Am a Nigerian...

I reside in Lagos...

A graduate of University of Lagos (UNILAG) ...

I Studied Accounting...

but i have a great passion for Art...

I write poems as an hobby...

Writing poems affords me a means of expressing myself like no other...

'cause i let my heart out...

I love playing games & soccer... listening to music... reading novels...

I love Manchester United FC (MUFC) ...

My favorite singer is Celine Dion...

My favorite novelist is Nora Robert...

Shakespeare is my favourite poet...

Am a new level of crazy (a singularity)

I do the unexpected...

I even surprise myself...

guess am simply awesome...

A Little Smile

Just a word from you is enough to make my day
A day with you is enchanted in some magical type of way
A little smile from you is worth a thousand lives
A thousand ways I plan to love you, it ends with the rest of my life...

A little more from me, there won't be nothing else I own But I'd have you, and everything you own would be my whole It gets overwhelming with the loads of love you give me With every touch of reality, you still remain the woman of my dreams...

A love as such, a love so true
A love from me to you You are all I desire the most You are my dream come true...

A New Chapter

Same old Journal
But A New page Writing a new chapter

This is a story untold About a boy with a big heart Who loved freely and truly

But life gave him nothing but Pain and sadness Life treated him harshly
But he grew up

All his life he has been a victim
A victim of life's lesson
A victim of heartbreak Always at the boots end

The world changed him Yet they don't like what he has become Now he is cold and calculated Focused and direct

He would no longer be a prey
He is gonna take what he wants from life And he is gonna be happy no matter what it takes 'Cause he is gonna write his own script

Now he knows the people that really matters He knows those he's fighting for He knows what he's fighting for He knows he would win...

All Things Go

Life is a game
But you only get a turn Take your chances
You might not get another...

Make your mistakes
And learn from them Make your own choices With no regrets...

You can be anything you want But always be you Life is too short
To be someone else...

Be happy as much as you can Laugh as much as you can Give much more love than you get For it's more blessed to give than to receive...

Do this and you can say
'I have lived'
'Cause to everything and everyone there is a End
All things go...

Am Not Sorry

Am not sorry that I met you Am not sorry that I fell for you Am not sorry that am fragile when it comes to you Am not sorry that I placed my trust, my strength, my all in you Am not sorry that I made you the source of my happiness Am not sorry that I can't love another Am not sorry that there is no live after you Am not sorry that no one can replace you Am not sorry that I'll die before I leave you Am not sorry that I made you my life anchor Am not sorry that I made you my home Am not sorry that I Love You

Apathy

I fell so deep Now am losing sleep Cause' its your love i could not keep...
Where did i go wrong
Every night seems so long My thoughts go back & forth like a ping pong...
Why did u leave? give me a reason Got tears in my eyes red like crimson It feels like a prison...
When u're in love alone
Like a broken guitar i feel out of tone
You hurt me so much i ache in every bone...
You took away my glow Rivers of tears from my eyes flow For me u felt no remorse nor sympathy Now, i live in apathy...

Beautiful

Alas! it's pitiful
She just wants to be beautiful
She goes unnoticed Always overlooked
She craves attention Even just a mention of her name...
She don't see the light that's shining Its so bright it's blinding Deeper than the eyes can find Maybe we have made her blind...
So she tries to cover up her pain
'It's all for the fame'
But there's hope for you even in the dark You should know you're beautiful just the way you are
And you don't have to change a thing
Then the world would see
You are beautiful...

She has dreams to be an envy
But she got no penny She says 'beauty is pain'
'There's beauty in everything'
'What's a little bit compromise'
'I can go a while longer' She don't see she is perfect, she don't understand her worth Or that beauty goes deeper than the surface...
To all girls that's hurting Let me be your mirror Look a little bit closer I'll help you see a little bit clearer
The light that shines within...
There's hope for you even in the dark
You should know you're beautiful just the way you are
Then the world would see

No better you than the you that you are...

Beauty

Could I ever define the word beauty Without saying your name Lots of girls are pretty But non look this exquisite Your cute smile draws me close Its magnetic Oh! The mere sight of you gives me vibe Its electric Each morning I watch the sun rise
And I say to myself
Its almost as beautiful as you You are the definition of beauty

Bon Voyage

You said, 'i will never leave your side'
'we will never part'
Life happened
Now you have to leave for a while...
Low or high Far or nigh
You are always in my heart Forever to stay...
If every line I write would make you miss me Then I would write you a thousand poems
To tell you how much I love you And how much I miss and need you...

We would call and text, send voice notes and pictures, laugh over the phone...
But empty my arms will remain Till you fill it again...
Aching my heart will be Till you soothe it again...
Dry my lips will be Till you come back And flood it with kisses...

Everyday is the number of days I will miss you Every second is the number of time my heart will beat for you Always is the measure of time I will love you Every hour I will pray for your return Forever is the length of time I will wait For you to come back to me...

This isn't goodbye
Even as I watch you leave This isn't farewell
Even as tears fill my eyes...
I will wait right here

Till I hold you in my arms again
'Cause I know you will come back to me
'Cause I know our love will never end...
My Love, Bon Voyage...

Cant Be Just Friends

Me: I love u

Her: Thank u, bt am sorry.

Me: What?

Her: We cant be more than friends...

Its amazing how we love those who broke our heart even with the broken pieces...

When I look at u, I see all i ever wanted, but u look at me you see just a friend & nothing more, that hurts so bad...

Look at what u did to me, am sitting here halfway crazy, ain't no way that i can be just friends with u... you look at me,
I fake a smile, like a clown i put on a show so u wont see that i want and i'm needing everything that we should be...

'You're d reason for the teardrops on my guitar' Tell me how am i suppose to live without u, when I've been loving u for so long but how can i blame u when i built my world around u, hoping one day we would be so much more than friends, now i realize a dream of mine is coming to an end...

Cant make it so easy when u're all that i see, too bad i love u you're the girl of my dreams, guess that's where i can always have you
'in my dreams'...
I love u so much when u call from a thousand miles, even though there are planes, ships, trains & cars,

I'll walk to u if i have to...
How blue can i get?
You could ask my heart, but like a jigsaw puzzle its been thrown apart...

A million words cant express how i feel and for a thousand years I'll still be loving u....
You're my first,
I've always loved you but u don't love me and you always belong to someone else...
'Its said that if we ain't friends we cant be anything more but now i realize I cant be just friends with you'....

Embers

It's been 10 years
Blazing fire turned into embers
I desire something new Something daring Passionate and adventurous
But am used to having someone to call mine...

Scared of being alone Afraid I might get lonely Though the passion is gone
You still a good companion
But my heart is stuck in oblivion It wants to feel something new...

What if I never find it I guess I will never find out 'Cause am scared of being alone

It's been 10 years
You put out the fire
You need not tell me your love is gone
I can see it clearly
When I look into your eyes
You are not even there

I can see you seek something new If you wanna leave Am not gonna cry Am not gonna beg you to stay I'll be patiently waiting To see what you find

It's only a matter of time
I promise you will be back
You will find someone else
But you would never find another 'Cause am the one who loves you like no other My love is Unconditional

End

Dark & light

Line & rhymes

Seasons & time

Like day & night all fades away...

Flames to dust

Bread to crust

Lovers to friends

Why do all good things come to an end...

val legend

Eyes glazed with tears

Memories lazed with regrets

Still cant believe it came to this...

We were so good together

Thought it would last forever

But we could not compromise...

Non was willing to bend

Every argument was so lame

Always passing the blame...

They say maybe it was never meant to be

I say we could have at least tried harder

Then we could have said we gave it our best...

Why do we hold on to let go

Build up just to tear it down

Love to hate...

Now its all over

I guess its true

To everything

There is an END...

and the world is brought to it's knees...
When the mountains crumbles... and the trees lose their root...
and the world comes to an end...
I would have but one regret...
Not loving you a day more...

Everything I Want; All That I Need most times what we want isnt what we need... but my love {ife mi} is an exception... she is everything I want & all that I need... my heart leaps for joy when I see her face... her touch makes my heart race...

her love takes me to the top... she got rich brown skin like honey... her lips sweeter than honey...
cause she is worth every penny...

Girl Next Door

Every Night
I dream of waking up Each morning to kiss you Stare into your eyes And tell you how much I love you But I wake up in the morning I break out in sweat Realizing its just a dream...

Then I see you in the hall
Our eyes meet
My nose filled with the smell of your perfume
And I want to tell you everything But there I stand Frozen, Palm sweating
Then you smile at me Say goodbye and walk away...

Golden Rules

it's not always about being right it's about being right for her defend her always be her strength always fight for her always she wants her fun yet, she needs you to trust her coz she knows where her heart belongs u will hear whispers about a little this, a little that rumors or true it doesn't really matter coz at the end of it all she will always choose you treat her like a lady let her make her mistakes but always be there to catch her when she falls and she will never depart from you

Goodbye

They come along looking beautiful and right
And I think, oh I've found my ms right They all make the same promise
'I love you, I'll never leave you'...

I can see through their lies Still I believe their lies Trusting that it may yet become true After all I've been through...

My heart bleeds still When I feel the cold steel Of their words like blade Cut through my heart...

I thought I should be familiar with goodbye But each time they say 'goodbye'
It hurts more than the last And I promise that will be the last...

Yet I find myself falling again Falling in love is hard Falling for betrayal is worse
I look at the smile on her cute face...

And I know someday
Just like others before her she will break her promise and say

Happy

All i ever wanted is to be happy... yet i feel so crappy... my life has been full of ups & downs... in truth its been more of downs... i try my best to always fake a smile... a make believe [a lie]...
av had fleeting moments of happiness... moments I cud av swore I was happy... the next minute it fades away...
I guess i av to carry-on... keep taking chances...
hoping someday I might find an unending happiness... or at least I could say, 'I tried'...

For Just this day Be Happy
Then try it again tomorrow...
Life is probably full of crap Yet there are so many beautiful things We get so wrapped up in the crap
We miss the amazing things life has to offer...

Life is a bed of roses ??
That's why it's also filled with thorns Forget the thorns for a moment Enjoy the beauty and smell of the roses...
Life is a box of Chocolate ??
That's why it gets messy Forget the mess for a moment Savour the chocolate...

No matter how hard life gets Remember, to everything there is an end Please always take a moment to be happy Never forget to live In the end nothing will really matter Except those happy moments Life is Beautiful
So Don't Worry, Be Happy...

Hell Has No Fury Like A Woman Scorned

When she speaks, listen
When she does not speak, listen to her unspoken words
When she cries, comfort her When she raises her voice, speak softly...

When she makes her mistakes, correct her but do not judge her When she fails, don't give up on her When she succeeds, celebrate her When she dreams, tell her she can achieve it...

When she asks you a question, never lie to her When you hurt her, make it up to her When she is scared, protect her When she is lost, guide her...

When she is in need, provide for her When she is sad, share her burden
When she is down lift her up When she is happy, share her delight...

When she offends you, forgive her When she rejects you & tell u she does not need you, never leave her side When she is broken, fix her When she can't be fixed, love her for who she is...

When you make a promise to her, never break it When you can't understand her, trust and support her Love her like a Baby
But treat her like a Lady...

When she loves you do not take her for granted
When she gives you her heart keep it safe When she gives you her body cherish it Fail to do this Then you find out first hand
That 'hell hath no fury like a woman scorned'...

Hope

Hope the state of the mind
It doesn't mean we are too blind
To see that the situation is hopeless
But we choose not to be faithless 'Cause we never know what life might cough up That's why, we never give up...

When you are hopeless and faithless you get to watch the rest of your hopeless life slowly fade away into nothingness an hopeless man is a living dead...

Have hope on a better tomorrow 'cause nothing remains the same it was not always this bad it's not always going to be this bad it would be better in time today is not the end...

carry on push on crawl on fight on hold on in any situation you find yourself NEVER GIVE UP
HAVE FAITH...

How I Feel

You are all I think about when I hear love stories
No piece of art could compare to the images of you in my memories...
Some says reality could never come close to the ones in romance movies
But our love has defiled all theories...
Just as my love goes beyond eternity, Your smile cuts through all boundaries...

Only a heart that has loved Could know how it feels to be lonely...
Only a heart that has been filled Could tell what it feels to be empty...
You are my only Only until my forever
Will I stop holding you close to me...
We are the only act in a love story That is second to none...

I could run all my life Never stop to take a breather
I still wouldn't find your match...
Where ever I find myself Even in another life
I would always find you 'Cause I would follow your scent Until fate kicks me right into your path...

Your voice comes up in my head When love songs comes on A day would come when our love is the only thing that gives the world hope...
I'm going to be right by your side Everytime you need me or not 'Cause you are the one only I cant live without...

They have flaws
Yet they want you to be perfect
They have weaknesses
But want you to be nothing but strong They need you to be everything they ain't They want you to be the perfect picture they painted They forget that you are only human

You are not a machine
It's in your nature to make mistakes It's in your nature to fall
So you can learn and rise Even machines breakdown
But they would never understand That is where they fail

I Never Loved U

he loved her as the ocean loves the shore to him, she was everything... but to her, he was just a thing when she have had her fill like a sour milk she tossed him out
'I never loved you', she said... that day he died for his heart turned cold for he loved her too much he could not hurt her... filled with rage driven by hate vengeance his calling he left, a man on a mission... down the road he met her she was so pretty but love starved
'a perfect victim', he thought... with nothing but time on his side he gave her enough affection till she fell in love with him like lightning he struck he took from her all she had from her heart to her last breath... with a smug smile he pushed the cold steel of his blade right through her heart
'I never loved you', he said its nothing personal you're just the first of many... now he is back on the highway his next victim is just down the road

If She Could Only Be Mine

I lay on my bed with a smile on my face, sleep has chosen to elude me tonight coz my brain is thinking abt her & my heart is yearning & calling for her.
I look out my window up to d sky & behold i saw her among d stars & she shine d brightest.
Her beautiful flame of pulchritude doth makes me dizzy.
Her eyes shines so sparkling bright it puts diamonds to shame {i cud gaze into them for all eternity}.
Her hair lyk wild fire, its so soft & silk {if i cud only put my hands thru it & caress it}.
Her face a piece of work by d greatest sculpture, made carefully & perfectly adorned.
Her smile so bright it makes d sun jealous.
Her lips so luscious, its a honey well {i cud drink from it till the end of time}
She is blessed wt d body of a goddess, wt great nice round curves @ d right places...a body so inviting she doesnt av to say a word {if only i cud hold her in my arms forever}.
Her hands so delicate {if only i cud kiss them till d end of time}
Her legs slick & beautiful i cud worship.
Best of all she has a heart of gold which all d world riches cant pay for {if only she cud give me a room in her heart, i wud make it my home}.
If only she cud be mine, i wud tattoo her name across my heart for all to see...

Incomplete Without You

you are the book, am your pages... you are the ship, am your anchor... you are the eagle flying high, am your beautiful wings... you are my sunshine, am your light in the dark... you are my shelter, am your home... you are the hook, am the line... you are the mountain high, I'm your valley green and wide... you are the body firm and strong, I'm a rib bone by your side... you are the king, am your queen...

so you see we can't do without each other...

Irreplaceable

It's been months you left Many nights I wept Still can't believe you are gone
Now I got no one

I wish you stayed with me a little longer Stayed with me a couple more summers
I wasn't made to be alone
But I would not settle for a clone

'Cause whenever I close my eyes
You are all i see No one can replace you Nothing can erase you

I will always remember you You left me with memories And a aftertaste Never met anyone like you

I get a blank page
When i try to draw comparison Even though it breaks my heart Still i hold on to your memories Your love is forever etched in my heart

It's Too Late, Am Gone

If you are reading this Then it's too late, Am Gone
You tell me he is the one for you But he is just not right for you
He never deserved you But he is all you see Even though all he does is make you weep

Time after time
He broke your heart
Time after time
I mend your broken heart Right before you offer it back to him I can't keep fixing you for him
When you are all i ever wanted

How is it that you never noticed How much I love you I would have done anything for you A girl like you deserve better
I hope someday you open your eyes And see that am all you ever needed

It's time I packed by bags and left I can't keep watching you get hurt
When I know
I can treat you better than he can So if you are reading this

Just A Smile

lost in the rain every drop brings pain pain that reminds me that I had lost it all all I have left is memories of what was or what could have been with a heart so cold I forged my heart in bronze then I built my walls up high locked my heart up in my fortress so no one can find it I found solace in in my cold dark castle found my place in loneliness

out of the blue
she came to my gate wielding a weapon I have never seen just a smile and the rain is gone my walls crumbled from whence she came from I know not she is so hot I fear she might burst into flames she got eyes so bright it puts diamonds to shame

I wondered is she a warrior princess or maybe she is an angel then it hit me in the guts Alas!
she is a goddess and she is here to capture my heart yet, I wouldn't put up a fight

Legendary Epic

....Filled with melancholy, filled with deep sadness, running out of my mind, i bow my head in distress, i bow my head in faustration, i cry out in despair but no one can hear my call....trying to hold on but i cant see d light @ d end of d tunnel, i feel lyk giving up, it seems the ship is sinking fast....my eyes are filled with tears but i cant let them roll nor fall, bcoz am supposed to be d soldier who never loses composure, even thou i hold d weight of d world on my shoulders i aint never supposed to show it, my loved ones aint supposed to know it....
....i wish i could wish away my troubles & everything will be just fine but that is just a wishful thinking coz nothing is given freely...so i've to trade my despair for strength & my weakness for a brave heart...just like the lionheart i'll fight till d last ounce of my strength never giving up on life, family, friends, my generation & most importantly on me....
.....i think about d troubles i see, i reminise d places i've been, i look around & see the faces looking up to me, then i realized there is only one option:...i've to cross d lines fear to gain strength, i've to skip the hurdles of disappointment to gain hope, i've to scale d mountains of oppositions & d ocean of doubt to reach d height of greatness & d shore of peace.....
....i called for help, i cud nt hear a voice; i searched for a hero bt d hero was me...it took a moment, bt now i get it, the world 's been waiting on me.....
.....I AM LEGENDARY EPIC.....

Let It

its a great risk when you let someone into your life 'cause you might end up with regrets but it also shows massive strength and courage 'cause if you don't let it come then you have to spend the rest of your life wondering what could have been...

if it doesn't want to stay then stop holding on 'cause you would end up losing it and a big part of yourself in the process learn to let go

Since the dawn of time
It's been a race against time Always thinking about tomorrow Always talking about years to come...

While we forget to live today
We fail to appreciate the present

We forget that the tomorrow depends on today Tomorrow is a reaction to today's reality
If you do the right thing today Then tomorrow takes care of itself...

They say 'if we can see the future,
Then we don't have to live in the present'

But if we don't live in the present
How do we create yesterday?
If we don't have a past,
What guides us tomorrow?

Live today, don't worry about tomorrow
It comes soon enough...

Lost Love

I lost my mind... am in a daze... into d distant past I gaze... my thoughts are clouded its a haze... my thoughts are in knots like a shoe laze...

we had something good going... wt u I was happy...
wt u I was me... with u I let my guards down... but I got scared that someday u will let me down...
I panicked... afraid of what might or might not be...

tot things were moving too fast...
I asked for some space...

maybe I was right...
maybe I was wrong... it doesn't really matter anymore...
'cos I will never know....
I never stuck around long enough... to find out d end of d story...

lost my place beside u...
'coz I was thinking about ME not US... could not believe anyone... cud love me like u did... it felt too good... it felt surreal...

without u my life is a maze... u drove me to d brink of sanity... yet were my clarity... this loss I will bear forever...

for u my heart aches... if I close my eyes forever... will it ease my pain? my heart is so heavy every time I close my eyes... all I see is your eyes... so beautiful as d very 1st day I saw u... all I ever wanted was a life full of laughter... but all that really matters is love ever after...
There is no life without u...

Love Lost

Look between the lines
There will you see my tears Look beyond my words
There will you find my pain

They say am not strong enough But I loved you more than enough Obviously that wasn't enough To you love was just a fluff

They say I look detached and broken But that's only 'cause I fell in love
Now am shattered
And all the pieces are scattered

Mate

Met her in a coffee shop

Walked up to her

'Let's be friends' I said

'Why not' she said

Friendship begat benefits

No lies, no deceits

But, soon enough

She started catching feelings

Wish I saw that coming

Am still finding myself

Let alone a soulmate

I only wanted a bedmate

Someone to talk to Someone to play with

Now I have no choice but to leave

'Cause she found the wrong mate

Medication

Where these feelings originated

I can't wait till tomorrow

Oh no, this can't be Procrastinated

My thoughts you have Dominated

Every time I think bout you am Fascinated

Held spell bound by your irresistible charm

Don't ask me why?

'Cause I still ask myself, 'why? '

Is it the glow in your Eyes

That put diamonds to shame

Or the beautiful Smile

That adorns your face

Maybe it's the sound of your Voice

So sweet and pleasant

Or the shape of your Body

Exotic and alluring

It doesn't matter 'cause the doctor says am sick

And you are my only medication

When the day is young or old When freedom is gained or sold When hope seems lost or frozen When promises are broken...

All the memories i cherished most All the broken hearted poem I wrote Every part of me that has blamed you for leaving Every guilt I felt for not holding on much longer...

I will feel no more 'Cause we would both be free And to a happy ending
We will move a step closer

No Regrets

No regrets

Don't I know it I have seen and heard it all Nobody has it all
No one knows it all...
I have been high I have been low
I have enjoyed the sunny days
I have weathered storms...
I have made mistakes
But at least I make my own choices
I thank my father His absence has made me strong...
And I love my mother
Even though she is gone Sometimes I think 'bout her and the life i wanted What I could have been...
Still am thankful For the life I have had For all I am
For the man I have become...

Not Today

There cometh a day when I will be as strong as I was before you
but not today...

There cometh a day
when I can look at your pictures and smile
but not today...

there cometh a day when I can look at you and not burst into tears
but not today...

There cometh a day when my memories will not be shadowed by the day you left me but of the good moments we had
but not today...

There cometh a day when my pillows are not soaked in tears
but not today....

There cometh a day when I wont spend every minute missing you
but not today...

There cometh a day when I won't stay up all night wishing you were here
but not today...

There comes a day when my wounds will be completely healed and would be left with just a scar
but not today...

There comes a day
when I can mention your name without hearing my own voice quiver with tears
but not today...

There comes a day when someone mentions you name my sore heart won't bleed
but not today...

There cometh a day
when every breath, sound, smell, colour, place, sunrise, sunset, love song, love story don't remind me of what we used to be, what we could have been and what we are

but not today...
There cometh a day when I can close my eyes and images of you will not flash right before my eyes
but not today...
There cometh a day
when I will forgive u for leaving me and this burden of hate and anger would be lifted
but not today...
There cometh a day when I can stop loving you and I could tell everyone I once had a lover

Numb

I wanna feel Happiness
Joy Excitement Love Peace Relief Safe Secured

When I don't
I would rather feel Pain Stress Sadness Anger Hate Insecured Disappointment Loneliness Boredom

I know it sounds crazy But it's all part of being human It shows you are alive
You only feel pain when you are alive

you apologize and promise a change
Time after time

Each time it hurts more than the last But to everything there is a limit Nothing is finite
Not even pain

You say I don't care anymore Its not that I don't care I just can't 'Cause you changed me
I stopped feeling Now am so cold

ONE HEART

At the corner of the street he stood watching her walk pass in a dark brown Jean and grey top

'she is the devil's spawn' they said,
'she is wild' they told him but to him she is just a free spirited girl and she looked so beautiful his heart melted
'she is no good' they said yet he had never desired anything more than her

out of the blue
she looked @ him their eyes met time stopped the street noise disappeared he could have sworn his heart stopped beating

Then she smiled at him that was the moment he knew he was lost and no one can save him he looked at her like she was something sacred or special but she knew better she was no good to anyone not even herself that's why she stuck to herself...

But he looked so charming she couldn't help herself she took a risk she looked him into his eyes she gave him a smile he smiled back at her...
Then it happened it was like they were in a time void there was no one but both of them her breathe caught in her throat...
NO! ! her brain screamed at her you know better
you have nothing to offer him for you have no heart but she wanted him anyways...

the stuff dreams are made of that is why I have to let you go I wish I could stay but if i did I would only rip your heart out if I had a heart I would have loved if I had a heart I would have stayed' she turned her back to him ready to walk away it took a moment for what she said to settle in... he knew if he let her walk away then he would have loved her forever watching her leave is the only thing that could rip his heart out...

ONE HEART SERIES FINALE

I know you have no heart for you lost it with all it's broken pieces take mine share mine who needs two hearts when we can have just one that beats for two just you and i together forever

All my life
I prayed for someone like you Then I found you and I lost myself in you therefore there is no me without you and there is no life after you for you are imperfectly perfect I love you for who you are I can't ask for more on his knees he went freely he wept he held out her hand pulled out the ring

'you don't have to love me...
I will love you and i enough for the both of us... please stay and marry me...'

'Yes' she said he place her hand in his chest his on her chest then he kissed her with every passion and desire within him.. just like magic for the first time since forever she felt a stir of a heart within her everything came to her in a rush threatening to make her numb she let it consume her for she felt everything he felt equally she know she would always love him...

then she heard a steady beat the beat of one heart the heart they share beating for two...

I met a boy we talked it was Epic
In the morning reality set in he left....

morning came too soon I thought Oh! what a silly thought nothing lasts forever after all it was just a One Night Stand...
He left without a word never to return
That's so rude of him
Don't know why am mad at him He brought nothing with him yet he took all i had...

trying to get through the day the sun is so hot today but it's my mind that is on heat thinking 'bout his hot body got me soggy... he is as hot as hell as charming as a prince I wish I could have kept him forever if only he asked, would have given myself to him forever...

'you know better,
he is never coming back, no one comes back.'
I had to remind myself but I can't help myself my body i offered my heart he took he was not my first but no one had left me with a thirst...

there he was standing at my door begging me to let him in common sense went right out the window and I opened my doors wide 'One Night' I told myself yeah just one more Night
an Endless Night...

FOREVER AND A NIGHT

One more night
didn't think it could get any better I ran out of letters... in the morning
reality set in
I want him to stay...

one more night
a night of bliss a night of thrill... in the morning
reality set in
I don't want to leave...

i stayed in bed pretending to be asleep don't wanna watch him leave don't think I can bare the pain if only he could stay Just One More Night!
then he kissed me...

starring into her eyes
I realized
I wanna go to bed each night with her in my arms and wake up each morning right beside her....

starring into his eyes his beautiful brown eyes I realized I wanna fall asleep in his arms and wake up sprawled next to him...

'i want you to stay' I said
'just one more night'...

she didn't have to say a word I could see it all on her face she wears her heart on her sleeves I took all she gave I gave all I had still we both yearn for more...

Am a rolling stone never had a place to call home but I would stay for one more night and I would still be here the night after As long as u want me I would stay with you forever and the Night after

Oh! what a stupid thought The night was never meant to last forever
After all it was just a One Night Stand...

I left without a word
I brought nothing with me Yet I feel like I left something behind...

Whistling a tune as I drove The hot sun shining above Got me thinking 'bout her hot body Yeah! it was a beautiful body Remembering the words from her exotic lips Even though my eyes was on her erotic hips
A beautiful body is good for a night A beautiful mind is good for a lifetime
'She got both' I mulled...

I drove for miles and miles Yet i wound up at her door
Now I realized what I left behind I left but my heart stayed behind I have had my fill of her But somehow I want more...

It was meant to be A One Night Stand
But here I stand At her door Begging her to let me in

Seeking hearty adventures On Cupid's coast I saw you.
Mesmerized and captivated

Never knew you were a pirate
You planned mutiny with my heart
You made me walk the plank
And I fell so deep Deeper than the ocean on which we sail

You left me marooned on a deserted island Never to forget you I watched you sail away
There goes my dream Sailing away without me

Hopping from arm to arm Moving from bed to bed Never attaching strings...

I was never the type to stick around To do the times
But you got me hypnotized
You got me paralyzed
Now I can't leave your side...

Am attached to you Stringing myself to you
Like the river to the sea
Where ever you go I follow This stone has found its resting place...

The Very First Day

A rush of discomfort rules my heart, when I think of you And tears comes to my eyes, when I think of the time our friendship was new The gentle innocent smile that never leaves your face
The sound of your laughter will always ring in my head...

I was so sure that moment was the time and place When our lips met, i felt few strokes'tick-tock' back in my heart.
I wanted it to last forever
So we would never part...

Alas! What have we become?
I never knew this day will come
We have come to a stop on the road
We are now at the cross road Where we don't have to carry each other load Where we Let go of all we feel in our hearts And try not to leave a scar
For the paths we have chosen are so far apart...

I will never forget all the places we went And each minutes we've spent All the cheeky naughty words Every romantic word we said
And every moment we shared...

Now is the time where we both say farewell my princess I would carry you in my heart till eternity Our love I will never forget...
As much as I know that we can't stay,
I hope our paths will cross again some other day.
For I will always Love you Like the very first Day...

Time Paradox

Make the most of each moment, for they become memories...

Time is the most paradoxical of all things, the past is gone,
the future is not come,
& the present becomes the past even while we attempt to define it...

They say 'even the river knows this: there is no hurry we shall get there someday'
Yet they will still say 'better 3 hours soon than a minute late'...

They say 'seize every opportunity; coz if we never try, we never know' Yet they will still say 'life is all about waiting for the right time'

They say 'time is money' but when we av no money time is all we got...
They say 'time heals all wound' well that's if only the source of pain is finite...

They say 'the patient dog eats d fattest bone'
Yet they will still say 'time waits for no man'...

They say 'Rome was not built in a day'
Yet they will still say 'a stitch in time saves nine'...

They say 'opportunity is a bird that never perches'
Yet they will still say 'everything has its place in time'...

They say 'time goes'
I say 'we go, time stays'...
They say 'time heals everything'
I say 'time kills everything'...

Whichever way u view it...
Whichever school of thought u support...
Whatever conclusion u arrive at...

just as my friend cade hicks said
'Alas, the years slip by, & from the day we were born, we begin to die'...

Tomorrow Might Not Be...

When love goes into oblivion
And friends become anonymous....
Remember all who went extra miles for you From dawn to dusk...
Try not to forget those who helped you When you had nothing...
Those who sacrificed all they had To make sure u kept on smiling...

Let your help be unconditional, Let your heart feel people's pain...
Maybe by sharing their weaknesses
You could finally find your own strength...
Be in a haste to smile,
Let go the guilt and be free of Hate...
Who knows,
TOMORROW might not Be...

every time things got bitter u made it better...

yet u made me sour u left me with a sore u said u're sorry believe me its quite funny u said u wish I could understand I never would coz now alone I stand...

funny how those who evoke so much love in us could also invoke the exact opposite u taught me how to love u taught me how to hate guess u're the perfect teacher...

because of u I don't knw how to let anyone in I find it hard to trust not only me, but everyone around me...

I learnt the hard way picked up a scar along d way shud av known better than to lean on u I fell xo hard now am just a shard I'll never be whole again every night I relive the pain...

thought u were my angel thought u could do no wrong thought u were incapable of betrayal but I guess its true all I can do is try everyday for the rest of my live loving you is the best decision

I neva had to make

I will love you

War Against Demons

Night time is the time
Time to make war Place your guns at your reach Your crossbow at your feet Be vigilant, take no chances For there is no sleep tonight...

Lock your doors Bar your windows
Don't forget to sprinkle the salt
For they come at dusk They come to feed...

Lurking in the darkest corners Black eyed monsters Impatiently finding a way to get in Mouths dripping in anticipation
They know you are in there They can literally taste you...

Pray... Oh! Pray fervently That their dinner you shall not be Turn on every light Be ready to fight For they come for your soul...

A day of substance looms over,
A moment of truth is about to take over...
Hidden affections becomes visible,
And the liars are no more capable...

The only true songs would be from the mind of another,
The only real thing would be from the sight of the other...
While the ones who had been let down would be risen,
The ones who hurt would be forgiven...

Everyone would get what they deserve promptly,
The pains of others becomes yours inevitably...
Those ones who hardly feel would have their fill,
And the selfish ones would know what it feels...

It always feels as though all liberty would be lost
And we will all be accountable for our wrongs...
Let all be ready to love, Let ye who has none be ready for one...

For whoever cares to know Life would not concede defeat Without demanding for a rematch...
Love would always come around The broken heart to patch...
No matter how lost you might be Love will always find you...

You Love Me

If you told me
The sea is dry
And fishes fly Birds have scales
And snails have wings

If you told me
Mountains float
And the trees are rooted in the sky
Or the snow burns
And fire freezes
The desert is flooded
The sun is cold

I would rather believe that Than when you tell me
