Trenton watson(1995: D im 13)

I live in livingston, Louisiana. Such a boreing place.
Poem to conclude what i mean ^_^

(My life here is slow and boreing,
I watch the wind and water churne,
As if any of this means to me,
I get Talked at by people from far away,
Yet i sit here in my very own way,
I watch the skys roll away,
Waiting till i move away.)
Wow... i just made that up in like 10 seconds: D

Achey Heart

Im sitting here,
Lost and alone,
Waiting for her to come,
But all that comes are waves of hate,
Screaming at me,
I wish i could stop,
I wish i could drop,
But ur face,
Brightens the darkest of days,
I wish i could avoid you,
I Wish i could hold you,
But most of all
I wish you would love me.

Aerials

Aerials, Oh Aerials in the sky,
They fly back and forth,
Beaneath my eye,
From sea to sea,
The sun glimmers,
But what i see,
Are the aerials flowing from sea to sea.

(This is my poem, it aint that good but still no takey!)

Another Poem About My Mommeh!

Mother sits along the door,
Curled up crying on the floor,
Look at what the suns done,
Dried up all the rain,
And destroyed all her praise,
The sun rots trees away,
Waiting for mother to hate,
She crys all night,
Waiting for her starlight,
Oh, the stars glisten,
Against the water,
While mother listens for the rain,
Lighting strikes at the bane,
Untill she saw his eyes again,
Oh, she will never cry again.

(i really liked how this came out like :))

Boredom

Boredom is a virtue,
Boredom i hate,
The only thing id rather do,
Is sit here and eat my shoe,
I love talking,
I love walking,
But i hate boredom,
The again its the only thing i do.

(i know ^-^ it sucks but i was soooo bored)

Darkness

Days go by,
I wonder why,
Your words always hurt me,
The i found the darkness,
Because the light always hurts me,
But from which i belong,
The darkness was in my heart all along!

(THIS ONE SUCKS) XD

Forest

Forest hold many secrets,
They hold the bonds,
They share many tall tales,
They tell many stories,
Many of love and mystery,
Many murders and sacrifices,
Many guns have been shot,
Most deer have been dropped,
Most turkeys have ran,
Most squirrels have chattered,
Forest hold the secrets of my gun,
My many shotgun shells being used,
The cold brisk mornings,
I have hunted these fine forest,
They have shown me the ways,
They have shown me my true self,
They have shown me; me,
They have shown me,
How southern I really am.

Hate

I hate that i hate everything i do,
I hate i swear among the two of you,
I hate i lost my only real love,
I hate i dont really get along,
I have the fact im all alone,
Which leads me to cut,
Every cut leads to pain,
In the place i love to be,
Pain is my only way,
To get out of it,
Pain reaches in my heart,
Cutting my only cord,
Watching blood spill from the hole,
From which it belongs,
I cry in the corner where you belong.

Her Eyes

Her beautiful eyes,
Shine among the listless sky,
Watching everyone move i make,
Untill my soul to take,
They stare at me,
Thoughtlessly yearning,
For another chance.

I sit here,
Singing out her name,
Waiting for the,
Chance to say,
I love you.

I Dont Have A Name For This One

I love to scream,
I love to hate,
I love to immaginate,
I dont care about your life,
Only care that your dead,
I cut my wrist in the vein,
Watching the blood flow,
Only seeing the it rise,
From my very soul,
I watch you run along the stream,
Screaming out my name,
Looking for the only thing,
That i never wanted,
I wish you would leave,
I wish you wouldnt care,
All you do is yell at me,
Which is my very own fate.

(this one sucks) : Didc do u honestly have to?

Life

Life,
Oh how its short,
It goes by fast,
Without any resort,
Days go by,
You wonder why,
Everything is dark,
All the souls beyond the walls,
Of everything made between laws,
I lie all day wondering when my day will come,
Watching the things,
Happening all the damn time,
I watch skys grow dim,
And grass grow tall,
But im still surrounded by love and hate,
Between these walls of fate.

Lights Out

The lights are out,
All i see are bundles of black,
In front of me,
Everythings gone,
It all disappered,
In the pitchest of black,
While haveint the darkest of dreams,
Im all alone and afraid,
So scared I see,
Im crying in the room,
Where i cannot see,
Yet the lights are really out,
But thats only because,
IM DEAD!

(hehe i loved maken this one its sooo odd) XD

Lil Thing I Made Up B4 I Went To Sleep... I Dont Think It Makes Sence Help D: !

I sit alone and watch the clouds,
Trying to collect my thoughts,
All i think about is you,
So i cut my self untill i do,
In the things i live through,
I know you've loved me for so long,
I lost my sight before i saw you,
Weeping in the corner,
I see the things you think of me,
Watching me,
Silently u stare untill i scream,
I will think of you,
Untill i have the everlasting dream.

Love In The Sea

Love is in the sea,
Watching me,
Screaming out my name,
Untill it bleeds,
I finally see,
All you do,
Break my heart,
And step on it with your shoe,
I cry all night,
And every day,
But then I got to see ur face,
Its here its there,
It seems to be everywhere,
I thought I fought,
The things you do,
When you died,
I lost my will,
I stood there crying,
Once again.
(My poem no takey!)

Love Is An Illusion

Love is an illusion,
All i see,
Are broken hearts,
In front of me,
Love is cupid's dart,
Untill the arrow breaks,
Another broken heart,
Then the system breaks
Love is in the air,
Because the bonds are still there,
Untill cupid's dart goes elsewhere.

(Ask me if u can borrow but i made it D :)

Mother

Oh, Mother she is great,
How shes in everything,
I love her so,
Yes i do,
Mother is good,
Oh shes great,
I love things she loves,
She loves things i love,
She loves me,
I miss her,
How she does too,
Oh how i love her.

Music

Music,
It moves my very soul,
The life of techno,
Ohh its my whole world,
I dance and flutter like a bird,
Waiting for it to catch up to me,
My heart beats with the music,
But my eyes grow dim,
Before i know it im on the floor,
Like a hazy nightmair,
Watching the lights of my brain go,
My arms are stiff,
I cant move,
I feel as if im lost in a place where it is unknown,
Yet i love the feeling,
Which is why i love music.

Trenton watson

My Eyes.

My eyes are weary,
For the things i yearn to see,
Your lips touching mine,
Waiting for my true chance,
To love the things in life,
I wonder where you are,
In my eyes i see you in the picture,
Of me and you standing on a hill,
Holding me untill u cant bare,
I really cant help to stare,
At ur beautiful hair,
It flows in the wind when singing its song,
The eyes i bare make me feel like a stalker,
Watching your every step,
Peeking threw the bushes,
When you move i silently cry,
Of the things im missing in life,
Your not here with me,
Your with the one you truly love,
Him.

My Fantasy

My fantasy,
It longs to be real,
To be satisfying,
It holds me in place,
Shakes my fears out of my mind,
Darkness rolls around my feet,
How i love it so,
My fantasy to fly,
Among the trees,
To glide across the water,
To sing in the loveliest places,
My fantasy to be with her,
The most beautifulest girl in the world,
She swims in my mind like a fish in water,
Yet she is not enough for me,
I long to be with her for the rest of my life,
To hold her hand on a warm summer day,
To walk along the shore on a sunny beach,
To kiss her on the highest mountain,
My fantasy for her dad,
To not think of me as he wishes,
To not hate me for who I am,
To let us be together,
My fantasy,
To lubb her!

(I loved writen this about my love T&S foever!)

My Girlfriend Made This For Me.(3 Words)

3 Words

There are three words that im scared to come clean about,
Im not scared of u, Its more myself,
My mouth wont let me speak,
Its like im,
Frozen.
Not able to say the three words,
My heart desires,
But now im not scared,
And not frozen to say,
I love you.

(Zomg i love her so much ^-^)

My Haircut

My haircut,
It was a misserable time,
To watch my hair go,
Snip, snip, snip,
It drifts away in a silence unknown,
To all who have known,
The misserable haircut,
I love my hair,
But it had to go,
like seeing something die,
But i could never really weep,
It is sad to say goodbye,
My hair will grow back,
But only to see it go again.

My Lingering Eyes

The lingering of my eyes,
Spread across the bright blue sky,
As i lay across the bed,
Wondering when ill be dead,
Still it comes to be seen,
Everything is behind a screen,
The ocean water makes its noice,
While splashing in all rejoice,
The people come to watch the sea,
Wishing to live in thee,
All is quiet in the night,
Waiting for full delight,
Everything pushes its last breath,
Just to see it become death.

She Made One For Me Ill Make One For Her.(Shayle)

I love her much,
I love her so,
I love her hair,
And her eyes too,
Her smile is beautiful,
Her words are sweet,
It just makes me happy to have someone,
Like her,
The sun glistens off her cheeks,
Makeing me wanna weep,
I love her face it is so bright,
I want to kiss her ,
Because the thing we share together,
Is love.

Trenton watson

Silence

Silence.

Silence,
Is a mixture of love and hate,
But it all seems to go away,
The screams,
The lies,
They float away,
In a place unknown,
They all decay,
Blood and sweat,
Rolling on they say,
How much ur silence disturbs me,
I die in a way,
But it makes me hate and love the things,
You always do,
I love the way u look at me,
But i hate the way u look at him,
Jelousy is a victim,
But silence is a virtue.

(This took me a while to make so tell me what you think)

The Darkest Place.

Dungeons are dark places,
Filled with torment and death,
Dungeons are filled with hate,
And scary gooly goblins,
Dungeons fight for their right,
To kill and murder,
Dungeons hold the darkest ones,
Behind their walls of torment,
Dungeons scream out my name,
Pulling me in tightly,
Hoping for my chance to escape,
One day I will be delighted.

Trenton Watson

Thunderstorms

Thunderstorms Scare me,
Thunderstorms tear me,
The clock runs time away,
Sitting here so afraid,
Oh, how thunderstorms scare me,
The break my heart,
Filling it with aches,
When i hear a thunderstorm,
Ill think of you.

(EX GIRLFRIEND) XD lmao
