It was her behaviour to keep it carries as her Goal'

A Walk To Heaven With Meditation

'In a deep breath I started this walk,

But in initial it was quite hard'

'As far as breathing in and out,

The path becoming smoother'

And after the sudden disaster, there was a fresh Arena'

so clear vision in my mind'

Veins having such amazing sensations'

But never had such a soothing one'

In this hardest life the competition is tough'

No hurdles would be there on the path of Goal'

"Again A Dark Night"

Again a day has set down, and Again I didn't fall sleep.

Now I fall in Love with these awaken knights.

Not having problem with these dim lights.

These knight stirs my mind, I could think better than ever,

Blowing winds making sounds like that hear never.

The moon light comes
With the cool winds,

Something I could hear, but without strings

Into the window a pears dropped inside the room,

The pears was the thoughts bomb, just bang! and Boom!

When I saw outside, an angel was in the sky.

Had pears necklace, that was even fly.

Sometimes I think, there is anything Wrong in me?

Something strange happen
Other doesn't but I can see.

Wondering in these I fell asleep,

Nothing more left, there is to reap.

Morning alarm, rang always it rings,

Started seeking, the previous night's the thoughts of wings.

"Death Is Actually To Born"

What is happening to me,
This night I'm feeling so free.
As my soul leaving my body, and It feels so light.
Calmness is now everywhere, even here its all white.
Such a Satisfaction is here that i never had,
Now I'm not judgemental, what is right either, or bad.
Neither I'm breathing nor blinking my eyes.
Neither setting suns here nor days rise.
Everything stuck here, no boundation of the time.
Positivity all around here, no existence of crime.
Even negativity from my inside, now has gone.
No one knows here, that the Death is actually, Actually to Born.

Deep Thoughts II

A moment I found that where I have been stuck'

Nothing left in heart but the emptiness'

Changes fill enthusiasm which I have already observed'

But what makes lives worth living, a question required to get solved'

Casually suggested other that don't let things come over to you'

But when weight got on my heart, I have to been through'

Conscience doesn't let the things bear'

But heart has no choice, to flow of the tears '

Insomnia fills anxiety in mind'

Just grab the chance and up it bind'

In these deep thinking, started dozing off'

Life will be normal and would be flying on the top'

Knowledge

The most important thing that requires to stand on the path of this Life's journey, to face and get rid of all the hurdles and keep walking towards the Goal.

We started our life from our home,

where The God gave us himself but as a Mom.

But she has to push us out by squeezing her heart,

Because to live in the world, there is an Art.

To live in this cruel world, by knowledge you have to be a richer,

And for that everyone requires a Teachers.

They start their teaching from writing to Speak,

Thus how we become stronger where we been so weak.

In this been they become harsh for sometime,

Its even for us because to educate us for them actually prime.

They are instructor that show us right path & right ways,

Teachers are actually the God's grace and Divines rays

Love Of The God

'Love has power, power of Divine

It fills meaning of one life,

Love is the gift, Gift that gets of fortune,

Rather you aren't going for,

but Some divines put you in.

Without love, Life is like blank book,

Like in darkness one tries to look.

There are some shoulder made for each and Everyone,

To let your self lean and get relax.

But when you are shrugged off by own,

God himself comes and give you calmness.

Be believer of God, he will always with you.

Either anyone loves you or not but he will.

We find gains and such things in sake of Love,

But in his way he always just make you feel better even how wrong or bad you are!

He has his own way to spread love in one life, We should have such a trust and would get that we need to have! ! !

Mistakes

'I' makes mistakes and keep making on.
Where were my intentions or where have been gone.

'Mistakes could be improved, if it hits on heart'.
But I think 'I' has lost that art.

Chances were there, but I was lethargic to grab them.
Which filled sob in my heart because didn't know how to stab them.

Tried to catch, which was dropping down.
Without hardship, no one could have the king's crown.

Made worthless effort or something worthy it was.
It seems easy but life is actually cinders path.

I have to walk through, on those hard ways.
After a dark night there are blessing days.

I should wait for the Sun, to shine.
Which 'I' messed, to correct them and to refine.

After making a mistake one gets a lesson,
If positivity reflected on its reaction.

Get lessons but don't repeat them all,
To make mistakes isn't life's Goal.

'Sometimes it gives wings to fly in the sky and other moment it digs under own soul.'

'In a moment it puts velocity and second moment slows it down.'

'Sometimes it plays sweet melody and other moment it keeps quiet.'

'Sometimes it fills the gap and other hand it parts.
This is actually the Nature traits and its Art.'

'Wisdom By A Dream'

'WISDOM By A DREAM'

It was a dream, but a lesson too..
Neither it was fake, nor could say true...

Bitter but the better, it was meant for...
Wisdom was there, to ripe from the core...

Flood waters was all around there, but me was firm...
Wasn't any divine power in me, but holding by arm....

Who was holding my hand, this one also a being...
But it left my hand, in sake of some thing...

I have been floated away, from an end...
But It turns its direction, as there was a curve bend...

But suddenly I was stuck, middle of the way...
Thought there is something for me, that let me stays...

Innocence or what, a stupendous madness in me...
Things taking advantages, and letting me free...

What's the Tendency of beings, I didn't have that idea..
How to find it or which is the criteria...

But this wisdom, had granted by the God...
It was the way, he used on me to taught..

Still I'm flaunting in same but the path comes always new...
Still stopped by things, but now me having a VIEW..
