My love for you can never go wrong.

Leesaan Robertson

Take Control

Take charge of my soul
Take control;
Give me the deepest love, I never had before
Cleanse my heart and make it pure
Peel off all my dead skin that lies beneath
Cover me up and wrap me like sheath
Cuddle me closely and keep me warm
Embrace me with your beautiful charm
Show me how love should be;
Lead me to the right place where I can feel free
Kiss my body all over and caress me
Treat me like a princess;
Prove to me that you can do your best
Say you're my man till one of us is gone and laid to rest.

Teardrops

Teardrops

Teardrops roll down my eyes
Like rain falling from the sky
You left a hollow inside my heart
On that that day; when you said goodbye
No matter how hard I try
This hurt won't seem to go away
You walked out the door
Before I finished what I had to say
If only you knew; how much I wanted you to stay.

Each time I fall asleep
Your face is all I see
Dreaming of you; night after night
Coming home to me
I wish time could rewind back; to the way things used to be
When there was no emptiness
And this house was filled with happiness
I just need completion again
And all this pain and misery to end.

I'm tired of shedding these tears
Can't believe; we were together for so many years
But even though; you and I have drifted apart
Our memories will constantly live on
I have always loved you from the start
You have weakened my bones
The moment you depart; now I feel so alone
And I can't stop thinking about you
And all the fun things we did like to do.

Leesaan Robertson

You Say

You say
I'm your property
When you did not purchased me
And certainly don't owned a receipt
I wish you would stop with the deceit

You say
You love me
Without showing any action
Or giving your so called affection
So why should I continue to believe the lies you spit constantly?

You say
I'm yours for life
Yet you still did not make me your wife
Words are wind
Which goes through your teeth
And under your feet.

You say
You would give me everything I want
But I did not receive anything from you at all
I'm standing tall
Can't you see?
You can't make me fall
