trevor adams(january 11 1993)

i grew up believing that nobody cared about me but as i got older i realized that people really did care but they just had a hard time showing it.i now just write random poetry and never stick with one trying to get a book of poetry published but it takes time to come up with all of the poems for the book but having them on the computer actually helps.

A New Dream

as we sleep we dream we dream a new dream as we walk awake we walk a new road as we walk our house we walk a new hall as we lay in bed we think a new thought as we sit on the couch we wish a new wish everytime we do something we do it once and only once

A New Heart

i need a new heart for the one i have has been broken so many times... i need a new heart for the one i have is not but a black hole.... i need a new heart for the one i have now is not able to feel compasion or love.... i need a new heart so i may do everything i once loved to do....

A Ruined Life

a life lived so long now ended with a bang.....a single gun shot ended the life of an innocent person....those who loved them now cry every day as they think of her wishing that the fateful day when the young middle school girl was shot down never happened.....those who love her cannot forget her they are pained by the fact that they will never see their loved one.....do not forget that one day it could be your loved one who dies during a school shoot out.....she lost her life trying to get away from the gun man who shot her in the back her head.....why did he decide she was the one he wanted to kill? that is a question even i cant answer.....she became a hero however that day....now she wont be forgotten by anyone.....her name was forgotten but nobody can forget the day when a beloved girl tried to fight back and save herself but died in the process.....we will never forget her.

Anoyed

have you ever been annoyed by someone you barely knew?

have you ever been annoyed passed the point where you cant stand life?

have you ever been annoyed by someone saying something that everyone laughs at but you dont even get it?

have you ever been annoyed by someone singing when they know they cant sing?

Armageddon(No This Is Not Related To The Bible)

a requim for which none may escape exept for the innocnet....

the strong go to fight away the requim but they all fail for those who fight it are the guilty ones rapists and murdereres....

the innocnet wish that those who they loved had not been the guilty ones so they beleive that life is now worthless so they make them selves guilty and then they to die....

what if everyone was innocnet? would we all live? no because if we were all innocnet then there would be no requim is also known as armageddon

As I Bleed

as i bleed i wish you never broke my heart... as i bleed i bleed for you...
as i bleed i cry knowing you never cared...
as i bleed i forget everything we did together...
as i bleed i begin to become light headed.... as i bleed i die where i lay...
as i bleed i am sent to the hospital...
as i bleed i go to heaven...

trevor adams

As We Fall

as we fall we begin to wish we didnt jump as we jump we wish they didnt brake our hearts as they brake our hearts we wish we never met them as we meet them we wish we never showed up where we were as we show up we wish we stayed at home as we come home we wish we never left our freinds as we visit our friends we wish school never ended as school ends we wish school never started as school starts we wish we stayed asleep as we sleep we dream as we dream.... nobody knows what we do or wish =) ♥

Bleeding

as i cry i cry knowing you ment to hurt me.... as i bleed i bleed knowing you dont care...
as i sleep i sleep knowing you will never love me... as i eat i make myself bleed because its all i can do to forget you... as i look up in my hospital bed i count how many people are around me and i find you are not amongst them.... as i do my school work i look over to see you but i see you looking at someone else...
as i begin to leave the class room you grab me and tell me your sorry for hurting me but....how much can i believe you?
as we hug you say you love me and i say i love you to.

Braces

arent braces anoyying?

i wouldnt know ive never had them.....

i love how they can be desinged with different colors....

i love people who have braces because when they speak its confusing about what they say but like five minutes later your like oh ok now i know what they said....

i like girls who have braces because it makes them alot more eaier to listen to because your gonna want to try and figure what they are s? braces are so awesome.

Brothers, Sisters, Mothers, Fathers All Of Who Are In The Military

one shot he lives two shots he would be lucky three no chance.
why do we fight? why cant we all just get along? why must we use guns? why do we use violence? why do we fight other peoples wars? didnt we all start out as nothing more than people geting along now we all fight wars over seas and now most of us who fight the wars never come home alive instead they come home in a coffin with a flag over military cant stop it so the most they do to make you feel better is give the soldier a simple piece of metal that can be distroyed instantly but we still never forget them.

we will never forget those who fought for us

Clean Your Room

why should i clean something thats already clean?
when you tell me to clean something at least make sure its not clean... when you tell me to clean something all i have to say is it is clean and you get angry because i was three steps ahead of you... why do i have to clean some thing that is already clean?
when you tell me to clean my closet all i need to say is it is clean and you look and make it dirty...why?

Complements

have you ever gotten a complement? i barely ever hear them coming to ements are not really something i ask for very much but for once i wish i could get one for at least being a good poet but oh well.

complements can lighten a heart....

complements can releive someones wandering mind.....

complements are appreciatted by most people....

complements are something that only nice people give and get.....

comments...come join me in giving those who deserve complements.

complements can really make someones day so give a complemant.

Dreams

listen as I weave a dream for you....you fall asleep and all of a sudden you find your self walking down a road and you have no idea how you got there and all of a sudden from nowhere another look down the road and wonder if you should go decide your gonna go down you get about a mile down the road you come across a horrible sight.....its the girl/boy of your dreams hanging from a tree branch.....she/he is still breathing. you cut her/him down and she screams as she/he falls and.....she/he is gone.....you go to where she/he was just hanging and realize you have just killed her/him.....you wake up screaming and all of a sudden her/his arm is around you so you fall asleep and find your the one hanging and the girl/boy of your dreams is right there in front of you wondering wether or not to cut you you beg them to cut you down so they cut you down and you fall screaming realizing you told them to do a horrible thing.....an hour later your still falling and you look up and there they are above you with a rope around their throte falling you feel for your own throat and realize the roap isnt there any more and you saor over to them and you find they are dead.....finally you hit the ground but it seems they have vanished so you decide to continue on now knowing that horrible things await you so now you are two miles down a road and you come across a curious scene....you look at it from an angle and it vanishes you look straight at it again....you touch it and BOOM you wake up again and find that the thing from your dream is looming over you and your love has vanished you ask it what it is but it doesnt respond so you turn on the light and find your love hammered to a cross so you scream again and the cross flys towards you and your love falls off of it and.....you wake up for real this time and find your in a isnt it that you have no idea how this has happend you fell asleep at home and woke up in a hospital with the doctors there trying to wake you up you here them say wake up come on you can do it live then you look down and find you are above your body which is nailed to a cross and you realize your dream.....wasnt a dream.

My Life

my life? well to tell you the truth it goes kinda like this:

ruined by parents always thinking i cant do anything....

ruined by child abuse because parents dont know how to raise a child...

ruined by hatred because nobody cared....

ruined by vengance because i was hurt to badly to care about others...

why does everyone wast their time trying to figure out why everyone does what they do?

ruined by secrets because nobody would let me know who my mother was....

ruined by everyone around me why should i waste my time loving those who dont love me? why should i just sit around while those who loved me and i loved be hurt by the very people who loved them?

ruined by pain because nobody could tell wether to send me to the hospital or just leave me behind....

well life has gotten better but not as much as i wish it had.i still dont know who my mother is.

Pain

you know as i sit here in my pain i begin to wonder if i should have trusted you? when you stopped me in the hall just to tell me you were sorry for hurting me i began to wonder if i should trust you and i decided to trust you but it seems it was a mistake so now i sit here in my pain knowing i shouldn't have trusted you so i'll keep sitting here in my pain.

Poetry

a story from the haert that often times rhymes but not always....

a story that often times talks about love but not always....

poetry is a nice escape from the modern world when one is stressed.

a story that often tells how one is feeling like wether or not they are angry or sad but not always....

a story that often times puts a smile on the faces of others but not always....

poetry can be appreciated if you just try to appreciate it.

Poets Are Geniuses

what is a poet?

a poet is a genius who puts his feelings into a different form rather than flowers to a lover or a kiss a lover.

a poet who tells a story about how the seasons change or how a lover is hurt by the other leaving her behind or the solstice of the moon and sun or how the world will change.

a poet is a genius who doesnt understand the simple things of life such as school or what a teacher says in class or simple numbers on a white board.

a poet is a genius who doesnt need to use numbers to teach but uses something that all may understand.

a poet is someone who speaks a language that all may understand.

poets are just geniuses unlike those who think numbers can explain everything such as 2 is how the sun changes.....yeah right....poetry can be alot more clear so thank the geniuses who right poems to be more clear.

Sunshine

when one is happy there is sunshine when one is sad there is rain...why is the weather just like everyones emotions? when one is angry the air is hot when one is depressed it is foggy....why is the weather like evryones emotions? the answer lies within each person when it rains one becomes sad because there is no sun to enjoy when one is happy they are happy because there is a time to enjoy the sun and go to the park when it is foggy one is depressed because they cant see the sun that they know is up and warm when the air is hot one is angry because they must use the fan they thought they wouldnt have to use.

What Is Life?

why do we live?

why are we here?

why do we hurt each other?

why do we feel pain?

what is life but a bunch of questions?

what is the biggest question of life?

ill tell you why?

why is the biggest question we ask.....

Why?

why do we all hear why so much? in my oppinian its stupid that everyone wants a why for evrything like when we ask for something to drink if we have to ask they will say why? its stupid its because we are thirsty of course duh! ! ! so next time dont ask why just consider the fact that the reason they are asking is a good reason and that you dont need to hear it.
