goodbye To You My Love, Love Is Lust

Do you ever see me bleed? how my eyes be come so numb How my body felt so cold and froze can't seem to move a bit Memorise every step that we take in the affection which was true Which never seem to break through but all that days has gone

Do you ever heard me cry out for you? in my breathless murn
In my weak heart just broke that I can't take in but to bury all that moments deep inside of me

Why does love is such a crime?
When our love was just so real?
Why would someone want a part like this?
When we knew we were meant to be

How my heart peel into pieces like a broken glass that can't be un-do How our feelings and the affeaction is like a drung like what you said to me onces but that last.

How you wishper Don't worry I knew I'm gone to lost you forever
I knew my heart belonge to you but i give up and let go of you
It ain't felt right to be with you when you had someone'else but me

Left me here with my sorrow lock me up for so long felt like years that you left me here, but for sure you gone but this time is for good But I'm the one that walk out of for real I can't bury it inside

Goodbye to you my love, LOve Is just like a lust Giving up on you love Isn't easy It ain't easy to forget you for sure that is real It ain't easy to say it to you like this on the telephone Felt the numb in my weak heart hopeyou hear me for the last

BUT YOU knew how much I LOve you From my heart and soul which is true
It break my heart to say this way But can't see it how hard it is for me to say this

§) Flash Back To My Very First Love(§ a flash back to my very first love when everything felt real and true a tender touch of our skin in your embrace you hold me closer to you, you woun't let me fall, a silent love which touch our soul & heart within purity of my heart i loved you too very much when words words remain in silent you whisper to my ears tenderly i love u, i love you, i.. Love... You...

You kissed my eyes & kisses my lips i felt the passion of your love how truly madly deeply you expresd but yet it long gone now i treasures every moments remembers how you needed me closer to you all that times when you were there in my life eventhough you hurts me & make me cry onces for the last i forgive you for sure i kept on runing back to you in my last breath in my mind i knew i would lost you i never knew that i lost you this fast In my prays to god a prays for you that she love you more then i could

A Blood On A Roses

A white rosés that soft and sweet turns to red in bloods
A red rosés re symbol of romance within my love of purity for you

A razor-sharp boundaries torment a cut on my hand bit by bit dripping of blood on top of rosés of white turn to red full with bloods

How true was the love we bone in?
It felt so true and sweet embrace you close You embrace me in your arms Try not to lost me

How true it's felt beneath our heart and soul Your my everything from a dreams which woke me from my sleep Noticing you weren't there

How could this become so deceitful?
When we meant to be together it's tearing apart of my soul

When your gone till i give on loving you Playing our soul of passion deceiving Tearing us apart

Lovers' affection pulls our straight away Divided heart of love which truly affection

The art of love bond in torment with sore inside Feelings the true loves reveal once which embrace Tearing us apart when we said farewell forever

Never turing back to the point Where we lays our love which we left forever

A Broken Heart He Have Seen

A broken heart he have seen

The looked in his eyes

he read my sadness

In my eyes which I try to hold my tears

The way he looked in to my eyes

I knew that looked in his eyes

As he worries He Whispers softly Why Are sad?

I stand still in silent voiceless we stand

I was in tears

He held my hand

I pull it out of his

It doesn't felt right

It doesn't felt the same

How we used to be

I try to hold the tears till he went

The tears has fallen as he walk out

We don't belong to each other

Why does My soul deceiving

Oh god hear my Prays in tears

A prays that she loved you more

But why does my heart deceiving

When our loves doesn't dies reunite as one strangest we slowly be a part

Without it you may dies become crime dies between lover love its breaks a part but now its gone but i walk out without a crime i love him so but i walk out cuz i shall give up on him but i can't forgotten him' for the sake of god i pray for him that the one whom with him would love him then i could ever do how much hurts it is to love truly he loved me truly frist i knew i felt it in the strenght of my soul and heart it was true and real heart to heart love is a tinder touch its pain as a knife in cries of silent sore he never heard a cries for him

Butterfly Is Full Of Illusion

Butterfly is full of illusion with the moon reflecting through your eyesight

Love is like maze trying to find your way back to the person who you loves Our loves may cure our pains with forgiveness

But love never dies easily cause no-one could realizing that they meant to be until we about to leaving the hands of the person who we cares and loves

Deceiving Soul

When Passionate takes in sweet surrenders which hold tightly she embrace him close

Kiss him goodnight Embrace soul of lover's touches tenders surrenders Deceiving soul of lovers reunited once so tenderly embrace last forever

One faithful love to him she shown her feelings strong she can't hide no more One truly madly deeply passion he taken in which was there and now it wasted

Her soul collide letting him go giving up on love she can't bury it inside of her She let him go giving up on him tearing her apart dieing within her Soul of deceitful torment between the lie he break his wish to be with her

One faithful love to him she shown her feelings she can't hide which are stronger One truly madly deeply passion he that was taken in which was there and now it wasted

Deceitful his love to her torment in between they're eyes when loves seems to fading away

Playing his games of passion she gives her heart to him and so does he

Times passing on he realized how much he loves her trying to search her Torment between the lines between the lovers heart Someone came pull them apart Change everything at once Leaving him with someone `else her soul slowly fading and dieing

Gothic Soul & Hearted Of A Lay Shall Spoken

It was an eerie Monday afternoon
The sun is shiny influential Bizarre feelings
Shatter dream approach alive Felt the unfilled of loneliness Grief Inside of my soul Conquer life of the light Darkness shatter

Taking our life away Nothing I can't do
Turning back the time
Time cannot seems to erase All hopes are falling through The ground of losing you Sweet little one of heaven Hear me my pry

Reminiscences of you Holding you in my arms Nursing you it was Seem to fade away

Lost In Love

It's so lonely without you I miss you so much
After all your the one that I love Your the one I need Your my everything Like what you said to me
From what we are before

Even though you break my heart
I still come runing back to you
You broke my heart and make me cry
I still come runing back to you
To forgive you all over again

One last breath I take in realizing everthing we ever had has all gone
The numb inside I can't Bury all of this which hit my heart And left me here I can't love no more

Do you even care why did you call me after all I can't be your no more
I can't hide the pain no more don't tell me that your girlfriend Caused I'm not your's no more I can't cry on your shoulder no more Like before how you embrace me close to you like a hero
I have no one to love or to cry on to you break my heart And left me breathless let my hand go don't hold on to it

Your love is no more for me its hurt as it is let me go
If you felt my sadness then just leave me here Left me here alone to cry without you Your belongs to someone 'else

How it breaks my heart a part How you said you love me from the start How you said I'm your everything

Is it a game to you that play on to Was this is it how you fool me

How could you love me

If you love me you would come back to me

And marry me instad of her that you don't even knew or love her more then I could ever love you

I felt love when we were both so near but now its so far and gone forever and left me diyng alone in this world

You thought my breathaway

Why I can't love again

Like I love you before

Why is it so hard to breath

When I let you gone

Why does it fell like a game when one fall the other reamin stand in strong I give up on you

Putri Misnia Shary Bahri

Love Poem Vol. II

My eyes scabbard in a dream which has reveal the true realities shatter Screaming your name in a misery night which sit in and collide all at once Could you hear me crying?
Do you even know how its break my heart, Once sweet surrenders which sits in?

Has fading away disappearing?
Every word you once said which I believed How much you loved me you give your heart away Everything we ever had, has all vanish away

Torment between the passions which sit you plays your games Forever is no longer you come in with proposal Which wasted I give you my heart you treachery

Like a game of a war we have to be apart forever Without knowing it right between our eyes that's its over

I give up on you forever is no longer
How you cut me open and left me bleeding How could you

Stop wasting your time searching for me I'm already gone don't you know that After all this time you realize how much I love you And how much you love me what a waste

It's to late to get back forever is no longer
All the sweet moment are all gone?
This left to bury it inside of me

If you love me so much like you said
You should do something before you said I do For someone that you don't love
There is no more us it's all gone forever Just left me breathless and dying

Love Poem Vol.I

I heard his words
His Feelings I felt
So deeply opposition
By the kisses
By his touch
His arms wrap around me Close to his chest Feelings so safe by his embrace
The looks he gives I read his eyes
His afraid to let me go He whisper to my ear softly
As he kisses my lips without hurts

The Undead Love

My hearts fade into black my Sorrows getting deeper Falling through the night of Emptiness within sadness Losing my faith of expectation my feelings for you which keep Hinder inside of me which I can't seem to let go Hearing footsteps beside me getting closer I could hear a voice calling out to me from the graveyard where you lay under.

The rain is falling rushing my way in the door blows open I could feel the eerie the room was dark peace and cold without a sound I could hear the eeriness music coming from the music room Your face appear in front of me I could felt the sanity again My words frozen without a voice?
I'm trying to catch my soul You see through me reading all my feelings and thoughts my heart sunk all colors come alive again

Tu Amor Vale Más Que Millones De Estrellas(Your Love Is Worth More Than A Million Stars) Spanish Version

Tu amor vale más que millones de estrellas Géminis: el gemelo & Piscis: el pez

Te ame desde el momento en que puse mis ojos en ti Tu eres mi Angel
Te quiero con toda mi alma

Tu eres mi luz en la oscuridad Mirame a los ojos
Por amor de dios Te amo desde el fondo de mi corazón amor mío

prenda de amor Siano i baci le parole d'amore che non ti dico

Echo de menos todas esas noches Sin ti no puedo respirar Cada hora que paso contigo me parece un segundo Corazón amor mio

Cada día te quiero más
Soy feliz de compartir cada instante de mi vida a tu lado

Tu amor vale más que millones de estrellas
Soy feliz de compartir cada instante de mi vida a tu lado
Besarte es como ver las estrellas

Without you I can not breath

Each hour that passes with you seems like a second
