Alone In The World

No one likes me.
I have a dismal existence.
People hate me, because I'm different.
I wish to fit in and have friends.
Being alone is like a dress dagger going through a weak heart.
It hurts more than any physical pain.
The feeling of longing for a friend is too long.
I cry out for love.
Being alone is like a silent tear.
No one hears them.
There isn't anyone for you.

Vega Destiny Star

Annihilation Of Race Scifenga

Blast from outer space
See an exploding planet
Like supernova

Destruction of race
But no one likes them at all
All are space pirates

Universe in peace
Their souls wandering the stars
Searching for answers

Vega Destiny Star

Apocalypse

The end is near.
Chaos guardians have been set free.
Pandemonium breaks out.
One's pulse beats ever so fast.
Breathing increases.
Fear over takes you.
The gods have abandoned the earth.
Humanity is on it's own now.
Destruction ravages villages.
Savages currently populate the earth.
We are in need of a hero.
One that will tame chaos.
Threads of fate will be cut soon.
Natural disasters are more catastrophe.
The moon has been full for many days.
Eternal light from the stars are going more faint day by day.
The sun is running out of Hydrogen.
It's life ending prematurely.
This is the biggest calamity ever.
Death is welcomed by many.
Day by day the planet is becoming more annihilated
The hero finally presents himself.
He uses magic to bring myriad miracles.
With the use of magic sword he slays the chaos.
He saves us.
Just like that he is gone.
Humanity barely knows his name.
Face of the hero is still fresh in our memories.
Balance is now in control.
Life is getting back to normal.
There is a beginning never a end.

Apraxia

Disorder of the tongue.
Sounds never articulated.
Communication lost.
Trying to get across.
A life filled with frustration.
Only because of a mispronunciation,
because of funny accent.
Hope to cure this disorder is sung.
I shall overcome.

Black Mage

You are like your cousin the red mage you don't have any friends.
You hunger for friendship.
Even though people think you are ugly.
Your life is full of sorrows.
Magic makes you happy.
You know offensive magic.
Black is your color of choice.
Black is the color of shadows and sorrows.
You hurt people.
You may be evil or just lost in confusion.
You may appear cold, but you need love.
Oh, black mage you have friends.
People care about you.
You may not realize it.
Please don't become evil.
You may be tainted just a little.

Vega Destiny Star

Vega Destiny Star

Bloody Battle

The red blood that symbolizes life stains the battle field.
The smell is terrible.
Ghost of the dead haunt the living.
Life and life are in the balance.
Guns and battle cries can be heard in the distance.
The bloody war god Mars wages war on the people.
The brave men go into battle fearlessly.
People are homeless.
Poverty struck the people of the country.
People are driven by the war god Mars himself.
Mars god of war please stop.
Guardian angels come to the rescue.
Some may never see their beloved mate ever again.
These soldiers give everything.
Wining may not be the price they seek.
Life and the things they believe in are what they seek.
Peace is worth more than rare gold.
The blood and battle scars are good luck in battle.
The war may never end, but mortal lives will.
War is human nature.
War is a meaningless battle into underworld of Pluto.
Lives are taken without reason just because the war god Mars is mad.
Why Mars why?
Please stop this meaningless man slaughter.
Oh please Mars I beg of you for our children.
We want a nice life full of peace and love is that hard to ask for?
It might in time or bloody war.
Please gods of the universe make it stop now!
Bloody war go away please never come back.

Breaking Up

I though this relationship had everything.
It was you who did got another girlfriend.
Can't a long distance work?
I thought you loved me?
The feeling that I feel are betrayal.
A little shocked and just empty.
Am I a good enough girlfriend?
I have everything you want and more.
I thought we had myriad things in common.
This girl she is much lower than me.
You and her have nothing going on.
The stars aren't shining on your new girlfriend.
Your relationship is meager.
Dump her and go to with the triumphant one.
Soon you shall be with me once more.

Dawning Sonnet

The sky is void of all of its stars
Everywhere is eternally dark
I can still feel my bleeding scars
Going slowly out is my life spark

The air just became much more cold
I am beginning to lose hope
Over the horizon, I see light of gold
I pick myself up and never mope

I finally see a great light
Victorious in all my battles
The ending of the darkness night
Finally my life settles

I am exhausted and drop my knife
Dead is the way of strife.

Vega Destiny Star

Dawning Tanka

Dying of the night
light has defeated darkness
But where is the sun?

Destiny The Driving Force

Destiny is controlled by the mighty gods.
It swirls like a massive whirl pool.
No mortal being can escape it's hold.
Destiny controls our every action.

Destiny makes sure we take the right path in life.
Without a person taking a desired path the universe will go out of balance.
Balance of fate is essential.
The thread of destiny is so tangled that's why destiny is so uncontrollable by mortals.

Destiny goes around and around.
It never stops swirling.
Such an active force.

Mortal beings can't control what happens to them.
If it's negative or positive.
Destiny and fate are the same thing.
They intertwine when two people are in love.

Destiny carries people to their purposes in life.
It's a driving force.
Scientist can't figure it out.
It's the most complex thing second to the universe.

Vega Destiny Star

Dragon Slayer Sonnet

Terrible beast king in the sky flying
It takes a deep breath and blows out fire
Many brave knights are burned and dying
All have very bad wounds that are dire.

But in the distance still stands a tower
Inside is a mage that is sinister
He possesses great magical power
Since he's the magic minster.

He wants the dragon to defeat
Beast was killed by his death magic
Supper time, mage ate the dragon meat
To the peasants this was not tragic.

Today a villain is now a hero
It took him the effort level of zero.

Vega Destiny Star

Eclipse Of The Moon

The sins of man
Makes the gods mad
Two deities, brother and sister torn
Between gods and man

These two confront
Ready for battle
They start a war
A very bloody war
Blood spills in the heavens
at the darkness of night
The moon shines crimson
with all the strife

Brother and sister die
The moon turns a black color,
The color of mourning
Deities will be reborn
in the morning.

Vega Destiny Star

Failing To Succeed

An unexpected fall down into a valley.
A valley of deep sorrow.
Tears begin to burn my eyes.
Dark black hatred of myself fills my heart.
The word "LOSER", 'IDIOT', 'RETAIRD' enter my head with nonsense.
I have never failed in my life.
On the ground, I lie there wounded.
Bleeding in defeat.
I feel like I'm never going to recover from this.
I lie there for days.
Then I begin to pick myself up.
Realizing that I have a lot to learn.
That I should never give up.
I have lost a battle, but not a war.

Vega Destiny Star

Fall Leaves

I didn't expect you one bit.
The gods they brought us together.
Divine destiny did this.
The first time we meet I was on guard.
You were the encouraged me.
To be myself.
I never experienced true friendship, but you gave me a taste of true friendship.
I hungered more and more friendship.
You made me trust and put my guard down.
We never fought once
I can't believe you understood my loner nature.
In the zodiac we are a good match.
Over time we became to be inseparable.
Reminiscing on this I said that we will be friends for a long time.
That was the truth.
Even though you moved.
My heart was in shards.
As if someone dear died.
My life was in turmoil.
I just didn't know what to do.
You were the one to turn to.
We still keep in touch.
The distance made us closer.
You are only real friend I had.
I can search the only universe over two times.
