Beauty

Beauty is always in smile which stays inside heart it can always be felt and it can't be cruel it can always stay within you and can't be covered with makeup.
Beauty is always in true love which makes us want to live life oh lord, thanks for the beauty you created Beauty is always within us and can't be grabbed.

Everything Will Be Fine

Everything will be okay for the women They don't let the sadness to come out She comforts others and says
"Everything will be fine".

They are faithful to their promises Makes call to hear special one voice
They are with energy, every time To make up other necessity.

They are filled with magic love Carrying lighted candle with their might The fear of love makes them unknown And walks alone on the track of life.

Fear

Fear of love is making me blind Fear of pain is making me think Fear of known and unknown Is fear a fear?

Happiness

The time that go away without happiness are just so hard to bear i fought with all i had to keep the flame of happiness burning strong but i give up i see all the years that have passed every moment that let me through happiness i wish i could go back but all i could is shed a single tear.

Heart

The heart that dreamt with daylight
And enjoyed the drums of joy With all peace, love and freedom.

Bring this heart back to me For there will be no more heart That sings with heart beat in me.

The heart that is leaped and burned In ashes smashed and crushed For there will be no more dream in me.

The Heart is the wound of yesterday And overflowing with tears
This is a mirage of destiny.

I Am Lost, I Am Lost

I am lost in the way of life I am lost the way I was I am lost in the way of love
I am lost I am lost.

I am lost in the dream
I am lost for being together
I am lost in the feeling
I am lost I am lost.

I am lost in you and could not find Lost in your love and feeling pain
I am lost in my will and my soul
I am lost I am lost.

I Wish

i could have one wish i wish i could say you
'your my heart beat' and the way i love you i could build a special world and could make you so happy knowing that i would never let the feeling with anyone than me a pure word like a moon light i would let you to smile and make love and be supporting for you forever my beautiful love.

Life

Life, each and everyone Practice in their own ways
And everyone can say, Too much of good is bad

Standing in the middle of road Everyone will get smashed Without knowing on which side To stand in running path of life

The blessing of god is great With the lovely time of life Things done in moderation
So we can live free life.

Loneliness Helps Me

Loneliness help me a lot when i sit alone surrounded with nothing it meets me in the darkness with my eyes filled with tears and sits beside me like my shadow loneliness is my love creates the ability to step up my future and always filled with peace and silence

Love

i need to stay with u all my life not like the earth and sky so far i need to stay wit u like the mother and child so close, without a gap.
i need to light up my life with u were i stayed i stayed in the blackish room i need to look at your eyes till the end of my life i need to hold your hand tight and walk behind u like a guide
i need to stay with u all my life were their is no end for my love :)

My Love Story

Do you know my love story?
when we were together he showed me the world i didn't believe myself the world was filled with happy and peace

The things made me smile when we walked together for more then a while when he looked at me i showed my beauty to see it again he ran a thousand miles we were filled with love all around and needed it long in our heart i knew it is too much but his absence pains a lot and my tears would not let my eyes dry i understood is possessiveness to me is like a mother has for her child like the sky and stars we wanna stay together.....forever.....

My Mother

My mother whose eyes were strained by the happiness that filled her eyes whose lips tasted with bitter tears waited impatiently to hold me in her hands

My mother is the biggest gift of all gods by the candle burn herself to light my life whose love start and never end who is the other name of kindness

My mother guided me and secured my life by the stay of sleepless nights holding me whose love that is worthless with her blessing no one can take a place of mother.

Penetrating

My room was blackish i lighted the candle light and started penetrating the flame-beau when my thoughts were nil the flame-beau was blazing i became conscious and understood life become fascinating when we start penetrating.

Roaring Higher

My fire in heart is aggressive Keeps burring all time Roaring higher! Roaring higher!

My fire can destruct the jealous world Till it end fortunate and convenient Roaring higher! Roaring higher!

My fire can create the ability To create the gentle heart with success
Roaring higher! Roaring higher!

My fire can be the spirit
To light up the heart in the darkness
Roaring higher! Roaring higher!

Running Away

Life I am trying to run away
This is my life, a life and life
I do no what is now,
And it looks alike Life defines only Reproduction.

My life
I single Want to Leave
My love, my thought
But not taking in my own hands
I sacrifice everything for loved one But,
I shed only Tears.
Like elasticity I can't expand More and more.
My life as large and too small
Is discovery off my life?
Life like cartoon,
And I am dream
Just as animation
The sparkle
The essence,
Force me to function Dream of life and life to dream
And I wave and I wave
Running away
Running away.....
