Segomotso Kandle Shamukuni()

Much can be said and done, much can be hunted and never found, but I have found me throughout my inner journey to arrive where I am.

Segomotso kandle Shamukuni is the founder and author of Kandle's Inspirational and Motivational Poetry (KIMP) .Born and raised in kasane and the only male child in a family of three.

Writing poetry has become a daily routen to motivate myself and those who embrace poetry as an art from the heart.KIMP has introduced unique poems that touch the heart and inspire the mind; for they read vise same up reads it down. throughout my days, nature and human family has become my number one motivation and strength of motivated get inspired.

Dear Boy

...hold my hand
run in lets shield form the sun soon rain may come blue that umbrella
lets hurry to church before it rains

Flowers Do Smile

if a flower knows the right time to smile get correct rest and joy a hand it gives to decorate the ground of earth to give it a meaning unto life beauty in plenty and unity beauty to the eye how can I not shine like the flower during this lovely day

From The Start

it was right
the meetings
the feelings
visions
and missions
the tears
the fears
it was a fight
but at last

Hero Of My Walks

am a hero of my walks my path I have mastered giving up will not allow

I seat here cooled by the chobe breeze the land sky the island how can I give up?

when the birds still survive their calling glorious giving up how?

when I have identified the voice of my caller am the hero of my walks the prince of my plans

I See Healing

healing I see on trees on top of the mountains the scars that it maintains over the white clouds the sky's healing colour down the waters that fall to touch hearts of all flowers that call all that clings for restoration to claim a healing position of a dear heart that longed for healing

In This Stage

in stumbling and hunger can i have anger?
when at this stage
of life that we all live where I believe

with tears of grieve
in this journey
those we are to know saddly they go without a warning
without a horn

o' how am I alone?
not to atleast cross the river and step the ground where the coffin of my grandmother inside rest her skin her bones unconscious

o' how poor for me that I could not atleast witness
her last place of rest a pace forever covered till the dead shall be awaken to be judged with those in life I breath

Joy In Diversity

for we are to rejoice as patterns that survives the hardships of life but forever joy in diversity

Life Begins To End

life begins and life does end life has been here my friend
listen and obey the sound

Life Moves On

as life moves on children are beautifully born different they come and go do we really know what for?

Love Is A Pattern

love is a pattern at home it comes in different forms to form a formation of home unity it support each entity toward creativity
it is a manifestation of its own
through everyone's uniqueness love forms its self to reveal its own way through every living thing that is attached to its sacredness

Love Not Poison

let love break the walls kick the balls

score out confusion that has dressed my nation let love penetrate hearts of wickedness of nights arise true love that gives and receives that corrects not deceive gives hope not grieve

Mine Talent

talent has been seed in me as a gift to upgrade to uplift
its speciality emerge with power to touch feel grow each hour with passion and patience guard it while at a distance this seed has been seed to grow and unfold it is talent I was born for and this talent will never let go

Salvation To Heaven

though my hand
are layed on a casket dead bodies I do bury this life is in a hurry the children are hungry many faces are angry tears cry at night

death is always around to make my path open and seek salvation to heaven

Tireless And Prayerful

someone laboured tirelessly and prayerfully that I be where I am through this labour I embrace the service release it to flow for others man sees not God's hand when it does give but surely we receive

Who Owns This Land

people have to fight to secure themselves a piece of land the world is rushing for land the rich robe the poor their land the poor due to their financial stand unfit they lose their stand as much as the snakes has not land particularly this one passing by my feet.. my stillness disturb not her movement my sight already caught her sight both we got not land reason why we meet not on sand do I really have to go buy land?

from whom with land
that owns such land?
