Believe

they doubted you they laughed on you they never believed you they were sure about your failure you heard them you started believing the same you failed you injured you started thinking you realized it was not the truth you started again they were same
you ignored them
you won the battle
you defeated the luck it was not their thoughts in the first time which gave you failure
it was your assumption of failure which made it happen do what they say you cannot do believe in your words which your heart says to your mind
never allow someone to control your actions believe in you
be the you...!

She Was Like...

unwritten lyrics of the song sail without the wind body without backbone moon in the day light sun at the time of eclipse the story which was not completed yet...!

Talk With An Urban Lady

what if you cant make round rotis you manage the groceries bill well what if you cant wear saari to impress your relatives you shine great in your grey blazer what if you cant make handmade home decor your boss proud in your creative marketing ideas what if you cant drive the sewing needle straight your husband feels relaxed when you drive car while returning from office every goddess have different weapon in their hand every goddess have different kindof power but all are unique in their own way remember that lets be what we are instead what they want because you are incomparable

The Memories..

are the garden which have bunch of magical flowers are the soft satin feelings in the coarse life are the priceless treasure which no one can snatch from us are the way to capture moments in the heart for forever are the only thing which is last even after death

Tik Tok Tik

Its not the voice of clock
Its my heart which has a block Block of your thoughts
Anyone can search you
In my memories
In my notes
In my opinions
In my smile
Time is moving
Tik tok tik
But I'm sticked
How your voice makes me so weak How you force me to say pathetic
I can't understand
Whats more painful
Your absence in life
Or
Presence of yours in thoughts? ?

Tired But Not Failed

All stories says
Spider fall seven time 8th time he climbed
I followed it
Fall seventh time at eighth time also i fall
Hundreds time i failed
Thousand time I failed
But still want to say Hey life don't dare to laugh
I am just tired
Not failed my courage yet
So wait n watch
Try all your new weapons Let me see how cruel you can be

N let me prove how toughened i hv made myself
