Tay Tay(3/26/96)

just a young teenager going through some rough times with a lot of sources of got over a breakup with a girl i was with for three years.

Demons Deep Inside

I was torn apart when you broke my heart.
Cause you fed me lies i am dead inside.
Deep inside.
My demons come alive.
One place left to hide.
It was destroyed when you lied.
You let demons through the door, and they are stronger than before.
My demons deep inside arise, and start to attack.
I can't fight them, cause my life is all out of whack.
Since you left self-control and confidence is what i lack.
But i found a place to hide and it's in the sky.
In my mind i'm the only one alive, but i will find a way to bring you here to stay.
I say don't drink your life away, we will escape but you're gonna have to wait.
You know we have to kill our demons before it is too late.
Don't fall for their lies, because they kill you down inside.
Make you lose sight of the only reason you have to stay alive.
Deep down inside you miss me all the time.

False Truth.

Everyone says love hurts but that's not true. Loneliness hurts, rejection hurts, losing someone hurts. Everyone gets these things confused with love, but in reality love is the only thing in this world that covers up all the pain and makes someone feel wonderful again.

I Was A Mystery

to you i was a mystery then you broke my heart and made it history. You never wanted to be with me, you were only led by curiosity you never cared about me.

I feel restrained by all the pain.I will never be the same since you left me in these chains.

Jello Fellow

I'm still breathing and talking,
still seeing and walking.
I am lifeless and dead,
or so they said.
But if that were so,
why would I go.
Breathing and walking,
and saying hello.
But as I walk along the coast,
I feel like a ghost,
cause i'm lonelier than most.
I'm smelling, feeling, tasting jello,
and yet i'm still just the loneliest fellow.
They see me, feel me, and know i'm there,
but they never ever ever ever seem to care.
Life and death isn't fair,
but she doesn't even care,
with every last breath
I will love her to death.
But she won't ever seem to care,
Cause she won't see me, feel me, or know i'm there.
from the shadows my voice will scare,
my love with skin so fair.
that i wouldn't dare,
come out and prove i'm there.
I wouldn't dare,
not to scare
for that i am fair.
FOR THAT I AM FAIR!

Love That Is Bought

They say love is gold, but gold is bought and sold. You cant buy or sell love, cause when you do it feels so old. It feels like it will turn to dust when you hold it in your hand. It's like a lie it makes your life explode. I don't know what you've been told. But I know that love that is bought, and sold is just fools gold it's oh so cold.

New Jerusalem

New Jerusalem a shiny city where you will be with me hopefully. Why is it so hard for me to believe what you did for me. I'm a broken man in a foreign land, I'm lost without you. My heart is the cost when I start to doubt you cause I am nothing without you. You save me from the demons deep inside when you died to save us from ourselves. Without you we're just tattered books on the shelves. With nails through your wrist you saved us from the devil's fist. To be with you that is our only wish.

One Little Dove

One little dove flying in the moonlight, to a little girl it's a beautiful sight. One little girl crying in her hands, one little boy comes and takes her hand. One life, one love, a boy, and a girl dancing at midnight forgetting about the world.

Reflection

you can see the man in the mirror but he can't see you.

you are the man in the mirror but he's not you he's just your reflection.

He has you complexion, but you have emotions he does not he's just your end this obsession it's just a distraction from who has the real attraction.

Spring

Spring is a time of rain to wash away the pain of winters cold; when birds do sing and flowers bloom; not one day of birds shall wing to and fro on winds that blow from tree to tree.

The seeds we sow will grow flowers where bees will go, and girls will go. Because the scent they love, we all know spring will come and go. Just like before it is always so till the end of the world when no flowers grow. Spring will go and never come, the sun is here and life is done. The dead will rise; the battle is won but know this eternity has just n or hell you choose which one.

The Flow Of Tears Is My Song

From my eyes a flow of tears every time you come near. You broke my heart and left me here, that was my greatest fear. Now all i do is cry the flow of tears never dry.

When people walk by all they hear is the flow of tears. Throughout the years i have failed to realize the one has yet to come.

She is here the flow of tears people no longer hear. She wipes away every tear removing all i fear, but when she's gone for so long the flow of tears is my song.

The Mask You Wear

When you put on the mask. I was so blind to see the you didn't love. I was tricked, now I feel so lovesick. My love I would die for you if this could be fixed, but you left me here to pick up sticks while you just kept playing tricks. You know that they say love is not a game, but to you I was the only one left to play.

I felt so betrayed by all the games you played. I wish your love was not a façade, that you are not to blame, but that's insane cause to you love is just a game.

They Say

They say no pain no gain, but without gain there's only pain.

I try, and try but all I feel is pain and yet no one remembers my name.

I have a broken heart and I'm trying to move on, but I can't.

They say they understand my pain but they really can't cause it not just my broken heart that hurts.

It's also my past, my history it's like a horror story turned into reality.

It haunts me and keeps me up all night my worst enemy is my memory.

They promise me I'll make it through, but they haven't walked a mile in my shoes.

They say there's a place where we won't cry no more or even feel pain no more,

I can't wait, I can't wait for that day cause everyday I feel like I'm going insane.
