Depth Of The Shadow

From the depths of the shadows
This is foreshadowing
He as been awaken with angry
He is hungry

All should run, and hind from him
His eyes brimmed in tears
For he will stop from nothing
A great evil is coming

Until he get what he want
The angry will haunt
He will not gave her up
All will be pour into the death cup

Because his love for her is powerful Everyone will be dreadful
That he will destroy any that get in the way
All life will be taking away

Leave the great full girl alone
Will he take one of your own
Maybe the angry will fall asleep
Let her go, and let the angry sleep

The, you shall live another day
Leave the girl, and turn away
Now, the angry is hallow
Back to the depths of the shadow

Forest

From the cold wet stream
To the warm dry ground
The wind blew freely
The air is breath taking

The land is so beautiful
For the creature live in it
The land is so quiet
For there is no sound

As I listen to the forest
Thinking as I fall into a deep sleep

I Heard A Noise

I heard a noise
In a small dark room
But, no one in it
What am I doing here
I thought I had a purpose
But, all I have was angry
Angry at my self, and everone else
Why am I doing this
Why do I kill
What if they are controling me
What if they are telling me
What do they want
Leave me alone
I don't what to kill
I need to be heard
Someone please help me

I Love You

You remind me, who I am, when I'm sad
I can't live without your beautiful face
When you are gone, I think I'm going mad
With you the world is in its place

Your beautiful eyes sprinkle under the stars
When you smile, it makes me go crazy
Other people like you to on Mars
When I look at you I feel lazy

But, when I love you, you with someone else
I love you, and no one cannot stop me
Now, when I think of you I feel melting
You are the most attractively girl ever I ever know

Your beauty makes me feel like smiling
Your beauty makes the whole world beaming

Stars

When I look up at the sky all I can thank about is you buitful face because seeing the stars are the only thing that makes me happy like you can Do
