Clouds Complex

The grey cloudy sight, with

The mingled sunlight touching upon The pure white clouds

Giving a beauty of gleaming White and whiter clouds Combined closet the grey shade, Making a mix and math combo The grey sharing the adjacent seat In the enormous sky

Copious patterns of clouds

In that patterning, the main patterning was of Waving clouds

One wave opening another, Growing bigger and bigger,

In the eyesight view visible to me The birds swam on the waves
And around the waves

Freely, subtly and beautifully; And then more gracefully! ! The Cloud complex of

Many small diffused

Clouds away from the waves Colored and pictured the sky The never better cloud view

Is but in the rainy cloud seasoning

Hazar's (Thousand) Disposition.

Witty you;
You combat in your disposition*
Your speech;
Your somber*
I like the waylaid;
You embark in life;
That is spontaneous flow;
From from Himalayas to kanyakumari;
You witty leader;
You brought laurels;
Belling all around the country;
But scented by sensationalism;
That is an outcry disparate;
Politics prolific you;
Accentuate you;
Balloon you bigger and bigger;
But your true nature subtle and soft;
But love will the youth of today;
Gandhian leader;
Will many more such Gandhian's emerge?

How Is It To Love Life?

Have you ever loved life?
Loved Self to fall in love with life?
Enriched passion within;

Life's a bliss when you love it;
Try it, retry it;
Happiness trailed will be forever permanent;
Hopes and passions alive again and again;

I Have A Life

I have a life;
A life to be something;
A life to craft something;
A life to share my bliss;
Share my sorrow;
Of course Life, you are a challenge;

Crossing your barriers;
Entourage myself;
I will on and on ahead;
Spread my wings;
Soaring amidst caring people;
Standing against other relative to;

Your experience;
Matures me;
Makes me iron rod;
That is used to meld others;
To give it due shape;
Upon younger ones;
Caring for them;

I was melded by you life;
At the instances thrown upon;

Life you are playful;
And life's to be played;
With due vigour;
Cause vigour transforms you;
Makes one optimistic;
It is how I see you life;
Others may not agree;
Not by latitude all;

Life you are a blessing;
A reservoir of knowledge;
That facilitates learning on continuum.

Igniting Light

Ignition of light;
Signifies the spark gathering;
The spark of color;
The yellow blue;
The spark of thought;
By flashing light bulb;
An idea, a momentum;
A cracking sound, triggering
The initiation;
Of a new course from stage previous;
A lighting change
That lightens, enlivens life
Life of excitement stimulating life
Further and further down in life
To the deepest of the depth.

With your promise;
With your latent hope;
Inside me;
I can work wonders;
They wonders are the wonders of the world for me;
With love, with care;
By your inner passion! ! !

Just Pass Life

What is life's conditioning?
We are born;
With inborn traits;
With modified effectors;
As we mature and grow?
Reflecting our thinking;
On what we comport in life;
All our basic humanistic traits;
Learn- earn- enjoy-pass off to the life's end;
Most of us never think of an alternative phasing;
Of living life of meaning;
Living along life with a deflection;
Of linking our hands to the helpless hands;
Dividing our palate of food;
To the people devoid of morsels;
And do our free will unconventional;
Away from conventions and customs;
A change initiation;
Can convert our normal life;
To exciting new feats in thee satisfaction! !

Moisture Laden Sky Powered By Monsoon

Around we wound in 'U'
From our car;
The rainy sky bed;
The mist crestfallen on the pane;
Sprinklers cleared the mist;
On the transparent mirror;
The wind blew in full force;
Winding upwards and off hand, the pavement walkers umbrellas;
A man and woman in toeing in two wheeler;
Cranked their head down towards the wind's forcefulness;
The forceful powerful monsoon, soon potent to erupt a powerful rain?

Reddish Plight

A reddish bloodshed
At the war comport
And exercised cruelty
Reddened the flow of life of thousands of life;
In direct, in indirect! !

A red tear
A red sorrow
Engulfing
A depriving red
The reddish aspect
Needs a change to a white peace flagging
A green signal of peace as a promise
A life devoid of coldness
That engulfs countries
A world peace congregate
Can only cause the white flagging
And give green peace signal between world brothers! !

Richness- A Nominal Name, But In Realism Dis-Apparent! !

Ascribing richness cognomen to wealth
Is a wrong ascribe
Needed obligation and cancellation in terminology
In mankind's view

A richness of thought
A richness of help! !
A richness of nature
Makes a change, a difference

The realism is apparent
Respecting richness in an individual
Irrespective of monetary stance
And revoking it
The richness of richness accumulation
From being rich in perspective with the right opinion
About thee mankind and selves
We are indeed blessed
Richness in generic here
Thee true self;
Seeping within individuality
Eliminates money camouflage
And overlooks it
And converges on individuality
And identity a person has crafted in life process
Till date
Life is all about richness! ! !

Saving drop of treasure! !
Water the treasure! !
In a parched land of desert;
The water synonymous to precious alike crystal! !
The value diminished in common eyes! !
A matter has a meaning in evidence of scarcity! !
That's mankind's mindset! !

madhumitha murali

Small Poetry Snippets

Life is attach and detach
Is it your option
Option says
Is it good or bad
Listening to heart
But validated by brain
Gives right result

A way to exorbitant inner talents
Expose self;
Be unique;
Be self;
Lost opportunities to opportune;
A ray of hope;
A sting ray's poison defence;
No long omnipresent

Unhindered by others opinions;
A life of optimism filling self;

Thorny Tree Of Pain! !

Thorny by nature
Pain stabs when it's a near dear
Forestalls reasoning by sheer contrast
Effects a behavior nominated
What the pain reasons to be eliminated
Aggrieved by sorrow
Of sheer abandonment
For a unreasoning comfort
Question to us is our forethought think
A glance through life
Depicts the thorny picks mended
By rational validation
Un-circumferenced by raging emotions
By alienating them
Abandon the thorny stub
Heal in process by assessment
Change initiation if needed
Or forgive-forget! !
By sheer self-disposition
Thee can change the might! !

Tiring But Adrenaline! !

Escapade to mountains;
To Trekking;
Loved the lush green;
Climbing up-down;
In hot sun bath;
Tanning skin and baking flesh;
But adrenaline built;
Simultaneously worn out;
Rush to excitement;
And weariness of the moment;
Sometimes things are exciting;
But physical limits barriers;
Stoning all our way;
Life is like trekking mountains;
Here we are finding levers to the boulders that limit us! !

To My Loving Mom

Mom, I love you so much;
Can you count the stars?
Can you count pints from ocean?
Can you quantify love?

Cool and pleasant;
forever luminescent;
You are the 2 stars on my eyes;
Love you, Dear you;
Mom, I love you mighty ocean.

Uppercase Or Lowercase

Are you the upper salute;
Or lower salute;
Who engages in boot-liking;
Naturalness can prime you high;
Artificial-ness subsequently primes you low;
Live for self, with morality;
Thou strive for success suiting your ability;
Amplify them;
Never nurture fast-track;
It is not permanent! !

Weatherly Winter

Snow sliding down the roof;

Balling down balls by children I hear i joyous cries;

The gushing chilly wind on the window sill;

Reclaimed on a Chair;

Sat My Dear old Grandapa,

Trembling with coldness draped all around;

He wanted to be out;

But health woud'nt permit;

Quipped he from his coffee;

Amanda, dear I live on fun;

When young I experienced it;

Now I hear it! ! !

I realized Life's adaptability brings joyous joy;

That we create and it gets created! !

Whats Mightier Than The Mightiest.

Mightiest sword i hold in hand;
Giving shades behind the shadows;
Hustle bustle all around;
My sword takes strides, curves and grips;
My orientation intent;
Morality decisive;
My intent challenging;
My duty pertinent;
Evasive problem;
When the result is acknowledged;
Guess my Mightiest Sword.

Wound Link

I felt a wound feeling;
Enclosed around my family;
Dear, they love me a lot;
I realize again and again;
Care suffused by them strengthened me;
And enmeshed all around bond between us;
Propelling love towards them;
The sudden erupt in dire circumstances;
That makes thee realize;
Thee have been enclosed by strength fortification before you actually realize! !
All fortified all around you! !
