Christmas

As my life goes on I wait for Christmas so impatiently.

My dad says wait Christmas will come.

I think that I'll explode because Christmas is a week away.

As I wonder what will Santa give me my eyes glaze over the presents like if my eyes were flashlights.

Rainbows

Rainbows come after rain and that's God's way to say he will never flood the world ever again.

Rainbows
are very cool to look at.

When
you look in your heart God
will tell you
he won't flood
the earth.

I look deep
in my heart
every day
I believe God! ! !

Sparckles From Your Eyes

I see that twinkle from your eyes,
I feel like I see the stars from upclose.
When I see that twinkle I think of the heavens where I know our father will meet us.

The Lord Within Us

Thank the lord within us.

The lord helps us.

Within our heart we can help.

Be thankful of our life on earth,

for the lord helps us with life.

As we enjoy our life the lord is enjoying our smile.
