saad ansari(10-10-85)

I like reading n writing poems.

? Life?

Life Meant to live.

Living which deals with suspense

Suspense which creates need to plan

Plan, we according to our needs

Needs us to strive & to success

To succeed it wants us to dream

Dream a life full of Extravagant happiness

Happiness when every thing moves as we wish

Wishes which creeps up as cloudy nights, & have no ending path

Path of life, filled up with boulders left n right! !

Right decision gives us Right Life,

N fill our life with light

Light your life! ! !

Life meant to live – Live IT.

Spending all our life's time in earning wealth
Till now, I have spend my life getting education.

For My Girl Fnd's Boyfrnd..

An idiot by nature,
Boy! who made this creature...

A cartoon on earth,
The best source of mirth

His every act,
Fetches him a circus pact

His gait, Limping cake!

He smiles, To scare away flies!

His dance, A menace!

His talks, does only Mocks!

His useless acts,
Many of them in endless tags

End of it, not possible
For me, could only be a fable

OH God! Be the savior
From the self proclaimed coyer...

Life @ Software (Completed..)

Happy was I as a lark,
Until in The project I made a mark!

KT's and trainings, on a roll
Never thought will pay such a big Toll

Learned many things Though
Concepts which somehow went in through

Put all my efforts in every time
Flushed with assignments till dine

Hundred of things to remember
As complain cannot even murmur

Lunch break was shorten by an era
Tea break only a moment for aroma

All my hard work went in vain
When my lead took all the gain

due course became I, my manager's toy
Heaved and shoved by her Decoy

Released My team mates, and I left alone
To be screwed-up to the core..

With all dare I asked her to let me go
And reluctantly she did it so.

Unable to bear she resigned and left for states.
For me, it's now party and cakes

Bad Luck Gone, its gonna rain
To States, I go. Am in gain...

Thank U All for your help and assistance
Like mine should not u, have any instance.

May u have the best Day every day.
Live life happily till the D-Day

Love - Proposal; -)

You are the Sunshine in my life.
You are the Brightness of the morning mime

You are beauty every one envy
To meet you, I am so lucky

Your laugh makes me laugh, Your cry makes me cry
And In your absence, life's so dry

When you bugg me, am elated
With your thoughts am always lasted

My wish, to be a part of your thoughts and dreams,
To be always there with you by any means
I desire, Place in your heart
Till death, never be apart

Your presence, Deep in my heart, my mind...
Life without YOU, unfinished dined
I feel u in every thought &.every breath
With out you, life's a threath! ! ! ! ! !

I care for you and for u alone
Only that I cannot get u clone

I aint no flirting romeo or fool
U know, i love and am so cool

Chance to meet, given by life
Would you please be my wife?
Ponder before you cut my heart with 'No' word knife
Yes or No, for life none other could be my wife..

Rain - Gain Or Pain?

The lovely sky that was covered with Blue shine
Now seemed to be colored with dark brownny shrine,

Suddenly it started crying,
Drenching living n non living

Drops which pierced as arrows,
Causing them pain n sorrows

Some of them shivering brutally
Though some enjoying fervidly

Quenching some of them's thirst
Filling up the pools n lakes first

When it comes both beast n human enjoy
Though some have to leave their joy

When it angers many loose their Lives,
So tis asked to keep safe your WIVES

It ruins many life forms
Still giving life to some un-life forms

Now who to decide tis good or bad
Or to learn, every good has some bad

So, Do Consider Good, Do Believe Good, Do Good
This is all what it teaches u dudes!

Gud rain - hmmm...!!!!??????

The Woman! - Honor For Human Kind

It was an honor and best gift when she was made
For a man, although a bit late

With out her life was all in vain
Got her, on planet was a big gain

Womanless life was dull and boring
Even moon and stars were mourning

Her single smile takes away all the toil
& every concerns & worries present on the soil

Thought us to give more
Be happy even with less to the core

Organized us
Otherwise life was a mess

Always there through out our life
Some time in life she becomes our wife

Without her we were never a father
Gives us another girl as a daughter

Her charm drives us to heaven
N even her biggest sin to be forgiven

I request u every time, in life be there in every form
As a Mother, a Friend, a Wife n a daughter, in every Norm..! ! ! !
