There You Are

Here I'm, there you are
I'm really close but you are so far
The moment I saw you
I was looking at a star

I need you here
Next to my heart, and really near
Please don't leave me
If you do it I'll disappear

You're just like the sun
That warms the hearts
You're someone special
You're lovely thoughts

I'll always wait for you
I'll keep my heart with you
I'll never forget you
And YES YES YES
I'M IN LOVE WITH YOU

Why Would I Love You

Why would I love you?

Is it your look?

Or what's inside of you

I'm really confused

Did it suddenly happen?

At first when I saw you

Falling in love wasn't expected

Neither running after you

All of this wasn't considered

The moment you simply said

I don't care about you

My feelings my emotions

You broke my heart who are you

I'll stop complaining I'll stop crying

I forget the day when I saw you

No memories no emails

DON'T EXPECT THAT I CALL YOU
