A Broken Heart

How dare you do this,
How dare you break my heart,
As if breaking ice,
I gave you my love,
But you never cared,
I surrendered my soul to you,
And my body too,
But you never thought about it,
You made me think,
That you loved me,
That i was your world,
And the only one you
you needed,
Full of joy was i when our lips met,
I didnt know that i would be a lovelorn,
But now i tell you,
A sound will haunt you,
for the rest of your life,
The sound of a broken heart,
My brokenn heart.

Come Back

Another day dawns
But no difference do i see
In the day before
Birds are chirping eagerly
Seeking for their mates
Oh! What sweet songs fill my ears
Soothing melodies that calm the soul
I see the ever-colourful butterflies together
In pairs, a heartbreaking sight it is to me
Everywhere i go
It seems i'm the only one alone
Where are you, my love?
Why is it you had to go?
for such loneliness to grip my heart?
I yearn for you and your company daily
Can you not hear my feeble cries?
Nor see my attempts to be by yourside?
I love you
Is it not plain to see?
Come back to me
And lets explore our love once more

Forever You

You may hate me now,
While i still love you,
You stare at me with hatred,
While i glance lovingly at you,
You've turned against me,
But i still look up to you,
I remember the good memories,
We've shared together,
I still hang onto keeping you,
Against all odds,
No matter the trouble,
I encounter.

Friendship

Roses are red
Violets are blue
Dare i say
Lets be together
Our friendship will blossom
Like the red, red rose
Never withering
But always blooming

Home

It's raining out here,
All I see is gloom and loom,
The sun just disappeared,
And darkness from nowhere appeared,
I shiver from the cold,
Alone I sadly am,
For those who brought me joy are away,
And loneliness runs through my blood,
I hear whispers,
Impossible! I reason for no one is here,
I hear a creak from the staircase,
I'm scared yet I'm excited,
Valerie, I hear whispered,
The sound is soulful and haunting,
Wonderfully intoxicating,
It draws me out of my shell,
I follow the sound,
A small smile taunts my lips,
I'm closer and closer yet what awaits?
The room is dark and there is no switch,
My courage is gone,
I want to turn back and leave,
I am here come forward,
These words sends shivers down my spine,
It is him,
My love is here,
In his eyes I see familiarity,
His arms warm me of the cold solidarity,
I am happy,
I am home,
I am in love

I Believe In Myself

I may not be beautiful,
But my beauty is within,
I may not be smart here and now,
But my intelligence is inwards and wide,
I may not have friends,
But I have the inner me,
You all may discourage me,
But I am already encouraged,
You may not believe in me,
But I believe in myself.

I Just Love You

Right now i am alone,
However i feel the presence of my love,
He promised to never let go,
And true to his word,
He is always near me,
In my dreams,
I see him,
Dreams of torture, torment and pleasure,
We make love and kiss,
I wake up yearning for him more than ever,
Yearning for his touch and caresses,
Yearning for the feel of his lips,
Against mine,
Soon our dreams will come true,
And all pleasure fulfilled,
All i want for him to know,
My love for him will never die,
For he is my true live,
My first love and my onlylove,
I hope you hear me as i cry out,
As i say,
I love you

Loneliness Yet Strength

I sit in a room full of people,
Yet my eyes are glassed with tears,
Loneliness lies heavy in my heart,
I feel no connection with anybody
Lo, behold someone I called pal,
Took one g I sit in a room full of people,
Yet my eyes are glassed with tears,
Loneliness lies heavy in my heart,
I feel no connection with anybody
Lo, behold someone I called pal,
Took one glance at me and turned away,
He doesn't acknowledge me anymore,
I am dead to him, that I see now,
Time to prune the lot away,
The room is hot yet I feel chills,
Air circulates around yet I am out of breath,
I am choking and gasping for breath,
I wanna get up from where I sit,
I wanna run away,
Far from all those who surround me,
A girl sees me,
Her eyes size me up,
Yet I am no prey to her,
I am a lioness at heart,
My bite kills so she better watch out,
Why can't I fit in?
I am no different, am I?
I can't even bring myself to smile,
For it would seem false,
I am genuine,
One thing no one can take away from me,
Where are they?
Them that wants me,
Them that sticks by me,
I glance around the room,
My eyes unseeing,
For no one is worthy of a second of attention in my mind,
It is time,
I get up,

I run,
Air rushes down my lungs,
Relieving my momentary pain,
I need no one but myself,
I am strong,
I am my own company,
I am my own friend.

Love Impossible

Life was as boring as it could be,
No one seemed to inspire me,
No fun seemed to pop out of anywhere,
Then i met you,
Even then our friendship was stilled,
I looked up to you for inspiration,
For hope,
Unknowingly to you,
I found myself getting closer to you,
Oh how happy i was!
You became my best friend,
My beacon of hope and admiration,
Even though you never imagined it,
I found myself falling for you,
It came to me as a surprise,
I never let you know about it,
Because late, i found out,
We could never be together,
Friendship is all you can offer,
And friendship then, is all i can take,
Besties forever,
Love you pal.

Love Is Us

What is love?

An attraction?

A chemistry?

These are worldly definitions of love

But this is mine

Love is me and you together

Your lips on my lips

Love is

Us being together

For as long as we live

Valerie Varkevisser

Love Was Never For Me.

Love makes everyone happy,
Everyone except me,
Love was made for everyone,
Everyone except me,
Cupid refused me,
And shot my love arrow at someone else,
I am left with loneliness now,
I have no one to call my love,
No one cares about me,
I always felt i was in love,
But realised love was never made for me,
When i really fell in love,
The person i loved had some one else,
Love just left something in my heart,
Depression and loneliness.

Our Garden Of Love

The leaves rustles,
As the winds passes by,
Flowers in the garden blossom,
They open up to have a a glimpse, of the couple whose garden they are in,
A boy and girl passes by,
Hand in hand in the garden,
Created by their love,
The scent of the flowers,
Spreads to the couple,
Making them happy,
They created such a magnificent garden filled with their love,
The couple is us,
We care not what people say,
And know not where are comind from,
But we know we shall meet, and be in our garden of love, sharing,
Eachother's lips in soul drenching
Kisses and sharing eachother's love,
For eternity

Our Memories

Gone are the days,
I used to see your face,
Gone are the days,
I used to hear your voice,
Now i live on our memories,
They seem beautiful,
When i recall them,
But they bring me pain,
Because they remind me that,
You aren't near me,
Lady luck has taken you away,
And has left me with only,
Bittersweet memories.

Red And White Of Valentine

Its so amazing,
How this day has arrived,
A day of red and white,
Red for seduction,
White for true love,
We choose not red, for ours is the truest of love,
On this day of valentine,
Our love rebounds,
My dearest sweetheart, hapi vals dae

Tell Me

In the beginning I dreamt of you,
Thought of you, of us together,
A relationship with you,
Oh, how my insides used to tingle!
How my imagination would soar really high,
Holding hands, hugging each other,
Lips locked in a passionate, never ending kiss,
My dreams of you showed bliss,
These dreams turned reality when you decided you wanted me,
For awhile we were happy,
Love was really radiating between us,
But then, you started drawing away,
A question to you,
Only evoked anger and silent treatment for days,
I sometimes wonder,
Weren't you the same person I used to share my dreams with?
Or even plan my future with?
The love burns me up,
It suffocates my very breath,
Leaving me gasping for air,
Out of ignorance and curiosity,
I asked you,
You seem to easily forget about me,
Tell me,
If I am no more needed,
If I am no more important,
All so I can finally let go,
Maybe you're not mine,
Maybe you were never mine,
Should I say goodbye?
Would it be better if I release you?
Or you release me?
But first tell me,
Is our love gone?
Erased for all eternity?
Or was there simply no love?
I wanna know,
Tell me

Val's Day

Today is the brightest,
And gloriest of days,
Because it is the day of love,
It is a day made for us,
We'll take notice of nobody,
And spend the day with hugs and kisses,
It's valentine's day again,
Happy val's day,
From your beloved sweetheart.

Without You

Yesterday was so blue,
Without you,
I felt really sad,
Because i didnt see your face,
I felt really depressed,
Because i didnt hear your voice,
Telling me about your love,
Telling me how much you care,
Because of your absence,
I realised how much more i love you,
I realised how empty my world would seem
Without you,
Yesterday my colours vanished,
Because you werent here,
Today they are back,
Because you've come back,
Never leave me,
I love you

You And I

When i was young
I never thought of love
And marriage was out of my mind
Then you came and changed my life
Before me
You were everything i could ever have My love dreams and my life
And when we came together
I knew then that
We were and we are Forever meant to be
