natasha hughes(6th september1989)

well i never really know what to put in these sort of spaces on profiles but ill give it ago.

my name is natasha but most people call me nat or tasha born in worcester moved to birmingham now living in wales as i had trouble in birmingham so moved away from it.

it was then that i turned to poetry it was the only way i could express the way i was feeling and it has stuck with me since. i really enjoy writing and reading poems they have so much meaning behind them for both the writer and the reader and i think they are genuinly amazing. well i have poems on here so if you do happen to read them i would really appreciate it if you would leave me a comment (good or bad its dosent matter to me as i see bad comment as constructive critizim and i dont take it to heart)

just to let me know what you think of my work. well thats it me in a nutshell. enjoy my poems x

Be Yourself

be yourself be who you are and dont let others change you for they must like you as you are for what you are and who noone is quite the same unique the only one for if you change to be like others the real you will be gone

we all must learn to give and take in everything we do so be yourself like your self then others will learn to like you to let people like the real you dont put on a face because the real you is always ace!

Cant Make Me Cry

Call me a slut
Call me a whore
call me whatever I've heard it before

Say that in fake
Say that i lie Say what you want because you cant make me cry

I know that non of this is true But calling me all this Then HA
What the hell does that make you

For You I Care

Theres a place in my heart
Thats open for you Theres one way to enter
Its only for you

You dont need a ticket
Your entry is free
All that i want
Is for you to love me

The depth of our loving Is somthing we share
Something to cherish
Someone to care

I will love you for always
In my thoughts you will stay
My love for you
Will never go away

These words have strong meaning
My love to confess
With you i can say
I have found happiness

You are my light
That will never go out
My love for you
Is never in doubt

Together with you
A future to share
Because of my loving
You know that i care.

If You Said...

If you said you were cold
I would wrap my arms around you.
If you said you were thirsty
I would give you the ocean blue.

I would give you anything,
The moon, the stars, the sunset too.
This heart in my hands that I hold out to you.

Take these from me
they are all I have to give.
Take them my love for as long as I live.

I will love you till the day I die.
Don't look for reasons or even question why.

If you said you were lonely
I would be there at your side.
If you said you were sad
I would wipe the tears you cried.

Take these from me
they are all I have to give.
keep them my love for as long as you live.

Worship Your Life

when rainbows darken and times are hard remember you have friends the shapes and forms that life gives out will never alter friends you have a life to build upon your soul will thrive through learning don't let anything get you down and fill your heart with yearning you are all very much loved from both the future and the past I wouldn't change my life at all for it has been a blast that darkened rainbow soon lights up when you let go of all your worry with genuine friends and love from all your life you no need hurry

I'm sorry I made a few mistakes a few I couldn't undo but with my life I tried to go but unlike running water I'm sorry it just didn't flow just a message to you all please don't do what I did it was a cry for help that went terribly wrong but now I'm an angel up in heaven and I'm able to sing my song so family friends and loved ones to this message is for you.

listen to your heart each and every day listen very closely and you will hear me say
"everything's going to be ok"

so goodbye for now ill see you all again but untill then.... listen you your heart and youll hear me say
