(001) In Waiting.....

Education in Kenya for the poor folk:
Nothing but, going with dragging legs,
Eager eyes, grieving minds and Empty stomachs...craving for
The 'Sole morsel' of the day
Free from their schools,
That too to be shared in their families
Where education is the means of ends
And a philosophy untold by forefathers....
We Indians can dream the same
When things happen in this way....
We import things when our farms are left barren
And farmers are left gaping for Better seeds....Or rebirth!

A poem dedicated to Sandhya SN and the poorfolk of the world....
