Artist Flair In Poetry

Author waves her magical wand romance dances through the torn and tattered trickling dewdrops bathe the newborn soul innovative tapestry upon the pearly snow serene green meadows gleam for all to see tender serenade whispers in the delicate breeze

Flavors of the rainbow shimmer brightly in the wind lavender petals grace the old chipped windowsill artist of the romantic gray sea invigorating mosaic for the world to see rendezvous of beauty, blissful and carefree intriguing kaleidoscope of emotion nightingale sings with pure devotion

Pastel words formulate a haven of dreams opal clouds shine in a glorious scene everlasting story of wisdom and pride tranquil moments wrapped up from inside roaring thunder energizes the soul yearling in peace, a spirit unfolds

Captain Of My Journey

Sailing through the sea of life
Intense glory and painful strife
Oars mustered a pathway for me
Anchored down with supportive lee

Charming shell, life at one time
Solitude broke and my heart chimed
Three stars and illustrious moon
My ship dances to a happy tune

Cascade Of Heart

Waterfall of my perpetual mind
Stream of love is generously kind Rapid life sings a melody in abundance-Omitting havoc and empty reluctance.

Life embraces the current of time
Heart pounds with season and rhyme
Majestic cascade flows like soft wine-Boisterous beauty is rare to find.

Contour Of Life

Celestial beginnings from birth opal clouds, dusty earth neon rainbows carve the midnight sky tide of tomorrow roars with might omnibus stories echo from the sea united glory of hook, line, and lee resounding thunder, wild and free orange sunburst reflects Mother's face festive bouquet of the human race

Legacy unfolds through the looking glass infant of the soul, chapter of the past fawn nuzzles doe to drink-eternity embraced, vanishing in a blink.

Dressed In Roses

Carefree, flourished with love
Spritzed with gold from God above
All different colors to choose
A bouquet refreshed and renewed Oh, how much fun it would be-
To wear roses in everlasting glee Plucked is the thorny black rose
Thrown to the vacant unknown
Whisked away in pastel pink White purifies the mind to think
Red dramatically takes a bow Yellow becomes a friend somehow-
Spiral of beauty takes domain
Coloring a tapestry, safe and sane.

Fabric Of The Heart

Threads entwined to hold in place
Beautiful material of the human race
Blinders faded into the furious wind Gone are the days of way back then.

Glistening gem of the heart
Buried in the fabric of life from the start Glowing and growing everyday-
Garbage of prejudice, cast away.

Birth of love and unity-Doves weave peacefully in tranquility.

Flowers In The Garden

Lifeless, thirsting for the raindrops of life
Wilting from pain and strife-Teardrops flood, each root renewed Petals blossom, noble with truth
Overpowering rows of shimmering hue

All the work to keep together
Life's unpredictable weather
Flowers swiftly whisper like a feather Showering cheer, composition is better-Writing joy in its open letter.

Summer Whispers

Swimsuit, sandals, and sand between your toes
Umbrellas flavoring the air with colorful flow Mementos of broken seashells and shaved aqua glass Memories of a gray stormy past-
Emerald sea grass cools your sun baked feet Rolling foamy tide embrace the ship fleet.

Wind serenades the soaring seagulls
Hark, the sea moves in a minuet lull Immobile, sitting on the beach chair today
Sand castles form, you watch the children play Pastel shades and a refreshing drink
Euphoria consumes without a blink-
Reading a magazine, feeling a warm chill
Special memories of a summer thrill.

The Coat

Covered me with elegant charm
Shielded from the winds of harm
You had my back, I put you away-Hanger bending, garment disarrayed.

I ventured one day into the bright blue sky
Forever gone, you whispered a sigh-
Landing a new home in a dusty thrift store
Happily you'll live refreshed and worn.

Wonder Of Life

We skip through the rainbow
A mosaic of diverse hue-Visualizing a garden to sow Revitalizing and brand new Dancing upon the marshmallow clouds Heart swaying to the robin's tune
The doe makes her presence without sound.

Embracing the sunshine of noon
Morning glory whispers in the warm breeze-
Of life's menu of perplexed diversity
Dewdrops drench the Apple trees
Purifying the closed mind with intensity.
