Chapter

I once read a chapter that I fell for I stayed in that chapter because it was so unbelievable amazing, interesting learnt new things from.

It once it became confusing, bad things became horrifying I kept on reading it, thought it would become better like in the beginning but it only became bad and worse I kept on reading with the hope it would be interesting again I couldn't close that chapter because it seemed like the only chapter that I fitted or enjoyed but I had to close that chapter and start a a new chapter with new things I had to finish that chapter in order to continue with the book I had to take a new chapter they say good things have to come to an end I won't forget the things that I gained from that chapter it time to carry on with the book that I was given to read.
