May there be a dawn after every night,
May there be peace instead of a fight.
May there be joy instead of sorrow,
May there be a friend instead of a foe.
May there be ups instead of downs,
May there be smiles instead of frowns.
May there be a rise after every fall,
May Lord answer everyone's call.
May there be victories instead of failures, ,
May there be joys instead of tears.
May there be happiness instead of pain,
May the sun be sure to come after every rain.
May there be rights instead of wrongs,
May there be roses instead of thorns.
May each one's happiness never fade away,
May the angel's always beside everyone stay.
May there be trust instead of heartbreaks,
May there be wins instead of losses.
May there be satisfaction instead of greed,
May Lord fulfill everyone's need.
May there be justice instead of crime,
May each one's wishes be fulfilled in time.
May there be acceptance instead of blame,
May each one be luminous as a candle flame.
May everyone like a star shine,
May their life be as good as mine! ! !

Count your blessings instead of your crosses,
Count your gains instead of your losses.
Count your joys instead of your sorrows,
Count your friends instead of your foes.
Count your memories instead of years,
Count your smiles instead of your tears.
Count your happiness instead of your sadness,
Count your strength instead of your weakness.
Count your ups instead of downs,
Count your laughs instead of your frowns.
Count your victories instead of your failures,
Count your courage instead of your fears! ! !

A Thousand Apolog! E$

I was too busy doing what i wanted to,
I had no time to notice you.
In a hurry, i use to rush by, always failing to notice a small tear trickling down your eye.
It was 12am and i still hadn't come home, you kept trying my cell just to get a busy tone.
When i came back, 'leave me alone' was all i said,
and slammed my bedroom door and went straight to bed
I never bothered to apologise after any of our fight, & slept soundly while you cried all night.
When i used to come back from college, you always asked me how was my day, just to see me give a shrug and walk away.
I never noticed the smile you used to fake,
and i never saw any of your tears, your heartbreaks.
I know what i did was alot more than just a mistake, but to make it right I'll do whatever it takes.
I wish that i could find a less cliché word for sorry, all i want right now is for you to forgive me.
I know i never did the things you wanted me to,
but I'll spend the rest of my life making it up to you.

And Forg! Ve Me....

You forgive me for loving you too much,
and I'll forgive you for not loving me enough.
You forgive me for raising you so high,
and I'll forgive you for making me cry.
You forgive me for begging you to stay,
and I'll forgive you for walking away.
You forgive me for the loud racing of my heart, and I'll forgive you for not hearing it.
You forgive me for thinking of you all night,
and I'll forgive you for not treating me right.
You forgive me for waiting by the phone to answer your call,
and I'll forgive you for not calling at all.
You forgive me for giving you my heart,
and I'll forgive you for breaking it apart.
You forgive me for wanting to be with you,
and I'll forgive you for avoiding me.
Forgiveness brings inner peace,
so do we have a deal?

Angels

May the angels beside your door forever rest, and always give you the very best!
May they bring lots of happiness your way, to make all your sadness go away.
May the angels make the tower of your troubles collapse, and may you always the good things in life grasp.
May the angels swallow up the tears in your eyes,
And help you to above the sky rise!
May the sun always shine on your window pane, and may the rainbow be certain to follow each rain! !

Br@ve He@rt$

This is for my people who just lost somebody, their best friend, their baby, man or their lady,
put your heads real high,
we will never say bye.

The terrorist not only did the innocent kill,
but also dampened our spirits & weakened our will.
They went around slaughtering people mercilessly, putting an end to humanity.

There were pleas for help & cries of fear,
as our country was covered by the reign of terror.
As we searched frantically with our tired eyes, wishing our loved one survives.

We are nothing without them we realize,
as we hope & pray for them to come out alive.

In our beds silently we sat & a tribute paid, to the soldiers and the innocent who were shot dead.
As the brave hearts continue to our country defend,
as they try their best to bring this bloodshed to an end.

Our hearts are filled with hurt & despair,
as we see blood and bodies everywhere.

We all feel so sad and all alone,
as we sit & the loss of our loved one's mourn.

All your life you've been doing things that others think are the best for you, but now its your chance to do something that you love to do.
It's never too late to follow your heart, give yourself a chance & make a brand new start.
Be proud to be you,
go ahead make your dreams come true.
Do your thing, make your mark,
bring out the talent,
that creative spark.
Break free, spread your wings
and learn how to fly,
don't hesitate to touch the sky.
Go ahead, fulfill your desires and your dreams,
make the sun jealous by shining brighter than him.
And once day you'll be giving a speech on the stage telling the story of your crowning glory, saying I'm proud to be me.
Telling the crowd with your head held high,
to break free,
spread their wings,
and learn how to fly.

C@ptured He@rt

I still remember a things or a few, the glow on your face when you said, 'I LOVE YOU.'
Take care of yourself you always used to tell, that twinkle in your eyes, your smile I remember so well.
I remember it so strong and clear,
you promising to be there with me forever.
I still roam with a gleam in my eyes and a smile on my face, cuz i manage to see you everywhere, every place.
Forgetting and getting over you,
is one thing i cannot possibly do.
When i close my eyes, you is all i can see,
love is only you and me.
From the first kiss to the very last rose,
I remember the way you tickled my nose.
I never wanted to with you ever fight,
I just wanted to be held in your arms tight.
I always will forever remember, your love so sweet, so tender.
No matter of how odd it might seem,
I still of you every night dream.
But i know what i would do,
if my dream would come true.
I would dance with you again,
the way we did then.
I still am with a little hope waiting,
cuz I really can't shake of the feeling, that you never will leave me and go, you'll come back cuz my heart says so.

tanvi damle

Cuz I Believe

I won't let go, I won't leave,
I'll hold on cuz i believe.

When i'm faced by a stormy and cold night,
a candle of faith in my heart i'll light.

And i will be strong even when it all goes wrong, i'll hold on to my blessings cuz i know they'll be enough to get me along.

I'll catch every firefly and every glow worm, cuz they'll help the night into a day turn.

I'll hold on to my every single wish and dream, and find a way to make them come true, no matter how hard it might seem.

I'll catch a falling star, put it in my pocket and carry it along the way, cuz then incase the sun forgets to shine, i'll still have this twinkling light to help me make it through the day.

De$! Re$ Of The He@rt

Do you remember,
how it was when we were still together?
How we used to in the rain dance,
and dream of going to England and France?
How we wrote our names across the sky,
how we drank, just to get high?
How no dream was out of reach,
how we strolled hand in hand along the beach?
How you always turned up late,
and still managed to make it the best date?
How we used to on top of our voices sing,
how you were the wind beneath my wings?
How we used to count the stars together at night,
how everything felt different but just about right?
How we never ran outta things to say to each other,
how we always promised to be together?
How we called each other names but never felt bad, words can never describe what we had.
I still think of what it would be,
if I had you and you had me.
You made my every dream come true,
when i close my eyes, i still see you.
Even though now we're miles apart, you're the one who still has my heart.

tanvi damle

Dre@m Of Love

I dreamed a dream of you and me, you were holding my hand and whispering
I love you always forever,
we shall always be together.
You got down on your knees,
and said I was your dream and destiny.
'Marry me right now' was what you said,
so we planned to marry right there without a best man and a bridesmaid,
You said, 'I love you' and i did too,
and then i was married to you.
With the promise to love each other forever,
and with the promise to always be together.
With the winds playing the music of our hearts, and the waves singing 'Tho never shall be apart.'
We danced on the beach in the moonlight, with the stars twinkling ever so bright.
We were lost in the love of each others eyes,
and we found a whole new paradise.
So now I kept the dream in the jar and sealed it tight, cuz I wanna dream the same dream every night.

Hope....

Many of my dreams have vanished at dawn, but enough have been fulfilled to keep me dreaming on.

Many of my prayers have gone unanswered, but enough of them have been heard,
which have made me strong,
to keep me praying on.

I've trusted many a friends who've left me to weep alone,
But I've found enough who answer my phone to keep me trusting on.
I've sown enough seeds that have fallen by the way for the birds to feed upon, but I've held enough golden sheaves to make me keep sowing on.

Many battles in life I've lost, which have a lot to me cost,
but enough of them I've won,
to keep me fighting on.

On the way I've stepped on many thorns,
But I've walked on enough roses and lawns to keep me going along.

Many a challenges I've failed, and through so many storms I've sailed, but they've made me so very strong,
to keep me sailing on.

Many of my wounds have gone real deep,
which have left me to cry and weep,
but enough have been repaired,
with utmost love and care,
to keep me going on.

I've drunk from the cup of pain and disappointment, and have lived many days without any contentment.

I've gone many months without a dance or a song, but enough nectar I've slipped from the roses of life to keep me living on! ! !

I Am

I sit in the terrace, gazing at the starry sky, and think about the answer to the question, 'Who am I? '
I am a girl who wants to be young forever, but I'm a girl who also wants to grow up and be someone that everyone will remember.
I'm a girl who wants to stay in the protected world my parents have built for me, but I'm also a girl who wants to touch the sky and break free.

I want to be happy and dance in the rain,
but I also wanna cry for the unfortunate and feel their pain.
I want to be wise and go towards the sun ray,
but i also want to be a fool, trust my heart and go the other way.
I'm a girl who always wants her life to go towards light, but I'm also a girl who wants to be able to make it through the night.
I always want to be right, win every race, but i also want to be able to lose and accept it with grace.
I'm a girl who always wants to go up, make ends meet, but I'm also a girl who wants to be able to fall down and have the courage to get back on my feet.
Who am I? What kind of a human being?
I'm right, I'm wrong, I'm everything.

I H@te You! !

I hate it when you spoil my day,
I hate you when you walk away.
I hate the way you look at me,
I hate you when you say sorry.
I hate the way you at me stare,
I hate the way you touch my hair.
I hate it when you vanish my pain,
I hate it when you make me smile again.
I hate the way you at me scream,
I hate the way you sit and dream.
I hate the way you shout,
I hate it when you walk out.
I hate the way you look into my eyes,
I hate it when you speak all lies.
I hate the way you look at my face,
I hate you when you don't call at my place.
I hate it when you don't come home,
I hate you when you leave me all alone.
And i hate to break this to you,
But i gotta tell you what is true.
I don't hate you the way i should,
And i don't think i ever could! ! !

In My He@rt - Forever

The sound of your footsteps was the sweetest music to my ears, you always managed to make me smile through my tears.
Just the sound of your name was enough to make my heart leap,
I loved to stay awake every night, just to watch you sleep.
Everytime you smiled you always managed to make my heart melt, and that's the most wonderful feeling I've ever felt.
'I love you' was what you said while taking your last breath, which made it all the more hard to accept your death.
One thing I know is that you'll always be alive in my heart, there we'll always be together, not even death can do us apart.
My wedding ring shall never leave my finger, cuz in my heart I'll be married to you forever.
I'm not gonna cry, not even a single tear, cuz i know you're still with me here.
I know you're out there smiling down at me,
I'm not alone, you're here to give me company.
Everyday, I dial your number just to hear your recorded voice, which makes me smile with tears in my eyes.
In my dreams, we shall meet every night,
where we'll sing our song and dance in the moonlight.
I shall live the rest of my life,
on all those wonderful memories that we made together,
and on the promise of our love that will last forever.

Life.....

What is life?

Some feel it is as cruel as a surgeon's knife.

Some think life is like a sea, filled with flowing waves of opportunity.

Some think life is like a sky,
in which love and peace fly.

Some think life is like fresh air, filled with love and care.

Some think life is like the gushing wind, in which all our happiness we find.

Some feel life is like a horizon which is really wide,
in which our success hides.

Some think life is the golden key,
just meant for you & me.

Some feel life is like a treasure chest,
where we gather our keepsakes and treasure our best.

What indeed life is?

Depends on how towards it we see!

Love $truck

I promise myself that I'm not gonna talk to you at all, but then why do I keep waiting for your call?
I convince myself that you nothing to me mean,
but then why do I of you every night dream?
I know you're never gonna stop by,
but then why do I keep waiting to say hi?
I tell myself that now its never gonna be the same, but then why does my heart skip a beat on hearing your name?
It's over, I've moved on I say, but then why do I find it so hard to walk away?
I promise myself that i won't see you much,
but then why do my eyes still for you search?
I tell myself that everything between us was not just right, but then why do I think of you every night?
I promise to move on, leave everything behind,
but why can't I still get you off my mind?
I know you'll never again by my house go,
but then why do I still keep looking out of the window?
I guess I'll always love you deep down in my heart,
there we'll always be together even if we're far apart.

tanvi damle

M@ke Your $p@rk! ! ! !

Don't say you're not important, it simply isn't true,
The fact that you were born, is proof that God has a plan for you.
Live your life not because you need to but because you want to,
For once don't think of others think of you.
Make it work, make it go,
Make it a yes instead of no.
You don't have to listen to what others say,
Live your dreams before they fade away.
For once forget all your worries & pain,
& like a child go and dance in the rain.
Make some music, make some noise,
Make a list of simple joys.
Let your heart free, let it dance & sing,
don't be afraid of anything.
Go & do what your heart says is right,
So that you can sleep without any regrets every night.
Make some cookies, make some tea,
Make a date with destiny.
Don't ever get scared to shine in the dark,
Don't give up untill you've reached your mark.

tanvi damle

Mov! Ng On....

I never did want to leave you and go,
you broke my trust which made me do so.
I never wanted to accept what was going on,
I just wanted to keep singing our love song.
Now I'm not gonna listen to what my heart says,
we gotta say goodbye and walk different ways.
I really do wish we could start all over again,
this time without all the agony and pain.
But that never is gonna ever happen,
cuz my heart's just too hurt and broken.
You never kept your promise, your word,
and now I'm just so sick and tired.
I thought you were the one,
but it all ended even before it begun.
You ask me to give you one last chance,
and promise to with me forever dance.
But baby i guess its just a little too late,
I don't think i can forgive and forget.
I never ever could imagine a life without you,
but that is what I should now get used to.
You say, 'Baby come back, no one can ever you replace.'
But then why did you have to break my heart in the first place?

tanvi damle

Never Changing My Opinion! ! !

Even if the earth would shrink,
and there would be no water to drink.
Even if the sun wouldn't give out light,
and everything would no longer be bright.
Even if the river would turn into a waterfall,
and the mountains started growing tall.
Even if the world would turn it's back on me, and in the darkness, rays of light i could no longer see.
Even if anyone at me wouldn't smile,
and things would be bad for awhile.
Even if the Statue Of Liberty would sit down, and start to frown.
Even if the devil's to the earth came,
My opinion bout you would still remain the same!
Among all the rest,
You would still remain the VERY BEST!

tanvi damle

Never Let Go

They tell me nothing can be done, it's too late,
God has already sealed her fate.
I scream and tell them to wait,
but you're already at Heaven's gate.
I hold your hand and wait at your bedside, with tears in my eyes and my tongue tied.
Eventually they whisper, 'She's no more, she's gone',
I stare blankly and tell them they're wrong.
Some then offer condolence hugs and sympathetic stares, others show their comfort, extend their care.
I fake a smile, go and wait in your room,
for I know that you'll come home soon.
They come back again and tell me that you're gone,
I shake my head and tell them they're wrong.
It can't be true, you can't be dead,
they are just messing with my head.
I call your name out loud,
and search for your comforting face in the crowd.
This time, they shake me up and tell me you're gone,
I scream at them and tell them they're wrong.
I think of you, it making me smile, for you've just gone for a walk, you'll be back in a while.
But it's getting late and I'm starting to worry,
Come home soon, please do hurry.
It's been two years and I know now you're never coming home, how could you leave me in this world on my own?
Now they no longer tell me that you're gone,
for I finally accept that I was wrong.□
Some try to help me through the pain,
But all their efforts go in vain.
For without you, I just feel out of place,
There's a void in my heart no one can replace.
I miss you more than words can say,
How am I supposed to make it even through a single day?
But in spite of everything, you're still here, I will not cry,
For I'll see you soon, it's never goodbye...

Prom! $e Of Love

It's so hard to believe that he's gone, everything seems a blur, so wrong.
You sit there and stare at your ring,
this couldn't be happening, not him.
You feel all drained and all alone,
You hate to go to the place you once called home.
As you sit and clutch tightly to his clothes,
you remember all his promises, his vows.
He's so far away yet so near,
he's always there to wipe away your every tear.
As you stare at the bed where he layed,
you somehow still find him there by your side.
When you look at his picture all you wanna do is cry, but you know that in your heart he'll always live by.
You still remember his touch, his kiss, and you yearn for his presence that you so much miss.
You smile through your tears as you remember, him catching your hand and promising to always be together.
You don't have to let him go if you don't want to,
He's up there smiling and looking down at you.
He's with you whatever you do, wherever you go, through all your ups and downs, highs and lows.
As you remember his voice, his laughter,
you know that he'll live on forever.
Every night when in your dreams you him see,
you know that he was yours and always shall be.

R! Se Up

You lost your loved ones in the sand and rubble, and you struggle to accept it,
the pain almost unbearable.
I won't lie and say i understand,
but I will be there with you holding your hand.
We will pray together,
we will fight this together,
I will do whatever I can to make it a little better.
When you can't seem to sleep at night,
I'll be there giving you hope, holding your hand tight.
Hold on, we shall make it through,
be strong, I'm right here with you.
I'll do whatever it takes to bring the lost smile back on your face, don't give up, things will fall into place.
We won't give up,
we shall get back on our feet.
I'll be there with you every second, every minute.
We shall take it one day at a time the pain will be gone and soon shall the sun shine.

Sorry

Gonna stay in bed for sure today, cuz of the fight we had yesterday.
I know I'm the one who started this rift,
Which made your spirits away drift.
But i didn't mean to do it,
I'm sorry for every bit.
I swear i won't those things again mention,
& i promise never to your abilities again question.
I know your feeling disgusted,
But I'm really sorry for what i said.
I know you never wanna see my face,
But i assure you things will soon fall into place.
Please do forgive me,
I didn't do it intentionally.
Yeah...you're filled with pain,
But give me one chance to explain....I swear i won't do it again!
You can't stay like this forever,
Please can't we start again all over?

tanvi damle

Th@nk You! !

You blessed me so much,
and always gave me your sweet touch.
When my happiness started to rust,
it was only you who i could trust.
Whenever i cried and moaned,
you never did leave me alone.
You always for me cared,
and comforted me when i was scared.
When i couldn't the burden of my troubles bear,
you were always with me there.
When my family and friends turned into my foe,
and when i had nowhere to go.
You always welcomed me into your arms,
and protected me from all the harm,
and always made a freezing night feel so warm.
When i fell down,
and when my smile changed into a frown,
You never made me wait, not even for awhile,
you immediately turned my frown into a smile! !
When in battles of life i was defeated, you gave me hope and said' Don't give up, Keep marching ahead'
When into the puddles of life i fell,
you said 'Don't worry, soon all will be well'
When i had no one to go to,
and didn't know what to do,
You said 'I'm right here
And I'll be there forever'

tanvi damle

W! Th You! !

When you think your all alone,
and when you start to cry and moan.
When you can no longer hold on,
& when you feel weak instead of being strong..
When tears run down your face,
& when no one can your broken trust replace.
When you feel the world's turned into hell,
& nothing at all is going well.
When everyone's turned their back on you,
& you have nowhere to go to.
When you turn sad and soar,
& when you can't take it anymore.
When you fall and think you cannot rise,
& when you need some good advice.
Don't worry I'll wipe your tears, & get rid of all your fears.
When you think everything has come to an end,
& no one can your broken heart mend, remember you still have a friend.
You're not alone, together we stand,
I'll be by your side, you know I'll take your hand.
Hold on to me tight, we will together fight,
Trust me, I'll make everything alright.
Keep holding on, I know you can make it through,
Just stay strong....I'm right here with you.
When your sad and scared & when you feel no one for you cares,
Don't worry I'll always for you be there.
When you think you've lost all you found,
I'll come & turn the world around.
Whenever your sad, lonely or sick, just call me up quick,
I'll come and give your worries a hard kick!
When your stuck in a tight spot, forget me not,
For I'll come and help you no matter what!

tanvi damle

Why Not? ? ?

Why not take a crazy chance?
Why not do a crazy dance?
Who knows? today maybe your day,
tomorrow may not come your way.
Why not keep all your worries aside?
Why not go on a roller coaster ride?
Why not for a change smile?
and forget all your sorrows for awhile.
Why not for awhile act like a freak?
and to your tensions give a hard kick.
Why not live every moment?
and throw away all your disappointment.
Why not tell your loved ones how much you love them,
and make them realize that they're your most precious gems.
Why not go and sip the wine of joy?
and freak out and enjoy.
Why not give your loved one's a loving kiss,
and fulfill their every desire and wish.
Who knows? today maybe your day,
tomorrow may not come your way! ! !

Your$ 4ev@.....

We will together always be,
Love is only you and me.
when i melt into your loving eyes,
You're perfect for me i realize.
You're the one who touched my heart,
Never shall we drift apart.
I will forget you never ever,
We will always be together.
I think of you every time i go to bed,
your the one i always wanted.
To God every night I with my heart pray,
For you to be there with me everyday.
You're the one who sets my heart on fire,
You're my only wish and desire.
When every night you say ' I LOVE YOU' & 'GOOD NIGHT'
The world suddenly suddenly feels so right.
You always will be mine,
You're the light that makes me shine.
We will always be together,
My love for you will never disappear.
One look at you told me i had the right choice made,
My love for you will never away fade....
You're like a dream come true,
Oh! How much i love you!
We will together always be.....
Love is only YOU and ME!
