Broken

My heart is breaking
My body's shaking
And my lips are faking
A smile.
A lie.
With the playing
They fake.
With the words
They speak.
'I'm fine.'
Yea right.
-Out goes the ligh-
I'm in the dark.
Im my head.
How I wish I could be dead.
But OHH
All the people
I'd be leaving behind
Who would try to find
Me after death.
Who'd fallow me along.
In singing this sad song.
Of depression thats taken over...

Chances

I've given you so many chances,
And you've only let me down.
I've tried to show a smile,
But it's replaced with a frown.

I've tried to let it all go,
And for that I'm proud.
But the sign you've been sending,
Has been really loud.

You don't say you love me,
Like you did before.
I don't feel your heart.
I don't feel anything anymore.

It looks like you've moved on,
You hardly seem to care,
About what I do,
It's like you're hardly there.

I don't want to hurt,
And I don't want to lie,
Right now it seems best to go,
Goodbye.

Death Wish

I lay
On the bed
Looking at your face.
You've sat there
For endless hours
In exactly the same Place.
How bored
You must be Looking down
On me.
You say you're not.
The candle flickers
And I see it in your eye
You know
That I am going to die.
I realized
Already,
That the end was near.
But in your eyes,
I see fear.
'My love, my dear, '
I whispered to Him.
'I love you.'
And he said,
'I love you too.'
I said
'For my last
Dying wish
I want you to keep
On lovin
Keep on moving
Keep on gettin' them fish
Doin' what you love/
For me.'
And he replied
'Whatever you want, baby.'

Differant Kinds Of Love (P/D)

Do you really care?
I'm not sure you do.
Do you care about me,
As much as I care about you?

Maybe there's just
Differant kinds of love
With none of them
Beneathe or above.

I wanna know you're ok.
I want nothing to be wrong.
I want to be there for you.
I want to be strong.

Disappearing (I/P)

Into my life,
You are interfering,
And I wanna run
I am disappearing.

Into my own oblivion
Into my own head
With all that's affecting me,
I might as well be dead.

Don'T Hide It

You're trying to hide it
But I can see
The pain inside of you
And it's pulling at me
Why won't you tell me?
Can't you understand?
The lies you are telling me
Are pushing me to make it end.
I know what's going on
So why do you hide?
Why push it down
So deep inside?
I know you're trying
To protect me, to care
But lying to me, hiding it
Isn't fair.
It's the same every day
When I let my guard down
The smile leaves my eyes
And my lips turn to frown
I say 'Tomorrow I will show,
Tomorrow I won't lie,
Tomorrow I will show,
How much I want to die.'
But I can't.
I just can't show
The pain or how
Far low (I am) .
Stop hiding it.
Let it show.
Show me you love me.
Let him go.

Glue

Glue

Spilled on my desk
Papers getting stuck
While I stand there.

Glue

Dripping off the edge
Sticking too the floor
While I stand there.

Glue

Ruining everything
Skrewing everything up
While I just stand there
Thinking about how pretty it looks.

Goodnight

Everyone says goodnight
I don't have the nerve
To point out that
It's not good.
I put my phone aside
And curl up in my bed
They all think I'm ok
But they all misunderstood.
My head hits the pillow
And my eyes fill with tears
The pain starts back up in my heart
How long will this last?
God, don't let it be years.
It happens every night
The battle I cannot win
But for some reason I continue to fight
It's makin' my head spin.
I try to explain
The sadness overwhelming
But no one believes it
Because I keep on laughing.
It's what they don't know
That's killing me
When will they see
That I mean what I say?
I might have to be dead
To get it my way.

Help Me

When I see your name
Light up on my screen
I think of ignoring you
But that'd be too mean.

It used to make me smile
Make me laugh, even before
I even opened the message
But now that is no more.

Inside my head there is a war
About what to do
Because I can't seem to go
With out without you.

I feel like I need you
Each and every day
But I feel like I'm going to lose you
In some insane way.

Come on tell me what do
Help me decide about you
Should I stay and fell the pain?
If I do will I stay sane?

I figure if I do leave
Like you've said
You will end up in the ground
Lying there, quite dead.

Now, I really do not want that
But... I'm having trouble here
Life without you now
Is one of my biggest fears.

Help me
Tell me what to do
Help me
So I can stay with you.

Last Regret

I got the little bottle
With the magic little pill
I can't wait for the moment
To be fulfilled.

I lock the door
And write the note
And throw out the old one
I had already wrote.

I grasp the water bottle
And then take a sip
With the pill, suddenly I let go
And through my fingers, it slips

Splashes to the floor
Spills all around
As it hits and tips
Onto the ground.

The lights are dimming on me
Its getting harder to see
I see the people I love
And the way we used to be.

Its getting darker now
All I am thinking is 'Wow, '
'I'm going to miss this, '
'All this bliss.'

Sarcastic thoughts,
There certainly are lots.
But at last, I only see
The glint of the lamp.
And I am soaked in my own sweat,
I have my last, final,
Sad regret.

Look What You've Done

I close my eyes
And let down my gaurd.
Just like before,
It comes; hits me hard.

My eyes fill with tears.
And pain fills my heart.
When I am put back together,
I'll have to restart.

Tears fall down.
Then there are more.
They are falling fast,
Fast onto the floor.

The more time goes on,
The harder the pain.
Life's speedin' by,
Like cars on a fast lane.

Look what you've done.
What you've done to me.
You've torn out my heart
And thrown my body to sea.

Love You

I see your big brown eyes, and your sweet little smile. When I look at your face,
I know everything's in place.

My Secret Obsession

This depression
From my secret obsession
Because my mind is always Hooked on you.

Dragging me down
Into the ground
But I can't get over you
No, no I can't

I make cuts
With broken glass
Not on my wrists like others
Because I don't want them seen

Blood stains all my clothes
That's why I wear only black now
Less to worry about
As I pass out

The blackness always
Ends up surrounding me
When the redness
Is around me

Oblivious World

How's that oblivious world you live in?
Is it any fun?
Are there other people?
Or are you the only one?

Does it take away all the loss?
Does it take away all the pain?
Does it take away the unhappiness?
Does it make you gain?

Would you prefer to be there,
Far away, too far to see?
Or closer, able to understand
Able to be with me?

It's so hard to talk to
Someone so numb and far away.
My mind and opinion of this
Are begining to change and sway.

Is all this worth it?
Talking to a wall?
Receiving all this pain?
But nothing in return, at all?

It's starting to click in my head.
That maybe... this isn't right.
Is it all worth the pain?
Is it worth this fight?

How's that oblivious world you live in?
Is it any fun?
Are there other people?
Or are you... the only one?

Running Away (Yea)

Does it count

Yea

Is it really

Yea

Are you really

Yea

Running away

Yea

When there is no one

Yea

There to notice

Yea

Your absence.

Stupid Me Stupid You (Wow Its Bad)

Lying on the cold cement
Red surrounding me
Spots in front of my eyes
I think
About what we did
And the cards you read
'Fool.'
'Death.'
'Devil.'
Fool for beleive
Death for acheiving
Hell for knowing you.
How much I kept from you
That I now wish I told
Now that I only have a few,
I will tell what I cannot hold.
You made me sad
You made me cry
You made me hurt
And now, you are making me die.
Myseterious
Furious
Depressed
So I repressed.
You hurt me
And now I must die
And in my last moments
I admit, I lie.
I love you.
Goodbye.

The Pain I Can Control

The pain I can control
The pain that makes me whole
The pain that stops and brings some tears
The pain that erases all my fears
The pain that I inflict with this knife
The pain that might be last in my life
The pain that brought me to my knees
The pain that woahed me full of pleas
The pain that made me see the light
The pain that is bringing me home tonight
The pain that is wrong and bitter
The pain that makes me feel fitter
The pain that my friends say is wrong
The pain that makes me feel so strong
The pain that makes my friend sad, and cry
The pain that makes her want to die
The pain thats not just pain to me
The pain that makes everyone see
The pain that thats tearing me apart
The pain thats ripping apart my heart
The pain that I'm addicted to
The pain I can't give up. Not even for you..

Tonight

I cry to myself
Each night.
Each smile, each laugh
Is a fight.
My bonds with friends
Are no longer tight.
Nothing anymore
Is ever right.
The prospect of intentional pain
Is a might.
And it might
Just be tonight.

What You Don'T See

You don't see my eyes
Fill with tears
You don't see my mind aging
Like its been years.

You don't see my arms
Wrapped around my chest
Holding myself together
Forgetting all the rest.

You don't see the ache in my head
The pain in my heart
The sorrow in my life
And that's just the start.
