silent tears(10/13/1995)

i am a poetry lover and have always loved to read and write poetry. poetry helped me get through life and gave me a way to exprese my self. some of my poetry is fun and not real but most is about my life

Pros And Cons Of Death

slit your throught thats what you think the best way to go
no one to close or way to near to hear those scream that will surly excape i know it will hurt
i know ill regret.
i just hope it will work and be okey after its done
on more pain.
ill go to sleep all cold and wet ill never wake up
but ill never forget the pain of life
that was always thier
that would never let up and keep me always scared.

Rainbows

My rainbow of life is only a small delight it shines so bright but only in the light When the sun go's away it leaves me to wonder astray and with it go's my happiness from the day I try to be happy
I try to have some fun but without my rainbow with me im done.
it leaves me lonely with nothing to do nothing to love
and only emtiness ahead.

Staying Strong

they tell you that they love you then they walk away not caring that they promised not caring at all today they leave you by your self comeing around only when they please they leave you hurt and broken not caring about your needs or those long forgotten please. you make do with what you have and take care of those that are with you.
the little one whos hungry the animals that arnt dead.
you start to pry that it will get better but go to bed instead.

The Truth

They say that they can take it
They say they want to know
And for a second I believe it
And then they start to show
All the anger that's inside
All the anger that they know.
I knew that it was in there,
Somewhere peeking out
But how could I know,
What was coming next.
All the anger, and the hatred all the hurt that's in their eyes It's what I had expected but not at all what I had wished.

True Friend

sit at home alone agin
no one their
no one to care
a ring at the phone and a smile on your face the only one that could ever replace that sad, sad feelings thats been thier all day. they'v been thier sence the begining they'v been thier from the start. they'v been thier through it all to put a smile on my face to take away that feeling that i just cant shake.
and never agin
will i find some one else that will ever take thier place.

You Left Without A Goodby

you left me hear all alone without a good by, a smile, or a huge.
you left me hear all by myself to suffer in silence i know you didnt always love me i know id let you down but i really tryed my best to be the best little girl in town i only tried to please you and hide when i was bad.
i wish youd come back to me come down from heven and hold me tight. please tell me that ill be alright if you do ill protect you better, promise.
i wont let her hurt you, never agin, just please dont stay away! ! ! ! ! ! ! ! !
