Alone... In The Rain...

alone in the darkness
under the rain crying out loud that no one can hear

under the rain
with a broken heart and so much pain

under the rain
i wish you were here to comfort me again

under the rain
how long will i endure it i think...forever...

Broken Promises

I never thought it would end up this way
The love I knew we would share forever
We have vowed and promised on that special day But here we are parting ways coz we can't be together

Broken wings yes that's what I have Shivering under the rain, alone in the darkness Not knowing how to fix broken pieces of my heart Without you by my side I don't know where to start

Letting go of you seems the hardest part You are a part of me and my only life But since you chose to broke what we have vowed I can't do anything but to let you leave my side

Yes, I am hurt and don't know what to say I choose to die for now in order for you to stay Even if it means breaking our own promises As long as you live and find your true happiness

Falling In Love...Again...

We've been through many things that made our love story the hardships and trials that I'd thought we couldn't carry

I gave up so many times letting you go is not easy but at the end i find myself still loving you deeply yes we've done mistakes but living in the past isn't necessary it takes courage to forgive and love to move freely

now i know in my heart nothing is hard in this life as long as you're willing to risk and again, to fall in love..

For The Last Time...

I don't know if it is the right thing to do But my heart says, i should try to
For the last time my dear, i will tell you I love you... i will let you go

Things may have change we both know The love we started may have to end though But for the last time, i have to say so
I love you... i will let you go

God Is Always Around!

Sometimes, God let us experience pain for us to know how strong we are He let us feel sadness for us to find true happiness He let us walk through the dark for us to see the stars He let the storms pass through us to let the rainbow shine He let us break into pieces to make us whole again He let us feel empty to prove that in Him we have everything though life seems so unfair and we always feel down there are wonderful things about life because God is always around!

I Wish I Could Be A Child Again...

I wish I could be a child again
When everything is simple and gay Playing under the sunlight Hide and seek in the moonlight Very simple things That makes our heart laugh out loud

I wish I could smile again like a child Where candies and balloons are all that I want And when someone get my toys and made me cry
My friends will stood beside me and fight Telling me over and over That they'll never leave my side

Playing and laughing like a child Where life seems so happy and bright You don't have to worry for the next day Just excited so that you again can play
As soon as the sun touches the land Till the smiling moon says goodnight

Life can be as simple and gay as a child In things that can make them happy and smile
This lesson I've learned as I grew up You don't have to make a complicated life Being contented on the simple things Finding happiness in everything!

If I Knew It Would Be The Last Time...

i have been touched by a friend's notes saying 'if i knew it would be the last time...' i just realized that life is really short to spend your time to your love ones so if we have the moment to show them how much we really care don't waste that time to make them feel that love is always there there maybe times that we are hurt and feel that we can't forgive but true love will find ways to heal what is being wounded life is too short to live with regrets so why should i waste this moment if it would be my last time...
'thank you...I will always Love You...I care...

Life's Journey

no matter how rough the road maybe so happy to know that there's someone at the side who will take your hand and join you in life's journey

Moving On

THERE ARE THINGS IN LIFE WE NEED TO FORGET
NOT BECAUSE WE ARE NOT A PART OF IT MOVING FORWARD MEANS SHOWING THE STRENGTH AND PREPARING OURSELVES FOR EVEN SOMETHING GREAT

NOT THAT I HAVE REACH MY GOALS YET BUT LEAVING IN THE PAST IS NOT AN OPTION TO MAKE RUNNING TOWARDS THE GOAL WITH SO MUCH FAITH THAT THE LORD IS WITH ME ALL THROUGHOUT THE RACE

Only In A Mother's Eye

When you feel so lonely and everything seems down When you're alone in the darkness and no one is around When you are feeling lost and you can't even smile
Anything is beautiful, only in a mother's eye

She lifts you up when you are lonely and down She always with you even no one is around She finds you when your lost and gave back your smile
Anything is beautiful, only in a mother's eye

When you feel like giving up and say that you can't do it She gave a tap on your shoulder and whisper you can make it When you loose your self-confidence and don't want to try Anything is possible, only in a mother's eye

When everyone is gone and you are left behind And feels that you're worthless and so empty inside Again she gives you a hug and a shoulder to cry
She makes you feel the most prettiest, only in a mother's eye

So on this special day, and everyday in my life I want to thank and honor you for your great love
We would not be here now if not because of you, Mom
We will love and care of you forever in our hearts

Only The Heart Can Feel

I thought sometimes life is so unfair I always tried my best but many times i failed

I almost given all All that I can give but it only end up that there's nothing left words left unspoken tears pouring on cheeks feelings that had been unsaid

only the heart can feel

Second Chance

I was hurt on the first time when i gave my heart for love letting go is not easy moving on is so hard love is so sweet then but suddenly it end up promises had been broken forgotten what had been vowed it takes a long time before the wound had been healed before the heart became used to of not falling for love again but love really is amazing knows when to fix a broken heart so here I am with this wonderful feeling believing and giving it a second chance
