Tranquility

I have no extra weight, relaxed is a friend of Mine.

Tranquility comes from a friend, who is very Kind.

Sometime I meet my new friend, evil as can Be.

I embrace my new friend, with love for all to See.

Relaxed again, tranquility becomes a friend of my Mind

Who Am I

I'm so lonely, I have lots of friends
When you meet me, you'll invite me in
I will embrace your soul, with all my might
Only at this time, I will win the fight
Who am I, you'll never know.
It's the ones that understand, that I can't own

Who am I?

Why

Why

Is the question from the beginning of time

Why

Is it good or is it evil

Why

To understand, there is no why
