Tammi Celina Lyons(6/9/94)

I love reading and writing. I love to make my emotions go through my hand and let the pen do the writing. I love football, soccer, and basketball. I'm a laid back kind of girl. I'm very timid at times. I love people, and yeah.

A Touch Of Family's Spirituality

Let my spirit take over one day
And it will speak out my mind and soul.
My soul is at ease, with a single touch of comfort.
My heart has no freedom, but it will at it's full.
Let my path direct me to my destiny, for I will take control.
Yes, there will be danger along the way
But this spirit within me doesn't give up on the complications
That comes and goes.
It's the time, let there be freedom.
I'm taking step by step as I go,
And to the ones that I love
They will watch me go in peace;
For they have taught me to go at ease.

All For Him

How can I stand the pain?
How can you be so proud?
How can you know that I feel like this?
How can you not know it?

Inside I feel so hurt.
Outside I feel so happy.
Truth is I can't stand it.
Truth is nothing you wouldn't understand.

The eyes I see look so pure.
When truthfully you're a fake.
The smile I see show happiness.
When truthfully you're using me.

I will never know why.
I will never know the real you.
I will never see you again.
I will never see us together.

I thought you felt the same way.
I thought wrong.
I thought you loved me the same.
Thought something worse.

You're the reason I feel so dead.
You're the reason I feel so numb.
You're the reason I can't trust no more.
You're the reason I don't feel complete.

Because You Are Worth It

The best part in life is to smile always,
Never look back,
No regrets,
Just to go beyond the distance.
And to never let someone bring you down
Because you are worth every piece in the Bible.
God created us to make someone smile
Not bring you down.
Give joy to another person
Because you did it for yourself
And to see them smile.

Breathe

I can't breathe.
Darkness fills my surroundings.
I can't see.
My lungs are hurting for breathing.
I'm running out of air.
Breathe.

My eyes are burning.
My heart is breaking.
What kind of monster is this?
I feel so weak.
My skin pale and cold.
Breathe.

Tempted to look back.
Tears re burning my cheeks.
Water. I need something to drink.
I'm so tired.
I still can't breathe.
Breathe.

Just breathe.
Keep running.
Never look back.
My legs are hurting,
Making me feel so weak.
Breathe.

Pain in my body.
I jumped to hide.
Breathing.
Just breathe.
The air is closing in.
The game is over.
Breathe.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Calm Me Down

Calm me down
I don't want to be around
Much longer.
I'm feeling much weaker,
I'm not getting stronger.
Calm me down
I feel like I'm buried underground.
Watch me die
The chances I have tried.

Words just been said,
How can I understand?
It's been the same
As ever.
Everything is to blame.
(Me forever)

Pieces of my life,
I'm leaving behind.
I feel blind
Just remembering the times
I could've been alive.

Calm me down
I don't want to be around
Much longer.
I'm feeling much weaker,
I'm not getting stronger.
Calm me down
I feel like I'm buried underground.
Watch me die
The chances I have tried.

My heart burns.
Can't take the turns
That's been going
Round and round
Hurting me more,
I'm done for sure.

Lay me down
Stay with me
When my time is done.
My life is already gone.
What is there?
Nothings for me.

Calm me down
I don't want to be around
Much longer.
I'm feeling much weaker,
I'm not getting stronger.
Calm me down
I feel like I'm buried underground.
Watch me die
The chances I have tried.

Can'T Stop Missing You

Lost in my minds
I can't think at all.
I can't seem to rewind.
Your face haunts me
Everytime I think of you.
And I can't stop but to think
That you're missing me too.

How can I survive without you?
You completed my life.
How can I know it's true?
I want you.
I miss you.
I want you to love me
Like I love you.

Lonely as I am,
I can't seem to be that I was.

Chances

Take a step forward
Take a deep breath
Let your mind take the lead
Don't let it hurt you to breathe.

Take a step back
Take a chance to explain
Let your mind do the talking
Don't be foolish and regret your choices.

Your blood veins pumps
Your heart beat jumps
Make it understand how you feel
Make it real to make it happen
Let's talk about anything

Dreams are realities that we can't explain
Fantasies are dreams that you wish could happen
Realities are life and death
We don't choose to die
We choose to live life.

Take a step forward
Take a deep breath
Let your mind take the lead
Don't let it hurt you to breathe.

Take a step back
Take a chance to explain
Let your mind do the talking
Don't be foolish and regret your choices.

Sometimes mistakes are good
It's a lesson in life
We take chances
We take risks
But it's nothing to feel bad about.

Think of it as learning

We learned to breathe
We learned to live
We even learn about ourselves.

Lives are stories
Every person has something to say
Each day we do something.

Making ourselves explain
Making chances
Making promises that we don't keep Having secrets
And telling everybody.

Do I think it's right?
No.
But we're young
And living life to the fullest
And this is where it all starts.

Take a step forward
Take a deep breath
Let your heart take the lead
Don't let it hurt you to take chances.

Comfortable Madness

There is no dream, we've played the same scene
A movie played over and over
Have you seen my face
I have forgotten who I am
Let me out of this nightmare
I have chosen to lead the way
And so I will say come with me
We can dance freely
Let's jump in the river
And cleanse our souls
Let the rain pour down on our skin
And vanish our sins
We are not perfect
And we are no secret
We fell in love in a lost place Where I have forgotten who I am So who am I?
I need a reason why I was here locked,
And the seasons have changed through the years
I have lost myself into madness.
I admit, my escape was my drug
I wanted to escape from the faces I once knew
So I've held in tears for years asking why I was the one captured?
As the man I was stuck with understood my view
I felt my heart,
I felt for him.
I took his hand and now
I'm running running to be gone.
His arms captured around my body, and whispered
'In the light of day we finally see, and I take you by the hand and we will find a way through the mountains. I'll take care of you from this life that we call home.'
And then I knew, he was the light in the darkness that kept me from my madness.
I thought I was gone, dead to the world.
But my love, our love was the brightest in the dark.
And so he grabs my hand and leads me to the pouring rain and sing our song, for we were both mad.

Dangerous Ancients

His body building fire, his skin burning against my flesh.
His grasp aggressive, yet eased.
His eyes told me the secret he's been hiding,
For what I see he's dangerously mad, completely consumed by my existence of faith.
But his heart is cold; solid from the pit within, but than again,
He's with me.
He held me tightly, his cold hands wrapping around my waist.
How could I not resist?
He's something forbidden to even connect.
But he stays.
He flies with me.
We are as ancient as Earth, but dwell in fear of rapture.
Forbidden from different worlds,
A secrecy of what will happen if spoken.
He takes me higher than the Heavens,
Far, far away to a place that we call Haven.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Dear My Beloved

Dear my beloved,
When I finally met your eyes,
I knew that life has just begun.
When I felt your warm lips on mine,
I knew God created you just for me,
God made you mine.
The spark when we kissed,
I felt joy and happiness,
I felt the world was just us.
Your warmth cured my heart,
And I knew from your smile,
You became my Angel.
My love,
All I ever wanted was someone like you,
Now that I have you,
I just don't want to let go.
You are my love,
My one and only.
I thank God everyday,
And he actually speaks back to me
He told me to keep you safe in my heart,
My mind,
In my memories.
And that's what I shall do.
I love you my beloved Angel.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Dear Unknown

Dear Unknown,

I can't take the pain anymore.
So much things I want to say
But I'm afraid to.
My heart hurts so much that
It already feels like I'm
About to die any time soon.
I feel so dizzy that all I can Do is fall.
I wish this pain was gone.
It hurts me.
Alot.
No one really knows
What I'm going through,
Even if I do say something to them,
They just build walls around
Them so they wont listen.
What is there for me?
How can anyone understand me?
When will my suffering end?
How will I know the truth?
I don't know....

Tammi Celina Lyons

Dreams

Miracles are dreams.
There's no truth in
What we know about it.
Dreams are miracles.
We wake up
Breathing in the Sweet smell of air,
Knowing we're still alive.
That's what I know
About miracles.

Nightmares are dreams.
We sleep all night
And nothing is Going right.
Dreams are nightmares.
A passion to dream in fright
To where we know
It's going to last all night.
That's what I know
About nightmares.

Passions are dreams.
We want to desire
What we want.
We love to desire.
Dreams are passions.
Passion is a seduction
That we all desire most.
It's a lifetime lust.
That's what I know
About passion.

Emotions are dreams.
To feel pain, hurt,
And crushed.
A feeling that we can't control.
Dreams are emotions.
To explain how

Every feeling inside
Is screaming to break through.
That's what I know
About emotions.

Believings are dreams.
There's knowing
Or not knowing
The real truth
Of anything.
Dreams are believings.
To hold back
Something that brings life
Into us again.
That's what I know
About believings.

Love are dreams.
A mystery to know
When love is near.
An addiction to Want love in life.
Dreams are love.
To think it
Will never happen.
To love that
One special person.
That's what I know
About love.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Drowning In Doubt

What is life if I don't want
To live this life anymore.
The pain of depression is Coming back,
And I'm thinking suicidal.
I feel like I have no heart,
No beat, no love.
It's a waste of time
Living in this world.
I feel like I'm drowning
In confusion and doubt.
What hurts the most
Is I don't feel emotions
Like I used to.
The sadness developing,
Limiting my confidence,
I have nothing to compare.
My eyes feeling heavy,
I feel like I can dream forever,
To dream another dream,
To remember what I once was.
There's no heaven or hell,
There's only death do us part.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Explain

Explain to me how you feel.
Tell me how much she's real.
I'm listening to your words.
You choose to be in between worlds.
Love maybe real,
But you have to choose
Which is real.
Tell me how you fell in love.
Maybe it came to you from above.
She's beautiful.
Wonderful.
But choose if she's real.
Explain to me how you feel.
Some days you complain.
Everyday you whine.
I read the letters that you write
And it's beautiful.
Out of this world.
Explain to me how you feel.
Tell me how much she's real.
Choose if you know
That love is on your side.
Don't listen to others words
Just listen to your heart that Explains.

Flowers In Her Last Dying Eyes

Who am I to take a petal away from the seed that blooms its wings?
I feel its delicate problems, they sing to cry to float away.
They sing they're delicate problems, when I pick the flower that bleeds.
I take pieces of memories and thoughts that take control of me; its all reality.

I sit here in a field of weeds, the smell of nature consumes me.
I lay there and dream of better things sometimes its almost great to remember what I envision.
The feel of the wind, the songs of birds, puts my mind to ease; I could dream.

Time is within my fantasy, a limit to realize I can still grow beautifully.
I listen to the sounds of trees whispering to the wind, to sing a song that can last until I'm drawn and gone.

I am with you; a piece of myself against your world.
I lay here wishing time would collect my thoughts.
I have become the dirt within my skin, the growth of multiplying atoms and neutrons, oxygen to breathe: begin again.

Tammi Celina Lyons

For You

Stay and be Forever with me.
I'm never changing
About you.
It's been years now,
Since I ever saw you,
And felt this way.
It's surprisingly different.
I love how new
This feeling is,
But I hate
That it's coming from you.
I've known you
Since we were kids,
I've hated you
Since we were kids.
Now,
Everything I ever thought
About was you.
I thought it was hate
But the truth is
I've always loved you
And I've always denied it.
Who knew you changed
My whole life
And always had feelings for me,
Like I had for you.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Glory & Love

There's glory in your eyes.
Beauty in your voice.
Confidence that makes Everyone smile.
A twinkle in your eyes.
Your heart pounding,
Mind blowing,
Searching for love that's Way beyond all reach.
Your smile is beautiful.
Your laugh is incredible.
You make us smile
And bring us peace.
You give us love like no other.
You're like family,
A member to us.
We love you like no one else can.
You're bright as the star.
A beauty inside and out.
People say things about you,
Always about how much love you give.
Now it's our time to give love back.
Remember and always
That you have us in the back of your pocket,
Because we will always be there for you,
No matter the situation.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Goodbye

Don't say goodbye if you don't really mean it.
When I said I loved you, I meant it.
Out of all the things I've said,
I wish I could take it back.
My heart is burned and crumbled
Like little pieces of ashes,
And no one told me how bad it
Was to be that heart broken.
I used to feel I was number 1,
But in the end I still lost the battle.
My eyes dull and pain of tears,
I used to cry so much
But now I see no evil.
My hands are cold like ice,
I feel like a dead body walking on this Earth.
Someone shoot me.
I feel like I'm worth nothing.
I met a new friend yesterday and I
Asked her if she can be my listener.
She listened to everything I had to say,
The ups and the downs,
She gave me advise.
But I noticed when I looked in the mirror
That it was my own reflection.
She told me I had to make things right,
To be positive that I'm doing the right thing.
She may be my reflection
But she told me the right things
Better than anyone else could.
The times I've said I love you,
I didn't mean it,
But ever since I've said it,
I really do love you with all my heart and hope to die.
My time is up,
I'm ready to fly,
Time goes on
But what's on the other side?
I'm not saying goodbye,
I'm saying I will always love you forever

And I will always be there for you til I die.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Guardian Angel

As I stare into the eyes of an Angel,
Passion, love, protection,
Was all it took for me to accept
The Angel who saved my life from evil.
The passion to give me a life
That I would have to accept,
A choice for me to survive.
The Angel showed me love that I never knew,
A love that I have forgotten in the past.
A gift from an Angel to be protected
From the evil that comes in my way,
A way out to reach my dream.
There's a reason the Angel came to me,
The Angel wanted me to live my life each day,
Without regret and shame.
My life is in the hands of a Guardian Angel.
With love like no other,
I'm on my way to reaching my destiny.
No more regrets.
I don't have to feel shamed anymore.
My love for the Guardian has grown stronger
And I'm glad I'm alive.
I'm in his heart, in his hands.
Happiness for my life.
I can smile each day knowing the Angel is with me.
A stronger relation we have,
A special being in my heart, and in my soul.
A gift from GOD.

Hands And Feet

I've survived many demands
To see the nails in my hands.
The petitions of my enemy
Salivate at the taste of the sin in me.
I cannot deny I deserve more than the reprimands,
The gentle chastises from my Father's hands.
Yea, it should be me strapped to those wooden beams,
Poured out, stretched wide, my clothes torn at the seams.
With a mouth claiming liberty, I find myself tied down with bands
Only to see myself broken at my own hands.
Yet the slate of physical and spiritual diseases
Is washed clean when I mention the name "Jesus."

I cower at the frightening treat
Of seeing the nails in my feet.
I've got a list of iniquities Satan loves reading
In his pastime, craving the taste of my flesh bleeding.
It's true I follow this body, this rotting piece of meat
To the place of death, far away from my Father's feet.
Yea, it should be me pricked by that splintered tree,
Reproached, despised, poured out into the wintered sea.
With eyes cast upon the path of peace, I dance to sin's alluring beat,
A crooked, gentle way of comfort to my feet.
But death grows weak as I get braver
Everytime I cry out, shout out, "Savior! "

Tammi Celina Lyons

Here Today, Gone Tomorrow

A long night in the storm,
Walking the distance of distractions that may come.
A figure by my side,
Trying to seek my attention but my eyes are blind.
I see white lights in every direction.
Heart pounding, mind over thinking,
I feel the vibration of my body breathing heavily.
Whiplash as cars drive by,
I begin to fade colors before my eyes.
It's dark, no feeling.
There was nothing but time.
Here today, gone tomorrow.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Hit The Lights

Just woke up
Can't believe I'm still alive
I'm in this world full of memories
Don't be scared
I'm still waiting for you to come alive
Oh I wanted to believe
Just thought it would be you and me
Kissed under the moonlight
And its dark outside
So hit the lights (hit the lights)
I wanted to know if you were
My one and only
But the stars in the sky tell me differently
There's no lights
There's no one like you
Maybe its better that way yeah
Can't feel any pain
Just feel like its too dark
And someone should yeah yeah
Hit the lights Hit the lights
No more
Hit the lights Hit the lights
Maybe it was real
Maybe it was real
Gotta get my shine on (Shine on)
Been kissed under the moonlight
And its dark outside
Oh can't you believe
Woah can't you believe
There's no lights
There's no love
Just Hit the lights Hit the light
Woah Woah Oh
Dreams of you
Our lips touch under the stars
Sparks are flaring
My heart is racing oh
Hit the lights Hit the lights

Hit the lights so you can dream of me
Oh Yea

Tammi Celina Lyons

How Can I...

How can I understand?

There's no one

That understands me

At all.

How can I think straight?

My thoughts,

My mind starts to become

More explosive than things

That I want to say.

How can I know anything?

No one tells me anything

That involves me, my friends, nothing.

How can I dream?

I dream nightmares

That come true.

I don't get it.

How can I love?

I desire a lot of things

In life but I know

What I will never have.

Tammi Celina Lyons

How Much You Mean To Me

Just fall asleep
And everything will be alright.
I just want to Hold you tight
And never letting you go,
Just to see you smile
One last time.
Just smile for me
And you'll know my reason
Why and how much
I love you.
I knew you'd be
The best part of my life
And I thank God
That you're still by my side.
I open my heart to you,
That's how much I love you.
And that's how much
You mean to me.

Tammi Celina Lyons

How To Fix A Friendship?

How to fix a friendship?

To give her your trust.

To give her respect.

To give you your life.

To always be there for her.

To always help her out.

To be there through the bad and good times.

To be loyal.

To die knowing you had a great friend.

To tell her I'm her listener.

To tell her she is worth everything in the world.

To tell her she's your best friend.

To never go against girl code.

To always have her back.

To be her protector.

To hear her laugh.

To see her smile.

To know that she will always be there.

I miss you

And I'm so sorry that I did that to you.

Tammi Celina Lyons

How We Are

Memories that cross my mind
I can't seem to stop the past.
Memories of seeing that has happened
I can't seem to be myself.
No one understands anything about me,
And yet, they all make fun of me.
They can't seem to know anything that all.
They're fools.
But honestly, I can't stay mad at them forever.
They are forever with God's trust no matter how They think they are,
No matter how they act,
No matter how they want to be,
Who really care?
Only and forever God.
And so I should move on
So I know I will be as worth being
In this world for He made us all.

Tammi Celina Lyons

I Am

I am invincible and nothing.
I wonder if anyone believes in me.
I hear yelling every day when I go home.
I see the sky color fading over me.
I want to be normal.
I am invincible and nothing.

I pretend everythings' okay.
I feel sick sick of it.
I touch a flower and it dies in my hands.
I worry about things that are stupid.
I cry when I'm alone.
I am invincible and nothing.

I understand everyones' feelings.
I say nothing at all.
I dream nightmares that come true.
I try to think through life.
I hope it changes soon.
I am invincible and nothing.

Tammi Celina Lyons

I Don'T Close My Eyes

Your kisses get me so high.
I might melt away.
I don't close my eyes
When you're near me.
There's more than
I can handle.
I don't close my eyes.
You're burning up the night.

You're in my head
I just can't live without.
The days go by quick
And I need you near me.
Kissing you has got me hypnotized,
And your hands are fatal.
I can die anytime in your arms.

I want to be with you.
I don't close my eyes.
The rain pouring down on me
Put me under a spell
Of your wicked schemes.
It's dangerous,
You're burning up the night.

Don't hesitate,
Just listen to my heart beat,
I will be burning up the night.
There's more than
I can handle.
I'm not going to try,
Move your body
Like I know you still want me.

Something's coming over me,
I'll take the risk,
Feel me raise the night.
I don't close my eyes.
There's fire in your eyes,

Your kisses get me so high
I might melt away.
You're burning up the night.

You're in my head
I just can't live without.
The days go by quick
And I need you near me.
Kissing you has got me hypnotized,
And your hands are fatal.
I can die anytime in your arms.

Your kisses get me so high.
I might melt away.
I don't close my eyes
When you're near me.
There's more than
I can handle.
I don't close my eyes.
You're burning up the night.

Tammi Celina Lyons

I Want You Free

It feels like forever
Since I was with you
How could I tell you
That you meant so much to me?
But didn't know that
I could never hurt you
I never meant for you to Always hate me forever,
It was a mistake breaking a heart
So pure, so humanly, so full of life.
I regret hurting you
And trust me I do.
I see your face
And all I see is numbness
Without a place,
A face so unregrettable
That it makes me think,
What have I done?
It makes me think unbelievable,
But most importantly,
Where have you gone?
It looks like you
But different.
Was it me?
Was it because of me?
What do you see?
I want you free...

Tammi Celina Lyons

I Was Blind To See The Truth

I was so blind that I couldn't
See what was happening.
I loved the beginning,
But I soon discover a your secret.

It was a mistake to love you,
And all my thoughts
It's all about you.
I thought you would be
The one to end my suffering.
I was wrong.

I was so blind that you lied to me
Saying all these words
That I would believe.
I'm screaming inside
Wanting to end my life.

Why was I born?
I don't deserve to live.
You broke my heart so many times
That I'm already dead inside.

I was so blind,
Now I see everything around you
And you're nothing.
I thought you loved me.
I thought wrong.

Tammi Celina Lyons

I Won'T Give Up

Some days I dream a little dream
When the world is dark
And there's not much to think
And you are the only thing
(And you are the only thing)

I won't give up
No, I won't give up
Live with no fear
I'm here in your arms
And the days
Are fading into yesterday
And I won't give up

Like the clear blue sky
I've tried so hard to regain my strength
My fears are trapping me from seeing you
And I've tried so hard to find you

The stars are raining
Like they were my tears
But I have to say
I don't want it to end this way

I won't give up
No, I won't give up
Live with no fear
I'm here in your arms
And the days
Are fading into yesterday
And I won't give up

Dreams, oh, sweet dreams
The darkness can't find us
The light is powerful
And you are the only thing
(And you are the only thing)

I won't give up

No, I won't give up
Live with no fear
I'm here in your arms
And the days
Are fading into yesterday
And I won't give up

Live life with no fear
And I'm here to love you
To take care, cherish
For eternity
Maybe if I don't give up

I won't give up
No, I won't give up
Live with no fear
I'm here in your arms
And the days
Are fading into yesterday
And I won't give up

I won't give up
No, I won't give up
Live with no fear
I'm here in your arms
And the days
Are fading into yesterday
And I won't give up
I won't give up on you

Tammi Celina Lyons

If Yesterday Was Today

The moon is beaming down on me,
Wishing and hoping you're doing the same.
The stars scattered in the night sky,
Reminds me how many tears I cry
I don't want to say goodbye,
Not this time.

Will you ever look at me again?
Or even look at me the same.
My tears streaming down my pale cheeks,
And life feels like it is giving up on me.
I'm sorry.
This time and in this moment
I feel so weak without you.
Why did I see you go?

If yesterday was today,
I would have said no
And still be here with you.
But my regret still lingers here
Telling me what I did to you.
If today I had the chance
I would tell you,
'You mean the world to me.'

The sun shines so bright
That your eyes sparkles in the light.
The smile on your face
Looks so perfect in place,
But when I look at you now,
All I see is hurt.

If I could fix us I would start with me.
I wish and hope you will
One day forgive me.
You're the reason why I live each day.
My heart burns with guilt and shame
And I regret what I did,
I am to blame.

If yesterday was today,
I would have said no
And still be here with you.
But my regret still lingers here
Telling me what I did to you.
if today I had the chance
I would tell you,
'You mean the world to me.'

Tammi Celina Lyons

I'M Sorry

I'm sorry for hurting you,
I'm sorry for making you cry,
I'm sorry I didn't realise why,
I'm sorry for not understanding you,
I'm sorry for all those fights,
I'm sorry for not listening,
I'm sorry for not trying,
I'm sorry I failed you,
I'm sorry I didn't try,
I'm sorry for not caring,
I'm sorry for not being there,
I'm sorry for not being a friend,
I'm sorry for not trying my hardest,
I'm sorry I didn't care much,
I'm sorry for forgetting the good moments,
I'm sorry for not saying the truths,
I'm sorry for lying to you,
I'm sorry I was never by your side,
I'm sorry I didn't saying 'I love you.'

Inside The Demon

Death is my inspiration.
Living eternal is my doubt.
No love in the mystic.
Its heart to a flame.
Hatred lingering around me.
Life is not life
If I'm still living in this cruel world.
If I was born in this world,
I want out.
The anger is my temptation.
Love is my enemy.
Peace is my regret.
Friendship?
Fake to believe in.
Innocence is becoming mischief.
My enemies are my allies.
Words don't mean nothing.
They are only lies.
Death is becoming powerful.
Survival?
They try to escape nothing.
A basket full of poisoned apples?
I rather die like Snow White
And dream for eternity.
Destiny are for believers.
Believers become pathetic.
Fantasy becomes reality.
Nothing is real.
Hear my words,
Nothing is forever,
And forever never ends.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Tammi Celina Lyons

It Was Fate

The only thing that I love is you.
I wouldn't want to lose you,
Not for anybody.
You mean the world to me,
Though we're far away,
You are always in my heart.
It feels like an eternity
With you,
And I'm happy that you
Are here to stay.
The pieces to my heart
Have been found
When I first saw you,
And I'm glad you cured my pain.
I will always love you,
No matter what.
You're the Angel that came in to my life,
And there is no doubt
That I loved you from the beginning.
You showed me love,
You gave me hope,
It was fate.

Tammi Celina Lyons

It's What I Noticed

Compare me and her, and tell me what's so similar?
I see a lot of things that I don't see in her.
I'm making this easier for you if you just hear me out.
But you shut me up telling me without doubt.
How can I say that I even feel the same for you
Since you're the one showing your real color.
It's a price that I wanted you to know
That you gave up on me, on us.
I risked everything for you
So we could be together and when I did you throw it all in my face.
What's there to know when your hurting my space.
You lied.
You cheated.
You hurt me so many times that I for gave you.
Not this time.
Not in my free will that I will let you hurt me again.
She may not be me but she will never be me.
You know that already.
You can't shut me up any longer I'm free.
Away from danger and away from you.
Goodbye honey,
But remember no one in this world will never love you like I did.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Knowing That It's True

My love for you
Is pure stone.
It's crazy too,
But my love lies in my bones.

Believe it or not
I know I tried,
Making you survive,
Without a doubt.

I know I was in love with you
But what can I do,
I gave it up for you,
Knowing that it is true.

Once before,
At 12: 04,
I wish I could,
Knowing that you would.

A time for love,
A time to die,
It came from above,
And so will I.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Let Us Not Be Hidden And Dance In The Rain

There is no dream, we've played the same scene
A movie played over and over
Have you seen my face
I have forgotten who I am
Let me out of this nightmare
I have chosen to lead the way
And so I will say come with me
We can dance freely
Let's jump in the river
And cleanse our souls
Let the rain pour down on our skin
And vanish our sins
We are not perfect
And we are no secret
We fell in love in a lost place
Where I have forgotten who I am
So who am I?
I need a reason why I was here locked,
And the seasons have changed through the years
I have lost myself into madness.
I admit, my escape was my drug
I wanted to escape from the faces I once knew
So I've held in tears for years asking why I was the one captured?
As the man I was stuck with understood my view
I felt my heart,
I felt for him.
I took his hand and now
I'm running running to be gone.
His arms captured around my body, and whispered
'In the light of day we finally see, and I take you by the hand and we will find a way through the mountains. I'll take care of you from this life that we call home.'
And then I knew, he was the light in the darkness that kept me from my madness.
I thought I was gone, dead to the world.
But my love, our love was the brightest in the dark.
And so he grabs my hand and leads me to the pouring rain
And sing our song,
For we were both mad.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Living High

Living high is better than staying low.
You made me think better but you never Changed of who you are.
Living for better or worse,
I'm still glad you changed my life.
I'm still remembering
Everything that had happened
Between us,
And right now,
I'm not regretting anything....

Lost

Lost my faith,
I don't know
How to be me.

Lost the images
That once used to be.
All hope is gone.

Lost my mind,
I can't think straight.
It's crumbling.

Lost my life
In what I'm doing.
I'm destroying myself.

Lost myself
By not telling the truth.
Lies is truth to me.

Lost in everything
That I don't know
How to be anything
I ever wanted to be.

Lost my motions.
My hope of feeling
Has vanished.

I'm just lost
And I want to be rescued.
But no one knows it.
My faith is gone.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Lost My Best Friend

What have I done?
I made this happen
And now you won't talk to me.
This life won't be the same.
You're the missing piece
That I've been looking for
In a friend
And I just ruined that.
I'm so sorry.
My stupidity took over,
I wasn't thinking.
Losing you is like
I'm living in hell.
Can't you tell?
I'm miserable without you.
You were my best friend
And I guess this is the end.
I just lost you
And now I will never forgive myself.
I still smile and laugh,
But it's not the same,
It's really hidden.
I don't want to show it cause
I know I need to move on,
But I just want to know
If you still want to be friends.
I really miss you,
And this isn't the first time
We've had this argument
About the same person.
I can't believe what I did.
I really do hate myself.
I rather die than you hating me for years.
I don't want this to happen again,
And I promise,
I swear to God,
On my life that
What I did will never happen again
Because you're my best friend

And you mean the world to me.
You understood me so well
And I always listened to you,
I don't want that to change.
I rather get my ass kicked
Than see you get hurt again.
There's just something about you
That I just don't want to lose.
Can't you see I'm fading?
But I guess you can care less
But I don't blame you.
I did this to you
And I just wish it never happened.
I'm sorry.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Love Is Temperary

It's impossible for me to love.
I do love what I have,
But a love that everyone has.
It makes me feel sick
Everytime I look around
I see him, her, everyone.
Together forever,
It's a joke to me.
The truth is
For will never last.
It's a temperary,
Why?
Because that's all I see.
Everyone is temperary
Not forever.
The reason is not love
It's like,
And how the way
Boys and Girls look around
For someone new,
It's never going to last.
Love to me
Is nothing.
There's love,
And there's hate,
There's no inbetween.
It's a choice
When we get older,
A fact that we have to face.
A truth to everyone that is Temperary.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Lust. Love. Pleasure.

Her whispers became seductive.
She enjoyed how he touched her.
There was heat and temptation
Running through her body.
The pain of yearning for more
Possessed him to kiss her passionately.
Her moans escaped through her lips
And groans that both couldn't control.
His hands traveling all the way
Down her heated body
And a pinch of pleasure
That she couldn't ignore.
His lips now on her chest
Kissing her sweetly
Yet it wasn't enough.
His muscles tightened
And his pants flu down.
His hands now on her chest
And the action began.
She loved the way his breath
Was on her sensitive skin.
Her body vibrated,
And there was tension
But they weren't finished.
They had just begun.
Her fingers on his back,
Feeling pleasure overwhelmed her
And her eyes rolling back of her head.
He kept going
Feeling her fingers rub on him
Just made him lust for more.
The smell of her perfume,
Vanilla chocolate mixed with rose pedals,
He couldn't take it.
She felt her body hurting
But she pleased him.
He was all she ever wanted,
To be felt this good.
Her body being pounded

Made her screams even louder.
But that all ended when
He finally ended the moment of pleasure.
White slime inserted in her body
And then they stared at each for awhile than Kissed each other passionately.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Maybe It's Love

Show me words that I never knew

The way you used to say 'I love you.'

Someday I will blow away

You'll know how easy it was to

Be slipped through your fingers.

Now I am going to be gone.

Forgive me,

I just wanted to be gone and cry.

The ways you made me feel so wanted.

That's all I ever wanted.

Maybe it's love.

Maybe it's not.

What I ever wanted was a kiss,

To feel like a worthy bliss.

Maybe it was worth the fight.

I'm captured through your sight.

Here and now,

Was it good for you?

I know it was good for me.

All I ever wanted was to know

That you loved me so.

And now,

I just want to give up

And walk away.

There's nothing much more to say.

(Just to turn away.)

Maybe it's love.

Maybe it's not.

What I ever wanted was a kiss,

To feel like a worthy bliss.

Maybe it was worth the fight.

I'm captured through your sight.

It was easy for me

To keep on going.

Just to see you

Flying off my wings.

(Flying off of my wings.)

Jumping high off the ground

The ways you couldn't see

Is the way I couldn't look at you.

Fly away with me

I know where we will be.

Just jump off and fly.

That's all I realized.

Show me love I never knew,

Like I always had for you.

Smile for me and I'll know it's true.

Maybe it's love.

Maybe it's not.

What I ever wanted was a kiss,

To feel like a worthy bliss.

Maybe it was worth the fight.

I'm captured through your sight.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Missing You

Waiting for you.
I don't know what to do.
Forgetting is a problem
Having trouble involves them.
My heart that beats
It turns only to cheats.
Letting everything go.
There will be nothing else to do.
It's a trouble I have to deal with.
Can't remember the last time I felt this way.
For that I have nothing to say.
Just waiting.
Just promising.
I'm missing you.
It's true.

Tammi Celina Lyons

My Angel, Sweet Angel

You are the missing piece
In my heart.
This distance between us
Tortures me sweetly.
A love that is not destined to be.
A pain in my heart,
It's breaking for every time
I see you.
I can't touch an Angel,
Nor a pure heart of one.
Tears fall from my eyes,
I wonder if you could ever
Love me like I fell in love with you.
A sweet tender kiss
From your powerful heart
Lifts me into the light
That makes me blessed
With such beauty and care.
Your eyes so gentle fill me with love.
My Angle, sweet Angel,
Take me away with you
Where no others will find such Powerful love that we have created.
Your face, so tender.
Your lips, so gentle.
Your touch, so I wonder.

Tammi Celina Lyons

My Life Of Depression

Life isn't meant for me.
It's just a mystery.
I feel dead inside.
I don't understand,
I feel so dead.

Everyone treats me like nothing.
Why is everyone ignoring me?
It seems that they are happier
When I'm not there.
I feel so depressed,
Someone help me.
I am invincible and nothing.

Somebody take my soul
End my suffering in this life.
Why do I exist?
I'd rather be dead than alive.
There is nothing for me.
I've been used.

Tammi Celina Lyons

My Passion For Him

The eyes that I look
Has taken what I have took.
His feelings are my passion
That all I do is pay attention
To only him.
His voice,
High and deep,
That I can't be able to sleep.
Missing his touch,
What a feeling that I miss so much.

Tammi Celina Lyons

My Reasons To Hate Love

I'm feeling too confused to what I should do.
Should I forget it or do something?
I honestly don't want to do both.
Loving was a mistake but what should I do?
Nothing.
I have nothing to make you smile.
I still don't get why you still want me.
Why should I even talk though,
You're the reason I'm still smiling.
But every smile reminds me of Every single person that is Screaming inside for help.
It could be true, I don't know,
But that's what I think of it.
Inside you don't know what your opening.
It's not even love.
It's not even what you think.
Something worse than your revenge.
My reasons not to love,
It's not even obsession if That's what you think.
It's worse than you think.

Tammi Celina Lyons

My Understandings

Music all around me.
Everywhere I go
I can see you
But I feel so confused.
Voices I hear
Are everywhere I go.
I can feel strong
When I'm not alone.
You made it for me.
Now you can see.

Whatever happened
Is just a dream.
The thoughts I keep Reminding me that You're better off without me.
And I stream down
Thinking of words to say.
Words that you wouldn't understand.

How could I be so blind?
You were never there
When I needed you the most.
And all you ever say
That it's a joke.
I would never Want you back.

You never even understood
Anything I've been through.
I'm better off without you.
No more words to say.
How can you feel so down
When you're the one that
Let me free.

Musice all around me.
Everywhere I go
I can see you

But I feel so confused.
Voices I hear
Are everywhere I go.
I can feel strong
When I'm not alone.
You made it for me.
So now you see.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Naive

How? Why? How did it start? Why did it happen at all?

My kindness is my curse, my weakness since birth.

I did my wrongs in the past and that's where it should stay.

I could only hold it as a remembrance of a lesson learned.

Of course I was foolish, but so are many.

My brother speaks harsh words and words that he doesn't even know the definition.

I was foolish for that ridiculous statement, it was the heat of the moment. And than again, I stayed shut.

I didn't want to be the clown to continue so I let my little brother play his scene.

What a childish movie scene it was.

But still I cried, I tried not to but he who speaks my past is someone that does not know my footprints.

I stay shut for I know the feeling of losing the visualization.

We will blurt out nonsense and end up nowhere in the dictionary.

But how? My brother why? Why does my tears give you relief of happiness? How does it please you to hurt your own blood? Mother?

We are siblings and came from our Mother who gave us life and a purpose to breathe, to better our lives, to be better than our kin, to not continue the cycle of our elders.

What did I do to make you angry? How did this argument become all about my past problems?

You don't understand little brother, these are delicate petals you're stepping on.

I am childish for saying my thoughts but you also have to understand, you're committing the same movie in every series.

There's no changes in you little one.

You witnessed me try yet you don't care for my potential in achieving something so great that could be my future. Step by step as I go.

You treat family like we're no one but slaves to care for your needs.

Do you see any hurt in us at all? Why can't you try? Who is the next person to cry for help when you're all they need?

Discipline yourself today and tomorrow my little brother that knows no pity.

You will learn like I am today and into the beyond of what you don't clearly see.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Never Forgetting You

I feel so weak
I have no strength.
Right than left
Turns to a dead end.
Making friends
Turns to enemies.
Being with family
Crushes our hearts.

Every minute I take,
I think.
Every second I take,
There's nothing.
Every hour I take,
I'm lost.
Looking for ways
That once used to be,
Can never be the same.

Missing is a loss.
Hating is regretting.
Losing was a mistake.
Loving was wrong.
Thinking is confusing.
Remembering is a memory.
Reminding was a promise.
Promising is forgetting.

This was a time
To remember.
This was a memory
That can't be erased.
This was a reminder
That I can't forget.
This was a love
That I had for you.

Things will always
Be the same.

Things will always
Be a time to remember.
Things will always
Be secrets.
Things will always
Be a memory.
Now, so it will be.

Never forgetting times.
Never forgetting secrets.
Never forgetting you.
Never forgetting memories.
Never forgetting laughs.
Never forgetting your smile.
Never forgetting friendship.
And never will I forget this.

Tammi Celina Lyons

No Connection

I know in my past,
There's always trouble there and then.
But I can't stop thinking about it.
Nothing is really different between
Me then, or even now.
Problems' can never be solved
Since it involves me.
My mind is going in circles
Trying to find the pieces that belong,
But there's no connection.
What makes me even more depressed
Is that everytime I try to fix it,
It ends up broken or unspoken.

Tammi Celina Lyons

No Where

I have no where to turn to.
Looking up above,
I seenothing but pure light,
Showing me I have a place.
But I just can't tell if that light
Is actually true.
It's obvious that I'm lost.
I have no place to turn to.
(I have no where to turn to.)
I can't think of anywhere to be.
I'm stuck here alone
Thinking of ways to get out.
It's hard imagining to be free,
When truthfully,
I'm actually trapped
In a world by myself.
There's no where to be.
I can't think of a place for me.
It's obvious I have no place to turn to.
When I have you here
It feels like I'm talking to a brick wall.
I can't think of anything at all.
I have no where to be.
Nothing for me.
There's nothing to see,
When everytime I look at you,
And it's hard to imagine
That you are here.
Maybe it's just a dream
Cause you make my heart beat.
You seem so real,
I just can't tell which is the truth.
There's no where to turn to.
(When I saw you,)
I just didn't know what to do.
I lost myself
When I couldn't take what I had.
Now everything
Starts to change,

Making me think twice
The things I couldn't have.
Now I have some where
That I want to be,
Making me feel free.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Nothing But Missing A Friend

Laughing and smiling
I'm still remembering.
Forgetting and regretting
I'm still waiting.
Mistakes and misunderstanding
I want you to understand.

Faces I look
I'm seeing you.
Hoping that you
Would talk to me soon.
Missing a friend
Will soon turn to nothing.

Understanding your words
Ring around my mind.
It keeps playing your secrets
That I'm already missing your voice.
Nothing more will happen
For I'm already voiceless.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Nothing More For Me

There's nothing more for me
All I can think of is my misery.
No one loves me anymore
That's all I know just for sure.
Why would they love me?
Is there something wrong with me?
Please tell me this is all just a dream
It's hard for me to picture how it seems.
Why love me anyway?
I barely care what to say.
I wouldn't know what to do.
Getting tired of seeing you.
Is there something wrong with me?
Why can't I see
That there's no love for me.
Why does this have to be?
No words to say.
I'm stuck in ways
Of saying your name.
And to you
This is all just a game.
No more you.
Is there something wrong with me?
How can I know that it's me?
Is this my last chance?
How can I remember how to dance?
There's nothing for me anymore.
And that's all I know just for sure.

Tammi Celina Lyons

One. Two. Three.

One. Two. Three.
The beat, my heart
I'm never falling now.
Your eyes I see
Has hypnotized me.
Scared inside
I'm realizing
That there's no one like you.
Four. Five. Six.
Successe,
I'm surpriced
That you're here with me.
Your touch
I just can't take it anymore.
This is just too much.
I've been hidding
And you were crying
Wanting me to come back
In your arms.
I've been wondering
And you were flying
I can't decide to go back.
No one loves you,
What can I do?
I decided for me to leave.
I couldn't see that your misery
Is the only reason I want you back.
One. Two. Three.
The beat, my heart
I'm never falling now.
Your eyes I see
Has hypnotized me.
Scared inside
I'm realizing
That there's no one like you.
Four. Five. Six.
Successe,
I'm surpriced
That you're here with me.

Your touch
I just can't take it anymore.
This is just too much.
Love me, deceive me
I want to be free.
I'm crying
Trying to fight the thoughts in my head
The ways I wanted you dead.
How can this come to?
I've been searching for you.
Kill me dead
I don't want to be here anymore.
I'm confused from the pit in my head.
It's my fault.
It's your fault.
One. Two. Three.
It's about time for me
To be gone to thee.
Helpless dreams,
It's all gone now.
Better be safe than sorry
No need to worry.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Our Last Moment

No moment can never wait.
No moment to waist time.
When everything starts to create
And when everything appears to ryhme.
Words start coming out weird.
Our lives start to change.
It couldn't be any easier
When you were here.
Seeing other faces and not you.
Inside I'm hurting because all I do
Is think of you.
No life can be like mine.
When everyone thinks that I'm fine.
Worlds start to fade between
Like we never existed.
When we did,
And still do.
But sooner or later
We all will be gone.
We all will be done.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Our Love

Can't live without you.
I just don't know what to do.
Your firey lips curse me.
I just can't see if it is me.
Our love is the key.
I'm hypnotized by you.
I knew you were true.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Pain Of Love

Crushed by love,
I can't be myself anymore.
The pain that won't go away
Is growing and destroying
Into much more pain.
How can I trust love?
Why should I believe?
There's no one for me.
There just lies
That just keeps building.
Love was a mistake,
There is no such thing as love.
I rather die than stay in this world
Knowing that there's no one for me
Or even would be with me.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Peaceful To Destruction

I've been crushed.
Right in my heart,
I feel sadness of no protection.
I've been affected
By hate and darkness.
Nobody can never save me.

Everytime I look up at the sky,
I feel peaceful and relaxed.
But when I look at the clouds around,
I see destrution.

Sadness is showing me
I can never be saved.
Not right now.
And not EVER.

The clouds are saying and showing
Evil has come to take me.
I can see that the sadness in me
Is taking over my head, my life, my soul.
What it feels like is never
What you want to feel.
It just takes over.
EVERYTHING.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Realized

Set me free
I can't take this misery.
It hurts too much,
I'm surrounded by your touch.
My heart beats
Only for you.
This burning heat
Is making me feel so dizzy,
It's making me sick.
I'm so pathetic
I don't deserve to be here.
I deserve to be dead.
Skin so cold,
Your hold is making me weak,
I can't breathe.
Everything is so blurry.
This world has nothing for me.
I'm watching everything fade
Inbetween my eyes,
And I just realized,
I'm already dead.

Take This Life

oh cant you believe can you believe fighting my will to survive cant stand that I'm still alive killing softly
make me your desire
fool me with your power
take my soul
bury my body
take this life
and end my misery tonight we're gonna get this make me your voodoo doll and cherish my pain my lips
your touch my mind
my body torture me with despair what's more to care wish oh cant you believe make me believe there's this world one word kill me with vengeance its my temptation
oh take my body take my bloody thoughts inside
I cant think kill me softly
make me your desire
fool me with your power
take my soul
take my body
take this life
cant you believe cant you believe

The Blue Rose

There's a blue rose
That reminds me of you.
The petals tell me
How much you mean to me.
The blue rose resembles
Our love,
How soothing,
The harmony it is Between us.
The blue rose,
With just a simple kiss,
I can fall in love with you
All over again.
A simple touch,
Kills me with love
And a desire
To be with you forever.
This love,
This distance
Is painful,
But I can already feel you
With me,
Holding me,
To protect me.
There's a blue rose
That reminds me of you.
The petals tell me
How much you mean to me.

The Secret Purpose Of Nature And Humans

To live is to die, for life is within the cycle of nature:

The purpose of our human nature is as similar to life itself;
The trees that stand still, holding life within its barks has more heart to be as glorious and be the main soul to every individual.

Truth to why we breathe oxygen is held inside the seed that grows; over the hours, days, months, years to be as wise as our elders in human form.
And so we grow as seeds that we are, difference is that the tree's only whisper to the wind.

The green grass that we humans step on continuously everyday is the body of its core, known as the hidden mind of the brain.
Every percentage of every birth and death of animals and humans, the green grass shows it's sadness in dying it's weeds.
When the dirt comes to show itself, it tries to rebirth its dead memories.

Flowers that are so beautiful and yet so delicate, play as human women and/or be as our inner senses of recognizing the delicate petals that dances to the wind, from the tree's that whisper it's flirtatious secrets.

To Love Love

Life is no meaning
Without love.
I learned to love
When you entered my life.
It didn't seem different,
There wasn't wrong or right,
I just fell in love instantly.

I may be young
But I have a big heart.
When everything was the same
All I could think about is
'Am I ugly? '
Either way,
You changed how I felt.

To love love
You made me powerful
I feel more beautiful.
I say this because
I never felt this much love
For anyone,
Except you.

To What I Know

Everywhere I am
I will never understand
Why you are still here.
You're the mistake
I ever had.
And yet,
You still don't pay
Attention to my words.
Two of us were one.
The mistake was Trusting you.
I should've listened
To everyone that
Warned me about you.
But I didn't want to Believe them.
You're the reason
I'm still smiling.
But since everything
Changed,
I'm sorry I was Ever there.
You're the reason
That I'm now
Like this.
I guess for you
I was a regret,
Wishing you could forget.

Trying To Forget

We knew dreams were just dreams,
But it never really happened.
It makes me feel dead.
Lack is a lament,
And even the way of forgetting
You're always on my mind all the time.
I hate it because it's memories of a time,
Wishing I never met him.
I want him to be erased completely.
I can't take the pain.
What's more to gain?
I'm a disaster.
I'm pathetic.
I loved him and still do,
But what else can I do?

Tammi Celina Lyons

Understanding Numbers

One for good luck.
Two for being alive.
Three for being loved.
Four for having friends.
Five for having a family.
Six for making lives hard.
Seven for kids that are playing.
Eight for not knowing the knowledge.
Nine for praying to God at night.
Ten for having secrets.

Eleven for heart beats.
Twelve for reflections.
Thirteen for time that passes.
Fourteen for nature.
Fifteen for breathing.
Sixteen for knowing yourself.
Seventeen for saving another.
Eighteen for achievement.
Nineteen for being who you are.
Twenty for understanding the rules of life.

Usage

My lost mind,
I don't know what to think.
My mind is ink,
I can't seem to rewind.

I feel so confused.
I don't know what to do.
I can only think of you.
I've been used

How is that possible?
I don't know what to say.
Nothing that way.
It's unbelievable.

My smile fades
When I see you.
It's true.
My life only creates.

Tammi Celina Lyons

Wasted My Time

No matter what you say.
Couldn't stand the lies you played.
You confused me in ways
That I couldn't stand my thoughts.
Because when I think
It all ends up on you.
You never were true.
You wasted my time.
No matter what you said,
I will never believe you.
And that's hard for me to do.
I gave you my heart
But you played me from the start.
How could I ever believe you?
You wasted my time.
You wasted our time.

What Is Love?

What is love?
Kisses during the night,
Your hands all over my body.
I get a tingling sensation.
Hold me tight?
What is love?

Whoa, the fire in the sky
Burning up the night
What is love?
Kiss me, don't tease me.
The light in the sky
Beautiful, unforgettable.

Silently I melt away
My body aching
Your touch is on fire,
Love me those days.
What is love?

Beautiful yet deceiving,
You're my angel within.
Our skin temptation
All over our body,
Touch me once
Whoa, Where is the love?

Kisses during the night,
Your hands all over my body.
I get a tingling sensation.
Hold me tight?
What is love?

Wide Awake

Seems like it was yesterday
Woken up from a nightmare
My dreams become reality
And life seems to not move on
Wide awake

My heart is pounding
My body's aching
My life is ending
And you're still pretending
Wide awake

The stars are fading
Life is pausing
From my pain
And I don't get this Love that disappeared
Wide awake

My dreams are turning bad
You can take everything I have
My head is spinning
Spinning bullets
Wide awake

This heart has been burned inside
What am I supposed to do outside?
My life seems like it's ending
And I can't take this pain anymore
This heart has woken
It's pounding beautifully
I'm wide awake

My heart is pounding
My body's aching
My life is ending
And you're still pretending
Wide awake

Seems like it was yesterday
Woken up from a nightmare
My dreams become reality
And life seems to not move on
Wide awake

You Are

You are my air
The sun in my day
The moon in my night
The spring in my step
You are my everything.
You are the stars in the sky
The birds in the trees
The shimmer, the sparkle, the shine.
Without the light you put into my life
I would be nothing
A single leaf on the ground in autumn,
Lost, forgotten, alone.
Before i knew you,
I was nothing.
Now I am everything,
With you at my side,
I am invincible!
Feel the same my baby,
You are loved so much,
I love you now and forever
You are my darling, my baby, my love
You are my everything
I love you so much.
