Scentsless Apprentice()

Hello,

I was born in Rotterdam.

At first I lived in the suburbs for 16 years,

I moved out on my 16th because the situation at home wasn't that great.

I lived with my former girlfriend for almost two years until she broke up with me for some unexplainable reason.

While I lived there I took care of her and her little brother.

I went to school 5 days a week and went to work in the weekend to afford a bit of a living.

When she broke up I moved out and rented a small apartment, I basically had one room a shower and a toilet.

I lived there for 6 months (could be longer)

I wasn't allowed to smoke or drink inside.

When I didn't want to pay 30% more rent I got kicked out of my house.

Which was sending me back home....

Within two months I got into a fight with my stepdad which sent me to the hospital for the rest of that night.

They stitched my lips, fixed my broken tooth and I was sedated for a day.

I still wear the braces for my tooth, and that really sucks (so to say)

Now I live in some shabby neighbourhood, the roof is leaking like a madman.

Well at least I can afford a bit of food.

Last December (30th) a close friend died which really broke my heart.

She was only 17 and she has been fighting for all her life to keep breathing.

She lost the fight and got into a coma.

One of the poems called Kim or Kim2 went into the coffin with her which I really appreciate.

WEll anyway if you have questions you can email me!

All For Nothing (Old One)

the poems I wrote for you, the songs I made,
thinking and even praying was all I could do.
Hoping to see your face.
you had me messy and tangled up,
It's a big disgrace!

attempting my suicide,
marking my veins.
all I did was hide,
you saved my skin,
I loved you so much, maybe the mother of my kin? ?

You locked me behind bars,
No place to breath,
we were torn apart, in different cars,
the long end,
i fell in love with some one else, feelings are though. something you can't bend,

You asked me back,
I said no.
at timing is what you lack,
you knew about the other girl, you were testing me,
now your mad,
and I am free

Broken Heart

you cant picture what would be,
If we would live in eternity, I'm desprately in need,
of my mothers hand, in a welcome land,

But now I know,
your picture,
doesnt include me, its a perfect house,
with a loving family, Yes I cried,
cried my eyes out for some days,

And I knew what you would say,
Kept myself together for the rest of the day,

You could be there,
close to me,
but now we will see,

you're so far away,

I wish you would be here,
I cant face another day,

City Of Fools

City of Idiots, mindless self, repeat the rush
city of Idiots,
I try to forget,
don't dare the smile a bit, just pretend that you are dead.

oh city of wonders,
the city of a fool,
we try not to smile,
let's pretend that we are cool.

Chloryde food,
go faster than you can.
be another person,
don't be yourself.

be a slave from nine to five,
monday to friday, repeat it again, wake up go to work and go back to your wife

Scentless Apprentice

Going Home....

I sit here I'm on the train, everywhere I look I see lovers all around,
I feel so good because I got you, Yet I make no sound, people laugh joy in the air, just fooling around.
I can see why they are having fun, yet again no sound, I'd rather have a gun,
to shot them all here and now!

Scentless Apprentice

Gonna Get Them

Dont you care what they say?
Dont care what they say!
Call me and they'll be another prey, gonna make 'em cry,

Gonna hunt 'em down for ya,
Come on girl don't be shy.

It'll take some paint, let's do some scary stuff, let's make them faint.

Don't be affraid I'll make 'em scream out loud I've got you back and you've got my shoulder, Oh yes girl we're are going on a day out!

Terror fears and tears,
No more filthy f*n mouths, you know me there will be no-one that hears.

Hurt

Depressive poetry, no one can see,
where the problem lies,
I am sick of being me,
and I am over here,
I just want to be free,
Can you see the irony?
Please don't shed a tear,
When I take that fatal shot, don't pick up the gun it's hot.

Just Like Heroin, (By Chained Desires!)

What you get is what you see,
It won't take much to get hooked on me, so shoot me right into your skin adn I will be your heroin...
The sideaffects are sexual, are you down for a taste? <3 I'll put my nails into your back, yeah you'll feel me like a spinal attack, You want it from me on both knees, but not untill you beg me please... <3

My gf wrote this and it's pretty much how I feel about her adn yeah she is as addictive as Heroin!

Scentless Apprentice

Kim

miss you around,
I call your name,
knowing there wont be a sound,

I keep on calling your name, knowing you will reply in a dream, I try to talk to you in a world without fame.

trying to reach out, break into heaven,
to kiss you goodbye and tell you I'll see you later.

as I reached into heaven I couldn't get in,
you came down to me.
back to reality I see you aint here, without you around I fill my heart with fear.

what has become of this world?
why do we waste our lifes?
will we get old?
Will husbands be true to their wifes?

All these questions,
I fear they won bring you back,
trying to get over you,
I know this is where I lack.

lack of faith?
or just insecure?
wanted to hold you hand,
wanted to kiss you goodbye, you know I cant forget you, my tears for you will get me another high.
Makes sence if it was another low, thinking about you...
It's jsut another blow.
Punches me in the face,
your endless fight,

still you didnt tie yourself to a shoelace.

I'd give up,
you fought well,
the lat time I saw you was scary, but ohh so swell.
Never felth so good,
you were so skinny like you never tasted real food, so scared to move on,
some battles lost,
but you've won.

now you are free,
not without a fight,
see you going away,
moving towards the light.

I've never seen someone be so brave, although you are in an early grave, you were so wise,
teached us all that we could fight for our right,

you know girl,
you are everyone's guiding light.
never forgotten,
I'll grab another drink,
to my boots..
is where my courage sinks.

so,
here you are,
you are ill,
all those fights,
gave you a scar,
think of me now,
think of me somehow,
I don't know where you are,
but still
I remember your scar,
Oh I pray,
I pray,
pray for your safety,
safe as you are,
you live again,
you live so free,

she was only seventeen, she lived her life full throttle, she knew she was an empty bottle, she's the best you've ever seen, living an uncertain life,
that horrible place was hers to stay, laughing all the time, she didnt knew if she'd make it another day,

many people want to die,
she did everyday,
I feel hollow,
and all she did was play,

talked to me
Oh I didnt know, WWho she was,
where she would go,
now she's a memory,

fought all her life,
but I know,
I know she is free,

many people want to die,
she did every day,
I feel hollow,
and all she did was play

Losing

fear makes me feel strange, creeping death, the rape of my mind, even the long shot was out of range, leaving nothing behind, except for the truth.

trying to push my fear, looking it straight in the eye, fighting it to the end,
I wind up on my knees with a waterfall of tears.

Losing you all,
lingering in the darkness,
hiding in the shadows,
I could be the last to fall.

Love Is The Hardest Part

People say that love is a game, learn how to love, it aint about fame.

Sometimes you feel like you have found the one, and after a while you got told that htey are with someone you fall to ground, you break your jaw on the floor, if they say I love you, it's nothing more than a horrid sound.

It's so hard to part,
and thinking about your love,
It's jsut a way of art.

I know because I feel this way,
I have been hurt, and felth it everyday.

It feels like a knife to your heart, everything collapses, you are exactly at the start,

why couldn't she be true?
why didnt she.. all these questions with no awnsers, it's doesnt matter how much I ask,
I still feel blue.....

Mother Nature/ My Sweet Butterfly

Such a smile and oh what a pretty face, I wouldnt care to travel another mile, cuz she was in this ugly place, but the sun was shining, it was lightin up my face, I went out to meet her there there were so many people around, It was hard to see her and yes I felth my deepest fear.

that's when I saw my sweet little queen, she didnt see me, so I stopped to look,
I dont like to brag but she is the prettiest girl I've ever seen!

the weight fell of my shoulders so I walked towards my girl, I missed he r so, my only wish was just to hold her,
there she was in my arms, I gave her a sweet little kiss, oh those eyes..... that smile... and her laughter, each and every minute I realise that she's the one I miss.

Our 'goodbye' caused me alot of pain,
A passionate kiss, told her she's the one.
those were beautifull things...
She's like mother nature, 'cause when I left it started to rain..

Scentless Apprentice

My Friend

tears in my eyes, I can't swallow,
the music and the empty voice, I can hear you breath trough the music trying to reach me, your looks,
your eyes, you tried to teach me,

I love you,
no-one can take that space no matter waht you will be here with me, crying out loud,
screaming the pain.
I will cry it out,

Damn I miss you,
the best frined I ever had,
I took it for granted,
no strength left,
you kept me fed,

love. pain, worries,
no chance to say goodbye,
you went up in fire,

ashes to ashes dust to dust, even in death,
you are the one I can trust...

Scentless Apprentice

My Mind

toxic thoughts,
my mind is on the blink, welcome feelings
you know what I think.
nothing to drink and food tastes like ash.
wear out your welcome, nothing to think my life is going to crash, runny eyes my face is wet.
nothing is worse than the medicines, no one wears the hat.

trying to suffocate, see the spaces in between hurry up I'm running late, it's the best I've ever seen

Scentless Apprentice

Never Thought It Would Happen...

you were my strength,
my hero,
nothing will replace,
you wont be forgotten,
No-one will forget your face.

Try to forget that place,
Medication to keep you breathing, Allways arm around you,
To keep you fighting, Oh I've felth the blues.

The ballad of your death,
You lived so fast,
Hope you were happy to your last breath,
This time wont be the last.

Hope you would stand up,
Smile at me,
Telling me it was a joke,

Please stand up,
Wake up again,
But you wouldn't move,
You touched so much hearts,
You move all things aside,
You are an everlasting groove

Scentless Apprentice

No Cure No Problem

oh my love so sweet and pure, you think I am the antidote, But I am merely a drug to put a smile on your face, oh merely the drug to keep up the pace.

So there I go,
on my way again,
I guess it goes to show, that I'm not jsut another young man.

I was breaking hearts and telling lies,
I was showing faith that wasnt there,
It turned out bad I am not the one that cries.

Because I got you, it breaks my hear each time you go, just because I love you dear.... I really do

Pretty Eyes, So Much Sorrow

She said such pretty eyes,
So much sorrow,
Wish there was happiness to borrow,
A smile,
Or just a memory,
To carry my feelings another mile,
A hug and a tear,
A kiss to cover my fear,
And on her to wipe away my tear,
Such pretty eyes,
So much sorrow,
I'll always remember those words,
Not to cover lies,
Only to feel happy,
Not to protect our bond that ties,
You're my writer's muse,
I want you here,
Some is something I could use,
You made me cry,
You made me strong,
You made me fly, Ohh I do long,
For you to ease my soul,
We all have a purpose,
We all have a goal,
Stay close to me,
Please do,
I feel so safe with you,
Such pretty eyes,
So much sorrow,
I'll remember your intention,
Your words,
I'll always need you

Questions Of Love

she like a fairy,
looks like an angel
Don't need to tell her,
It seems so scary,
What if she likes me?
What if she hates me?
What does she seem to be?
So simple and funny,
as cute as a bunny,
look at her eyes now, wanna be with her,
can someone tell me how?
try to protect me,
try to get over her,
try to let it be,
she's like an angel,
fallen from heaven,
she is so perfect,

fallin' in love now,

Road To Home (Without You)

I tell her that I'll miss her so, then I look into her eyes, they beg me please don't go.

Then I smile and tell her that I'll always be true, the sun shine in her eyes they are shining on my face, So I told I've found the one... the lucky one is you.
we hear the whistle blow our eyes are full of tears, I give her a kiss and tell her that all is going to be ok, the train departs we say goodbye, and we live to the next friday,
The girl has stole my heart and she caught my eyes

I love you

Scentless Apprentice

Shed A Tear

Shed a Tear 'cause I'm leaving now, Don't feel ok to smile,
But I know we'll make it trough somehow.
When I leaven I break your heart. I know.....
Words wont fill holes,
So I promise I will show...

Show my love and my loyalty, I'll bleed for you and cut out my heart, someday I'll ask for you hand, we can build a house and we can be free.

I know I can't live up to your dreams, But everything is what I'll do, anything for that sweet sweet smile, love, don't give up on anything because it's better than it seems.

So whenever you are sad or down,
Read what I wrote, and hopefully you will get rid of your tears and your frown.

Scentless Apprentice

Siempje :)

I' am falling,
Just free falling,
falling in love with you... please awnser the phone I am calling.

Just to hear your voice,
Telling stupid jokes to hear you laugh,
Soon this all will be over...
I wouldn't need to call.
I 'll just have to open my eyes,
I know you'll pick me up when I fall.

hug me when I cry,
kiss me while I sleep.
girl I am just thinking and I allready fly.

In love so badly,
like catching a fever and you are my meds, can't eat or sleep when you are not around When I open my eyes in the morning so sadly....

I see you are not here, just before I frown I think of our future,
It just takes away my fear.

Sweet Goodbye (To You Two)

There aint no sunshine today, pouring rain, clouds in the sky, She's in a wheelchair, he hung himself on a sunday, aclohdol to ease the pain, trying not to cry,
Feel like all is done for fame,
Rituals won't change a thing, feeling everything,
Just listen to my heart....
It's lingering....

Hungering for a smile, to feel the joy in my eyes, today has been a nightmare, this weeks was the worst one,
it's been a black page, a black page with a bloodred stain.

I look back and try to smile, fillin my mind with old joy... white letters on the blavk page, just to cover up the bloodred stain.....

The First Time

I had no words left to say, cause I told you all I know, I was so affraid when I was meeting you that day, Thinking of stuff on the train, what I would say to you,
but my mind was empty, so the thinking was in vain.

I waited for you there for you to get off the bus, and I didnt mind the fare,

When I saw you there, with your flower dress and your beautifull hair, I couldnt move, so i jsut stood and stare,
So I got myself together and moved towards you, nothing more that I could do.
a hug a kiss and stare at you,

Girl I love you so,
SO I guess i wrote this poem..
Just to let you know

The Sweetest Dream (Wouldn'T Match Up)

I wake up beside you, I'm ready to fly,
then again it's sunday,
I hang my head and cry.

I know you will be hours away,
Dont want to miss you now,
Secretly, I wish you could stay.

I watch you sleeping, makes me wonder if you dream of me, \You look so peaccefull,
It makes me ready to sing.

Don't want to faal asleep, because it wouldn't match up for me, I've fallen so deep...
Deep in love with you.

Scentless Apprentice

Tragique

Keep my desires chained, waiting for my tragic end,
my body's crumbling, and my mind hungers for you.

I think about my funeral, oh thinking about how beautiful you are, it's such a struggle to choose,
I want to stay but should I.....?

Playing in the moonlight, my mind is set on you, precious girl, you're a real gift from above,
you make it all fade,
make it fade into the sunlight, the sunlight from your eyes

Scentless Apprentice

What I Would Do

I cried,
I laughed,
I saw you smile,

Your smile makes me belly itch, the butterfly's are making a tornado, It's represents my love for you,
I got so sad,
when I lost you,
I drank a bottle of sorrow untill the last drop.
I was fine, but I got sober, I will go untill the last chop,

All the knots in our way, the fights we've been trough has teaches me alot, You can lie untill you get shot,
You will find out, you will know the truth, beyond our world you would go for the awnsers, my god you are hot!

I will be loyal,
I shall tell the truth,
Conquer my fears, further than breaking out in tears.
trough the valley of the death,
and the valley of pain,
I shall win,
I promise...
I'll be yours.
In the treacherous plans, of deceith, in the will of goodness,
I will be on your side, all my life,

Scentless Apprentice

Where Are You My Friend?

Sometimes life seems unfair, sometimes life is given,
and sometimes life gets taken away, these things never seem fair, but life goes on.... it feels like it leaves you powerless.
think of the good, the bad, but never think of the end.
the bond you had in life lives on,
and there's a reason your souls mend.. it leaves a chunk in your throat don't let it get to your head, the afterlife is in a beautiful place remember the person's goodness, remember the smile upon that face.
I know this will probably leave you crying in your bed, know that the person you lost is with you, that person loves you all the way!

Drop the weight off your shoulders, each soul is beautiful and divine, yours are connected through eternity, someday that person sits on a cloud and smile upon you.

Wanting you to be free, Don't let it bring you down, a friend he/she was,
a friend he/she will be,
for you there's a shoulder available, give your to the friends and family.
