Lynn Marie(October 27th 1988)

the poems i write may not be great..but they sit in a book that i feel like i need to share.

most will come from what i see or have been through.

Be A Man

dont tell me its going to be ok when you know its not dont tell me we will make it when you know we wont dont give me lies you know its all fake dont tell me you still love me and look at the ground
be a man
and admit your mistake

Lynn Marie

Childern

the childern are our future look at what they have we didnt leave them in good hands we made sure of that we left them with a dying world our wars to win

our mountains to clime
our friends to save

we try to bring them up right but look around youll see all we left was our fight

Lynn Marie

Cry

i see the pain in your eyes i hear the sadness in your voice you dont always have to be so brave your aloud to shed a tier i feel the hole in your heart you live the life you wish you didnt that smile i know is a lie hes gone
your aloud to cry

Lynn Marie

Dead

i remember that car
it was red
but i didnt see the bar and now im dead

i see you cry
its makes me sad
and i sigh
be a big lad

im always near but smile for me
my love, my dear

Do You Remember

our first date
i do
you had me out so late

our first kiss
i do
its the one ill always miss

our first song
i do
we danced to long

do you rembember
our first holiday
i do
i its where i id love to stay

our first fight
i do
it last all night

our last goodbye
i do
it still makes me cry

Lynn Marie

Does It Hurt

when you see me walk the other way?
does it hurt
when you see me smile and its not with you?
does it hurt
when you hear him say to me ' i love you'
does it hurt
when you know its him whom ill say i do?

Lynn Marie

Dont Want You To Stay

pack your bags
go away
go on now go
i dont want you to stay ill be brave i sear youll never know
i still care

go away
go on now go
youll never see me cry see what happened
when you lie

go on now go
go away
one last time

Lynn Marie

Fallen Angel

they forgot to give you wings but they gave you a soul so bright they forgot to give you a halo but they gave you the light you are my angel they forgot to keep they let you go

you are my angel that helps me to sleep

they forgot to give you a name but they gave you a shine they forgot to give you heaven but you made mine

your my fallin angel
that keeps me safe at night
i love to hold so tight

Lynn Marie

Forgot You Where Gone

i made you lunch to day you didnt come home
where did you stay
it got cold

i made you dinner tonight
it was your favorate
i feel so alone

i guess ill go to bed ill lay and wait for you oh..

your dead
i forgot you where gone how did i do this its been so long

Lynn Marie

Hell

the world is lost to war our children will suffer we're on the road to no where we were ment to be tougher we're all locked up in a cell this isnt freedom
its called hell

Lynn Marie

I Will Not Fall

like a bird
i will saw

like the sea
ill be strong
ill last long

like the sun
ill shine bright
ill have might

like me
ill stand tall
unlike you i will not fall

Lynn Marie

Ill Make Sure You Hear

as i whisper to you at night i know your near but your out of sight

when i say i still love you i promise i wont tear coz i know you love me too

when i say he was mine you where my dear
but it was just your time

Lynn Marie

Iraq

i should have known when you said iraq that you'd be gone and may never come back i do promise ill be stong youll be back one day it want be to long and here is where you'll stay

Just To Let You Know

i seen you look at me wishing i was yours
i know you feel ashamed and its hard to talk to me you watch me laugh with others wishing it was you i bet your sorry now you said i wasnt good enough you made a big mistake letting me go you can never have me back

Lynn Marie

Let You Go Now

i wish you the best wish good things for you and nothing less

ill let you go
ill leave now

i wish you luck
in everything you do and hope you never get stuck

ill let you go

wish you happyness
and never be sad
or ever have loneliness

ill let you go

and wish you the best of luck and happyness

Little Angel

i know you did your best but im in pain here and i must leave you now you gave me all the love i needed but now my job is done i see the pain i cause
but this is my time
god as asked me back you raised me well
its time to say goodbye plaese mom and dad
dont cry
im still your little angel

My Goodbye

for so long
i thought i needed you i thought you were my life i thought you were my everything i thought you were my love you knew this

you didnt need me you were someone elses life you were someone elses everything you were not my love did you think i wouldnt find out did you think i was blined by you did you think you would get away look at me now you made me weak but now im strong you made me cry but now there gone all you could do was lie and now you need me but this is my goodbye

My Heart

if only you could read my heart you'd see the pain inside it's not a nice place really cold and dark

it's like an empty room no one to keep it warm i don't know if it will last it's on its way to doom

it has a massive hole right through the middle i don't know how to fix it should be filled with dried out coal it might as well just have one last beat i tell you it's all alone and too dark to live i might as well give in to defeat

Lynn Marie

Sad

its pretty cold
no light to be seen
walls full of old mold
and leave me all alone no one to talk to im an easy mark
all bacause of you
im left here in the dark

Thank God

iv taken the road to hell once or twice
iv spend years sufficating i havent live the perfect life but it made me stong and now ill leave
oh wait im already gone watch me walk away
to a better place where i will stay
you i leave in hell
and thank god
he got me out of this locked down cell

You Were Ment To My Soldier

you call it an extended vacation i dont
your my solider
not the worlds
your my hero
no one elses

its not your fight you could have done something else this wasnt your path to take and in my mind
it was a mistake

i dont care if im mean
your mine
you didnt have to leave you were ment to be my soldier

not the worlds
