10 Years After

As the time passes by memory fades, with this passing time we see life's different shades...
Today i am trying to sit n tackle all my fears, by looking at the shades of my life after 10 years...
Will i be living in the world of my dreams, will life be as easy as today it seems...
Will i be missing my school life and itz grace, or i will forget it all in this worlds rat race...
Will i be getting from my friends same care and time, or they will all be changed by those silver coins shine...
Will i be with all my sweetest friends till then, with whom life is easy every moment is overwhelmed...
Will i be with my life's ultimate love, with whom i can fly high to the clouds above...
Will i be having my best friend with me too, will she help me then whenever i am in blue...
But now its the time to give halt to all these thoughts, cuz i dont even know till then i will be ALIVE OR NOT

A Gift

I can see your face in the horizon Your smile that lighten up in the midst I can feel warmth in winter through your embrace You are a proof of God's beautiful grace!

A Poem For Nico

a 5'2' in height a man w/ a Chinese eye a man that caught my eyes with his personality that makes me in love from the day i saw him i knew it was him a person that would change something in my life for the better i always want to see him smile and laugh upto the fullest i always want to talk to him about life and dream w/ him upto the extent i always want to eat with him and drink w/ him i always want to spoke to him and decide everything w/ him a day is perfect w/ him am to cancel anything for him life is extra ordinary w/ him i cant ask anything else then a simple message from him is a treasure a smile from him takes my breath away a hug from him is comfort and a kiss from him makes me fly he makes me appreciate the horizon he helps me learn life he strengthens my faith to God he makes me whole and fulfilled i wish i can hold him until the end i wish i can spend the rest of my life with him i hope God would help me reach my dreams with him

Friendship By Shiela Riza Bautista

Friendship is an interpersonal relationship regardless of the distance regardless of the status everyone is bind forever

When someone is down
It calls for sharing When someone cries
It is there to comfort

Friends are person you can be with In darkness, you are safe In the crowd, you are comfortable In silence, Happiness and contentment is present

It shelters you during the rain
It comforts you in sorrow It's your epinephrine on the rush
It protects you like a fence

Distance says nothing Money is just a dust popularity is useless with friends, I'm, always on a blast!

A bottle or two of wine
A puff of cigar is fine
A chat with them unwinds
In my nerves, our laughters are like vines

America, Europe, Oceania, Asia Wherever you are What ever you do In friendship, they are only a dew! !

Heart

Heart is a four chambered structure
It has veins and arteries Heart pumps blood for the body
It helps in the oxygenation of the cells

Heart beats for us to live
It rushes when we are in love Heart beats faster than normal when we are scared
It also fails when we are down

Heart makes the doctors rich
It causes normal people to spend much money Heart diseases range number1
It is usually the cause of million deaths

Heart is one of the major body structure
It is valuable Heart beats for our love ones It tells us what we currently feels.

I Love You

i love u coz ur a man of God, i love u coz u are honest and trust worthy i love u for being u i love u for being a nice son and brother i love u for your thoughts i love the way u are i love u even the world is against ur attitude i love u despite of your mood swings i love u always and forever.

Journey Of Love

Love is a gift
It is priceless and sacred Love is a word
Yet it is so deep

We break rules for love Sometimes called blind
A thing that cannot be understood
But it feels good deep inside

We laugh for no reason We smile unexpectedly
We bloom physically
We are energetic holistically

Love is not blind Yes it is not!
Love sees everything
It's just a matter of acceptance

Love conquers all You have to be brave and courageous Love is never rude Therefore it is kind

We should not fear love Don't be afraid to fall Shed tears if you must Experience to be broken is not bad

We all have our indwelling fate But we do not know what it is But be equipped with bravery
And Justice will come our way

Live!
Love!
Be contented!
Die Complete!

Me

I am myself
I am not like you
I love being me
I don't like being you

I love my family
I love my best friend
I am up to movies
I am amazed by butterflies

I hate liars
I say no to hypocrites
I hate social climbers
I say no to whores

I cry
I smile
I laugh to the fullest I frown to the deepest

I love looking at the horizon
I love appreciating the beauty of everything I see people deep with in I understand things on the way they should be

I don't count my breath I do count the memories
I don't mind how many failures
I do count how many times I stand and become better

Don't judge the person Yet analyze and understand them Don't count how much a person owes you Yet pray that he will surpass the trial

The Real Beauty

It's not the skin complexion It's not how white or black you are It's not how soft and smooth your skin is It's not how kissable it is

It's not your height that counts Nor the way you bring your 5 inches heels It's not the clothes you are wearing Nor the jewelries on your neck

Some people are amazed by looks They judge them by how they look Some people never know the meaning of beauty Because they are all superficial

Beauty is deep with in It is not easily seen
If a person sees only one's facade Therefore that's a shallow person

If you really want to see the beauty
Listen
Understand Look with in! ! !

Thoughts

I walk in my life with my thoughts of you I tackled every circumstances this world has to offer too In the evening
I dream of you
With the sun
I smile with you Off to work
While sending SMS
Pre occupied with things While planning with you our weekends I think of you before myself have you eaten Here's my food Just say my name
In a glimpse, I will be present

We Are 18! !

As we grow and experience childhood our parent's eye is on to guide us in all our steps

We fall we cry
We frown and Laugh

Days passed so fast
And we failed to realize Yay! We Come to the day that we turn 18
A day of changes, a day of another life!

We are not a kid
But we are still teen!
We aren't a woman yet,
But a Lady indeed! !

It's not the age that counts!
It is not just the age that changes!
It's what inside that matters!
It's what people wants to see in us!

Now that we are 18!
More Responsibilities are there!
Enjoy the freedom!
Yet know the consequences after!

A clean mind
Therefore a virtuous thoughts A humble heart for an unconditional love to others

We are 18!
Yes we are!
But so many things still to be weaned

In experiencing life's depth, height and width!

Now that we are entering the portal of adulthood,

Let's relax!

Enjoy and experience every moment

And let's dance with the music of life! !
