michael neguse(07 July 1972)

My name is Michael Neguse. I am from Ft. Worth Tx. and I am married to beautiful Wife of 8 yrs and we have two kids. I am an African-American light skined man who live in Co. I am in the service and serving prouiding for myself, my family and my country. I like reading, sports, and writing poems on my free time. Poems come naturally to me. I also like to write songs and publish them to artist, who like my art and concepts.

Arms Of My Love

I came home after a year open your arms protect me from fear I was lost and scared in every way It was nice to be normal and live day to day

I put everything on the line for my family and my country so we can all be free and be strong like a tree as the seasons change, times passes us by media spread the bad news, and spouses cry

We all put our lives on the line, with strong backbone spend hours in line to say hello and I am ok on the phone many heros were lost and killed in the battle for our interest we fought with honor, pride and iron fist

As I come home after a war, to my wife's and kid's arm emotions hit me and I didn't know how to stay calm stress was unbearable and I tried to stay strong so I can be a normal husband and father and learn again to live on putting our hearts and lives on the line for America.

Distant Lovers

You'll always be in my heart, even though we're far apart My love for you is the same, from the start I look up at sky and seem to dream and wish I want your hug, your hand and your lips to kiss

My heart is yearning to be next to you All I want is for you to mend my heart, which is blue Time moves so very slow and yet your loving hand is so far My love I am missing you and I cry tears of joy looking up at the star

I'll do anything to hold your soft and warm hand You're made for me, be my Valentine, my lover and friend You're my strength, my battery that keeps my heart beating One in a million, you drive me crazy with your emotional being

For your love I live day to day Words can't describe, how you make me feel, words can't say With you in my arms all things seem to come together I'll give you the world, love and happiness now and forever

All I want is one wish from this world I want to make you my Valentine, give a treasure and all the pearl Soon pray to God that I'll be in your arms again Cause my love for you will never end.

This is for all the lovers that are away from their loved ones.
To all the Military personnel, Business men and women and everyone else who is away this Valentines day. Everyday is Valentines day to all the lovers. This is especially to my Wife of 9 years. God bless you all.

Faces Of War

I've been in war twice, and it is not pretty or nice men and women put the uniform on and it symbolizes strength carrying all your gear and weapon not knowing when to pull the trigger you're fighting with son or daughter of parents they love dearly keep yourself and your fellow soldiers alive and you must fight fiercely blood will shed and bodies all laying every-where dead at war no one wins, for God says thou shalt not kill countries send soldier to defend, and whatever the cost and at will the pain and sorrow that brings to so many, the leaders have no clue you are a number and expendable, soldier stick together like glue soldiers return with missing limb and undetected serious illness soldier puts his/her life on the line at time kills, we need no forgiveness at what cost, as we all know freedom is not free we must do whatever it takes, so we can be a free country give thanks to a person in uniform, cause we're fighting for you don't take anything lightly, a soldier does what a soldier needs to do

Father Keep Us Safe And Free

Remember we're all his children under the sun we must be peaceful and try to learn to have fun love and understanding of all kinds of races we're all created equal with beautiful faces

Issues will always arise try to love and figure out the problems without demise have patients and love and pride learn to control emotions and must learn to unify

Discover yourself in his house with others some way or another, we may be sisters and brothers respect the human race thats the least we can do we're all his children, Gods's offsprings lets come together as crew

Guardian Of Freedom

I wake up early in the morning at times there is laughter, joy, but a loss of a hero has us all mourning complete my mission, and do what I am told prepared for anything on any kind of weather, even in the cold

So be proud to be an American, respect our flag and national anthem boots on the ground is the key to freedom doing your job with courage, and good character is all you need I'm strong, tough and trained to destroy my enemies with lightning speed

An American family paid the ultimate sacrifice for freedom today a warrior has paved the way for your life style so you can work and play young men and women stand ready to slow down or stop a disaster we must unite, love all Americans like a family brother and sister

Many times a hero leaves his kids, wife and family behind to sacrifice self for my family, my country, so there won't be any bind I am an American Eagle a guardian of America's nest I am a warrior and I am an American Soldier ready for any test.

I am an Active American Soldier serving my country today.

Home Sweet Treasure Home

A place to call your own and raise your kids it's a wealth of treasure, investment and we all know it is no one can live from rent to rent why give your money away, all your money spent own a piece of America, own your property save for the future, soon you'll be out of poverty home sweet home, a place you'll always treasure brings you close and brings you all your pleasure raise your kids, family and your pets like a bird's nest home is where love, warmth, and comfort everyone should invest day after day, believe in your dream after the darkness and bad times, find a way to stay a float in a stream money comes and goes, time flies by us all everyone know to buy a house and a home is always a good call being an investor, a business owner is smart it brings joy, and happiness to yourself and your family heart

Love And Honor

For I have found the love of my life she is my mate and partner, for I've learned how to survive you're the sun that shines on me, when you smile and stare at me keeps me warm at night, keeps me health and keeps me free you're my shooting star and wish you to be with me until infinite I planted a seed so you gave me two kids, and we're strong like a tree I spend day and night at work thinking of you you're the family healer, and you keep us together with love so true when I'm tired from work, you hlep to relax me and keep me humble keep me grounded and keep me out of trouble your love can't be measured at all I'll do anything for you, and I am waiting for that phone call thru good and bad times, we've been there for eachother my love for you, everyday it gets stronger and stronger

My Rainbow

My love now and forever, I want to hold, cherish and see you you're the apple of eye, forever yours, my love is so true my heart skips a beat, when I hear your voice my love always stay by my side, you're God sent from above

I'll always be here for you, to love and protect forever I'm ready to honor, and love you, and no one can object can't live in this world with out you, and I'll treasure the love we have I can't see or breathe life without you, hold my hand in love you're the only woman in the world I adore my superstar, for you I'll roll the red carpet to my hearts door you gave me the gift of life and had our two beautiful children as I write this poem from the heart, with pad and pen you're the light at the end of my heart's tunnel I'll accept your laugh, smile, and your joy of memories like a funnel love me always thru good or bad times and day and night we'll have our ups and downs, but for your love I'll always fight

My Shining Shooting Star!

As walk out of our tent

All I can remember is your sweet and lovely scent

I look up at the sky, my heart is full love and shining star you'll always be in my spirit and in my heart even though you're a far

I look up at the sky my love, for you I dream and wish your love is not a side order, you're my main dish

I want to be close to you at all times, for you to hold my hand without your love I suffer, life I can't seem to understand

I want your love, not life or liberty

I want to give you the world and take you to ecstasy

With you in my arm, the world is at easy and the things come together love, peace and fruitful life is what I want you to have forever and ever

All I want is one wish, how I will cherish that day

God has created you for me, so I bow down in front of you and pray You're my everything, my lover, my lady and my best friend beside you like the earth needs the sun, I'm your tree behind you I stand

Love is something special, look in to my brown eye your love is near and dear, without you in my life I rather die your love is strong and your kind heart makes me smile

I would do anything, for love I walk a hundred mile.

Ray Of Lights

As sun shines and brighten our day we all have ups and down, things to do in many way there will allways be good and bad times some of us have a lot of money, some of us have not a dime there will be some cloud and gray in site things will be hard at time, you feel a little bite days will come and we have to see and face problem we can't hide from and we can't erase another day another ray light be happy and kind to see your family in sight we only have one life to live there are people in need, so help and give sun shines and keeps us warm no one wants rain, bad weather bad storm

Retreat For A Wounded Lovers.

Marriage and happiness is not written for everyone in a book based on patients communication and trust, not like fish on the hook You may have a pastor or counselors but no promises written in stone it is not quick or easy, like a dog right away who fishes a bone there is too much invested in a relationship to throw it all away love and happiness takes time and energy day after day both partners must come to an agreement or meet each other half way you can't be hard headed and no one should say my way or the highway marriage retreat or time off is needed for both to spend quality time a stronger person must stand up and help resolve issues, have a spine.

Root To My Tree

Baby you are my world, my strength my wall You keep me safe and your love is never dull I soak in your love on my mind and heart Your love is tattooed and no one can take it apart

You bring joy to my life My provider and sole survivor I spread my arm look up and dream at sky You complete me, don't leave me, can't you see the tears from my eye

Choirs

You're the root to my tree, root to my tree
I can't live without you, can't you see
I need you now more than ever
Your love keeps me high, hot and dry
Baby don't leave me, listen to my heart cry
Without your love I rather die
Without your love I rather die
Heal my heart from all the pain and cry

I breathe the air you breathe Can't live without you, you're the cure to my love disease You're one in a million, there is no one like you I treasure your love and I have all the clue My life with you is a journey All I need is your love, one love is plenty

Choirs

You're the root to my tree, root to my tree
I can't live without you, can't you see
I need you now more than ever
Your love keeps me high, hot and dry
Baby don't leave me, listen to my heart cry
Without your love I rather die
With your love I rather die Heal my heart from all the pain and cry

The Struggle

Oh why, oh why do I live this way should have listened to my parents and finished school, back in the day living paycheck, to paycheck to make ends meet barely surviving paying bills and paying rent, yet my body is beat

The economy and lack of jobs is hurting us all government selling our jobs, yet we beg and crawl our leaders are selling out but they say vote, so you can be heard, while my kids cry and shout

I do my best for my family, one day at time people do what they need to do, to feed their kids, even do the crime single parents and others struggle is so hard it feels like someone is taking your child from your guard

The Vaccum Of Life

We all have many issues to deal with at time stress can cause problems for us, it could end up as a crime oh why oh why do I stress so much it seems life can put so much pressure, and we can be out of touch anger and frustration from finance, marriage and bills can be nighmare have self control and do the right thing, at times it is hard to bear go out and do things and try to calm down don't let stress get to you, learn to fight and don't drown many people depend on you in bad time, keep a balance self-esteem life is full of ups and downs and it is not all peaches and cream thru sickness and health do your best do the right thing and calm down, everyday life is a test keep in mind that friends, family and others may cause pressure life is vital, you have to be smart and God will give you all the pleasure

Whats Love Got To Do With Life?

What does love mean to you, don't be cocky to some it means the world, but love is nothing if you're not happy love can make and break a life it could cut you slow, or end yours or others, no way to survive. it is like a mind that is not stable depending on the situation, you may cut the cable you can make it work, or cut it like a cord some maybe weak, you can't make it easy, and noone can afford selfless, liars, and decipitons can hurt it maybe cheaper to keeper, what you invested is going down the dirt if you've made up your mind, noone can stop you not even the court Love and life is not that important, when there is nothing to live for!

Words Can Mean So Much

Communication is key to all our happiness create a trust like a birds nest communicate and know yourself, your loved one and a friend or you'll be lost and forgotten, walking to a deadend

Most of situation can be repaired, when we talk with respect give someone you love a time to chat, uplift and protect for tomorrow is not promised today don't regret your words, say something nice, what your heart say

Be honest and give a positive reacton to any situation Words can hurt like a knife, set a postive impression We're all living on borrowed time and communication is key the world would be at peace and no wars, so we can all live free

Be a sunshine to someone you don't know you can brighten the day, plant a seed of love so the world can grow be thankful that you woke up, don't worry about anything don't be a material person, be a loving human being

Love and be loved for your words can save a life inspire, motivate and teach for someone that need to survive our world moves at the speed of light we don't know if we're coming or going, we're all out of sight.
