Ali Rizwan(25.05.94)

A very soft and subtle poet. I like to be realistic and try to get more emotional in my poetry to express my topics.

<You≫

Id cry for you and fly for you
Id walk on flames, id get fired for you
The way you look at me
Id reverse time for you
I like you so much
Time had its clutch
Whatever the say, I will fight for you
With these eyes, id always look at you
To be honest, I want to start a new life with you
Try saying no, Id die for you

Earth

We have made earth is such a dark place
People, energy, its left with a broken face
Our harm is even seen from space
By us, and the evils that dwells in the human race

Trees are being torn down
Deforestation has the crown toxic pollution is the common lad
Earth has lost what it once had

Stop sending baloons in the sky
A miracle is worth a try
Earth does speak and so do I
Once its done, it just doesnt go bye...

Heartfroken

I want you back.

To fill in the crack.

You left me in sorrow.

I do wanna cry tomorrow

Time had taken its place.

I deleted you from my interface.

You never went on a date.

I guess it was fate.

I never should have tried.

Your

no.....I CRIED! ! !

Trust was a big mistake.

Rest, I had the stake.

Tick

tick, time ran out.

I did suffer, my heart got a drought.

Knowing

The world has come to its end
2012 might have the final bend
We the people have to realize
Cutting trees please stop to terrorize

I know it and I will change
One reason can rule a page
Its easy to know then to do
But to do is for you

Lovania

Love is like a fountain
Climb it like a mountain
Life is short
With love you wont abort
Come to Lovania wit me, my love
There we will fly high above
Rejecting the world that keeps us apart
We listen to our heart
We live in honor and pride
And love for each other that we cannot hide

Muhammad (P.B.U.H)

Being human was all he said
We will think but now he's dead
Muhammad was the greatest of the people
All he wanted was everyone to be equal

My Angel

As the winds stroke by
I woke up with a sye
High high up inthe sky
That angel caught bye

Her hair were like gold
Only just if i could hold
I saw her when i was to depart
With a gaze i lost my heart

Love had awaken and i was taken
It all felt as if the heavens had shaken
I had to meet her or i would die
But how could have i reached that high in the sky

Never in my life was i so clear
To have her look at me in the eye, my love, my dear
Her wings were as soft as silk
Her face so omnesent and white like milk

Her feet never touched the ground
Oh i wish i could get air bound
The eternal love that had started
Her memories left me alone and dishearted

My Life

Life had always been a race
Im tired of being a disgrace
Motivation was always needed
I miss her so much, I pleaded

She was my everything, I need her now
My love never changed, she never knew how
I had to move on, even if it kills me
She doesnt care just let me BE....

Ive lost my way, I cant sway
Just want to drown, ending up at a bay
But hey life never stops for no one
Im going to become the one

She

She is perfect, and I love her so much
Her eyes, that smile, her hugs and the touch
We were so good together
Could stand by through any weather

I made a mistake and now it's done
Without you hon! , there's no fun
Nobody's perfect, that I know
But for me, it was you

You are the reason why I smile
Your face made everything worthwhile
I know I'm not the most ideal guy
You know I tried, I'm just so shy

I love you so much, it's insane
We broke up, I'm hurt, the pain
You were always the one I wanted
Like in fairytales, I got enchanted

The Broken Organ

The conception of my love is drastic
She broke my heart and started a static
She doesnt know what she has done
Shes a kid and thought, it was fun
I was changed in more ways than possible
She ignored me, its so horrible
Life is short, live it with your love
But she broke me and flew away like a dove
Even the universe is not that complex
Her eyes, her smile and that reflex
The organ of love is trying not to cry
But it did, because my love didnt just go by Her smile, her touch was never so missed
Because when it was time, we never kissed
The organ is broken, but there is still time
For that smile, id do any crime

The Talk

I talked to her that day
I was sad, vulnerable, on a rock, I lay
I was hurt to the core
I never liked her gore

My feelings were right
I cant even bare to fight
I can never forget that face
It was first love in this case

Now i move on
My feelings headed strong
I did forgive her, but i cant forget
Sometimes i wish, we had never met.....

The Thought...

The ones i loved have faded away
That lead to me going astray
My love had never died
I stood in a room and cried

Sure shes said its me not you
But i know thats not true
She blamed it on me, I guess i deserved that She didnt love me like i love her, I did observe that

Why people change, I never get that They dont care and forget
My feelings and the pain I felt
They dont know, the damage it has dealt

Im still walking
The world is stalking
Left heartless, regardless i never backed out
I know the secrets, the lies but I never shout

Now I know what this is all about
I should never have suspected my dought
All my life I have fought
Love, Fear, Anger, The Thought....

The World

The world is going through a change
It was because of us, it had to gauge
You think we cant see
You dump oil in seas, which causes debree

When it hurts you, you realize
But if it doesnt you always criticize
You love your families and they do too
Whales also have kids and they have to grow

They didnt commit a crime
They want to live, give them some time
They do not survive
Stop all this so they come alive

Ali Rizwan

Your Face

I love your smile, its just so nice
Your face is so pretty, I always look thrice
Your eyes, sweetly i love that hazel in your eyes
And your face makes me go crazy as mice
Id like to hold you in my arms
To show you my delightful charms
When we hug, its like im flying in the sky
When you look at me I go so high,
When i saw you for the first time
To see a glimpse of that smile, Id do any crime
Before I met you, my life was hell
But now around me you made a love shell
Just one hug made me realize
That in love id have to specialize
When I see your hair and see those curls
Id like to compliment you as they look like pearls
I really love your face
When ever I see it I get embraced
