A Soul Impaled

Me being lost and confused has transpired to being depressed Things that have past have not coalesced Filled to the top till my cup runeth over There are many things that cause this chip on my shoulder
I cannot move it away it's like a stationary boulder
If I don't deal with it now it will be there when I get older Feeling like my spirit is already broken and diminished
And my bright future has already been finished I need guidance for I have lost my way
For my lips wont speak but there is so much to say Like a mute person I can't let it out
It makes me want to kick, scream, fight, and shout Without being heard the anxiety and pain grows stronger I'm not sure if I can bear this burden much longer Trapped in an eternity of sorrow and hurt
My heart is steadily stained like it's worn on the sleeve of my shirt Death is inevitable so I should just meet it half way
I might face that fate tomorrow if I don't face it today
Help me escape this pain that eats me alive It's as though this demon loves my hurt and my pain makes it thrive Constantly I smile and make things seem like its just everyday life
When reality portrays my heart impaled with a knife Dying is easy and living is hell times six I'm tired of life and its contradictory tricks

Chances

I feel like I'm whole I found my missing part I hope there is never an end to our start I found where I belong right here with you you opened my heart to things I never Knew I'm gonna stick it out with you through and through for your love there isn't anything I wouldnt do

Closeness

trying to get closer is so hard to do everytime we talk i just cant get throught to you a painful past locks away your emotions getting closer to you is my devotion im trying to break the chains from her frozen heart and yet im confused where do I start? ? ?

Fade To Black

As I slowly fade to black I turn back and reminisce About all the good things we shared and what I will miss
We were picture perfect like a motion picture
It was like a dream every time I was with ya I want to turn back and recapture the flame
But it's too late now because the fade to black came.

Never Back Down

try to knock me down i get right back on my feet because i know there is a destiny for me to meet weather its now or later only time can tell because everytime i get knocked down i always prevail to reach success is what im tryin to do so if you're in my way move and let me through

Perfectly Imperfect

her long hair strong and black rests gently on the center of her back the luminosity of her perfect smile echoes in the distance when I first met her I loved her at that instant star struck and lost in a daze I halted in admiration, stunned and amazed perfect with imperfections no need for corrections, god chose her to receive my affection no woman comes close or can even compare to her beauty and grace she is just too fair she belongs to me I don't have to share a love like this doesn't exist anywhere oblivious to intrusion and beyond the confusion our love has grown and the authenticity is proven

Played

yeah im feelin so neglected you played me hard and i got so disrespected well damn what should I have expected i guess its time to become coldhearted just to keep me protected she was supposed to be real and never synthetic but all she was is fake and she's so pathetic i cant belive what i did yea of course i regret it i never knew pain could feel like this until i met it

Reminiscent

I'm constantly reminded of when I loved you I was so caught up and entangled I didn't know what to do You had me hooked line and sinker
Now I became a real man a real deep thinker So conflicted on whether I should give it another shot Because you are all I got.

Your Kiss

Your soft luscious lips pressed against mine everytime we kiss i wanna do it one more time your arms around my neck and mine on your waist I'm mesmerized by how good you feel taste
Your kiss is like crack and I'm addicted like Whitney I'm under your spell and no one else can get me
