i might not be the best in poem writing but i try and i enjoy it for me i find myself and express myself in poetry cause poetry to me is my peace and i am in a world of my own in poem writing i enter a world of my own were i have control of what ever seems to happen and how it happens because its my own world its a place were no one judges me as my poems are things that have happened to me as well as its happened to people close to me so i write it in words to help those around the world so they know they are not alone

A Day Like No Other

Sitting alone with nothing to do My thoughts I tend to set free While my heart starts to long for you And my body begins to wish you were right beside me

You being close to my side becomes my greatest wish I than start to ponder for your gentle touch My lips wanting your passionate kiss
As my ears listen for those three words that mean so much

For today seems to be a day like no other Where all I seem to do is think of only you What tends to happen around me I have no bother?
As what you make me feel is my dream come true

A Hearts Song

In the silence of the night
Were the sky is lit up by the magical moon light I listen to the music were heart and mind play to the same beat
It is there in my own world were you I meet

Longing just for one last passionate kiss
This seems to be my hearts lifetime wish Missing that soft gently loving touch With feelings that mean so much

Than warmly you pull me near Whispering softly you tell me no longer I need to fear
As the love we share is completely true
And my life will never be without you

Gently your lips lock with mine
And our hearts and souls entwine Were we make that life time promise to be In the world of only you and me.

A Letter For Venice My Mother

You gave birth to us

Each a different year, month and date through you we have had the chance to be known in this world as you the one who was given the chance to give us life

Although you would of liked

To be there for us as much as you wanted to be

But circumstances never allowed it

But you never gave up trying your strength is beyond compare even in the darkest time when you wanted to give up u overcame it and never did

You are here for us now

Which means the world to us

So we taking this moment

To say thank you mommy you did an amazing job raising us we want to let you know

We love you endlessly

Your four angels heaven sent

So you may forever be blessed

In this game we play life

Each of us a different part

But as long as we have you

Our game of life

Has more wins than losses

As you are amazing

Our protector

Our guardian

Whom we proudly call mommy

A Lover's Confession

In your eyes I find myself completely lost Your gorgeous smile some how warms my heart To you I'd give my life no matter what the cost As long as no longer we so far apart

Close to YOU I am longing to be As a life without you I refuse to know You truly are the better half of me And every day my love for you tends to grow

With every gentle touch a greater desire And each passionate kiss a granted wish Where souls secretly begin to admire
As two bodies slowly and romantically start to entwine
When for sure I will steal another kiss Just to seal the deal when I make you only mine
And this my dear is a lover's true confession

A Lovers Song

If you only knew how much you mean to me if only through my eyes you could see how unique you truly are and how strong my love for you gets each new day you may not notice it or maybe you do but you keep it between your heart and you maybe one day you will let me know how much you truly love me as deep down in my heart i know i'll love you till the day we are no more

A Memory Only

the streets are silent no sound is heard only the gentle and calmness of the soft rains fall on the windows as I lay on my bed i intend to wonder where u r wat r u doing my mind finds no rest as i constantly keep thinking of ur beautiful baby face the magical colour of ur eyes as they sparkle and that gorgeous smile u hv as u look at me.
I touch my lips as the kiss u gave me still sits upon them your unique smell still in the air reminding me of the passion our bodies shared were i felt our souls become one never have i felt this way before all this in one night the feelings romance and passion how did it happen? why did it happen to me? all this is still unclear yet its well known my heart beat dooofff dooofff dooofff it continues the tune is familiar singing ur name over over over over and over again..... my heart continues to sing your name my heart beat fast and slow at the same time as i still feel your gentle touch over my entire body I begin to miss u and long for ur warm body against mine so we can share another special moment as we did the other night were the world around u and i only exists of us and it freezes for awhile as our bodies entwine and we build a ever lasting memory your soft lips i wish for once again as in all you've done and what you've said has reminded and made me feel that your world exist and consists of me alone as i continue to lay on my bed my eyes slowly close as i tend to dose of and fall deeply asleep in my dreams it is u i find and tell u hw much u mean to me and i couldnt help it but some how i fell inlove with u and a life with out u i dont want to know but all this is only but in a dream knowing for real u might not feel the same so my eyes closed a tear apon my cheeck falls as u are no more apart of me

I si and continue to dream of the happiness I once new when the world was made of only me and you.

A Message From The Heart

Sitting here I tend to wonder My mind and heart playing in tune
As for your love I strongly yearn Yet my thoughts you leave to ponder From here to the moon.

I keep wondering how your love I can earn Tell me please I need to know!
For you are my hearts desire Whom I love no matter what In so many ways I tried to show,

But you keep thinking I'm a liar And I can't take that As you are what I want, need And can't seem to live without If only you could open up your eyes

To see what you mean to me As what I feel for you is no lies Oh how I wish you could see That I love you endlessly.

A Poem For My Last Born Son

Dear Austin

Never did I imagine That heaven would send me another As I tried for so long But once again the heavens Herd my hearts song
And knew what was best for me So they blessed me again With a healthy baby boy Who is 9 months today How wonderful my life is to be Blessed with 4 beautiful boys To see wonderfully grow
So I want u to know I intend to be here for you and your Brothers till my life comes to an end I love you don't ever forget that and Remind your brothers too.

A Poem For My Son

To my son Daelen

Today I am truly blessed as I am Every other day
But today is your special day
As you turn 8 years old I pray that it goes your way
As to me you beyond more precious than any diamond, pearl or gold

I thank the heavens above for sparing you another year
So we may continue making memories with no end Yet as a mother I will always fear But for you I will always fend

No matter what may come My son my love my everything Mommy is here for you For now and for ever more
As you a gift so pure and true
I love you so much and way beyond more

A mommy I am to you Here to listen, to guide, to love,
And protect no matter what you go through and I will always be here for you no matter what as you are the most wonderful creation and gift from above who I intend to forever love.

For you and your brothers I would give my life
As I am blessed with each of you with your unique Love your smiles your hugs your kisses all that's my special granted wishes
So please don't ever change who you are cause you Are one of a kind unique in every way

I love you always remember that.

A Secret Room

in a room deep inside you will find a special feeling that i cant seem to hide as it gives life a new meaning the walls are bloody red yet it seems to be really comfortable and i cant seem to get this person out of my head making the ways of living really motivational in this place the secret im keeping is you and you are forever locked in my heart the key you will keep on seeking as i have felt this way from the start you may never know the way i feel about you and each day this emotion tends to grow my only wish is that you could see that you are my dream come true so as my note reaches its end please keep in mind you are my desire so to you this passionate kiss i send with a hope that i could become your everlasting fire

A Sissy To Boetie Poem

it's been 7 years john my dear brother since you joined our sweet mother in heaven above
you left behind all those you love and those who love you especially me venice your younger and only sister the one whos always loved you when everyone else pushed you away on your side I chose to stay

taken away
as I can't stop thinking of you and missing you each and every day so as I close my eyes to pray and remember your face
I know you in a better place
and always watching over me so thank you and know this I will and still love you always

yolandey breedt

A Special Moment

At night I lay in great wonder As I feel my hearts longing My thoughts filled of you in great ponder For the desire of your loving...

Silently my heart beats to a new romance
As I allow my feelings to take a chance To allow a different kind of love
That is sent on angel wings from heaven above

As I lay wondrously by your side Were the passion of feelings abide Tenderly a magical world I enter Where everything is sweet and tender Than softly I whisper to you My hearts song that seems to be true

yolandey breedt

A Special Pray

My lord my leader my keeper my creator Thou I shault not always know Nor understand what thy plan is for me May my cup with thee over flow With only ur blessings I see Reminding me that beside me u walk Guiding my path renewing my heart Anointing me with thy holy mark Taking my mountains in your name apart In your greatness we are free

The sick u heal
Those who r hungered u provide a meal
The sinners you tend to forgive In u all greatness we achieve For your love has no end
You are our father our doctor our adviser
And our dear and faithful friend Thank u for all you have done All you gonna do In Jesus name we pray
Amen

A Special Vegas Story

In a wooden furnished house you'll find the passion you seek.
As two concealed from the world choose to be Inside, a warm lit fireplace you can see.

Seated on a long cozy armchair two you'll find A forbidden romance starts to grow
As two with sparkled eyes, unexplained feelings tend to show.
The outside happenings completely out of mind.

Drawn to one another begins a great desire.
A man, a woman share a romantic kiss.
Where the romance of two set a everlasting fire,
As two bodies passionately entwine.

Granting that magical, desirable everlasting wish.
Invisible forever to the world they'll be.
Appearing and disappearing they'll now forever be free.

Time may go by but their passion stays strong,
As two heart's for eternity beat as one.
Now to end this silently, VEGAS WILL STAY VEGAS.

A World Of Wonder

What world do you find yourself in?
Where can one begin?

Is your world full of worry and stress?
Were you find everything a complete mess

Can your world be one of only sorrow and pain?
As for some reason you find nothing to gain

Or is your world full of greatness and wonder That makes your life filled with only fonder

So what world you living in
In which world do you choose to begin

Well for me I'm in a world of my own
A world of wonder

Abanded The Body Lies

Betrayed and taken by force, Wounded and cold the body lies.
No one around to hear the screams,
The desperate cry for help.

The body broken.
The spirit fading.
The heart slowly stops beating,
As they take their last breathe.

Never will their smiles be seen,
Or the joy in their eyes be known.
As those who lived a happy normal life,
Are taken with no other choice.

Beaten, Rapped, Bleeding.
To a unfair, undeserved and painful death.

Abortion

Hello mommy!
You don't know me yet But I'm growing in your tummy
I hear how you cry
I even understand your mind set

And I'm asking why?
Why you letting this doctor take me Don't I make you happy!

Can't you love me like I love you?
I promise I can do better! !
Please let me stay! ! ! !

Ouch oooooouch its hurting Mommy mommy mommmmy! ! ! ! ! ! !
Why you killing me?

And you don't even say goodbye
I still love you!
Even though you never gave me
The chance to show you How lucky I am to have you

Maybe my next mommy will love me better
And I become her wish come true
So she can love me as I love her

It hurt me that you didn't want me But you see
I'm looking forward to meeting my new mommy

I FORGIVE YOU!

Actions Of Love

Love is found in the smallest actions which means the greatest to a person

You just have to see it clearly and trust in it dearly and believe in it truly and honestly to know where to find it

It starts with a smile announced with a kiss and shown in the passion of intimacy

It can not easily die it has no way to lie and forever shared in two connected hearts

Like yours and mine that's beating as one which will be lost if one of us let go

So I am making that love vow to you forever I give myself One mind
One heart
One soul
One life
Til I am no more

So I end this message from my heart to remind you I intend to love you for eternity

You will stay my one and only I just wish that you to feel the same

I LOVE ONLY YOU please remember this for the rest of our life on this crazy earth together

Announced Fate

My eyes filled with a different fire
As my heart grows with an unknown desire Possessed by mixed emotions Giving into all the true devotions

As I start expressing all my fears With the cost of unseen tears While I realize this battle I have lost Softly I lay down now
For some reason death announced my vow

Gently some how I close my eyes
As I accepted my decided fate While my soul on angel's wings flies
And I have taken my last breathe My body alone on the soil lies As I come to know a life I once lived

Than as the wind blows Like dust i disappear

Autumn

Mother nature shows her presence
As the sun welcomes a new day
The grass kissed with a mist essence As something new is on its way With trees dressed in coloured leaves

The wind that gently undresses the trees With something new that perceives
The earth changing mother nature agrees That one season's beauty is temporary forgotten
A new seasons beauty is welcomed Autumn

Broke

Laughter and love Happiness and hope
All filled a heart once made of gold....
Trust and respect Guidance and care
All Lived in this place we once called home

Now threes Silence and ponder
As we wake alone Hunger and loneliness
As the laughter is gone

All we had now suddenly gone
Our house...our hearts...
Abandoned....broke
Weariness now fills us all
For the one who filled our souls...
Who took us in when we had nowhere to go...?

Now threes empty halls Were so alone...
Our house...our home...

But the memories are stained Pressed into stone
Can never be erased.....
Our house our home was once full....
His spirit lives, as his Soul moves on *

OUR HEARTS....our home Will forever stay strong*

Broken

When you look at me you think i have a perfect life i smile and you think i am always fine but if you look into my eyes you will find no spark if you took time to really look deeply you could find a heart thats broken and eyes constantly filled with tears as you become closer to me you'll see all my deepst fears and you will find a pretty face Which only knows pain in the end you'll see my smile is a well known mask hiding away my every true emotion from the world around me

Bruised Is Her Pure Beauty

Bruised is her body from head to toe, Her pure spirit damaged, Shattered is her heart.
What did she do to deserve such pain?

Her eyes constantly in tears,
Her smile grown dull,
As she continues living in deadly fears.
What did she do to deserve such pain?

She chooses to be concealed!
Hidden from it all Forgetting about her greater destiny Amongst us she roams.....

Invisible to the world she's grown in.
You continue to walk on by, yet her you don't see!
This broken and hurting woman in me....

Cold and weary she has become,
Because of the pain and suffering she's known!
Withdrawn from all those who truly care
She continues to stay unknown.

She is stronger than you think.
One day when she's finally healed,
She will be noticed for her pure beauty again.

Can't Let You Ever Go

Your love is true
I can't see a life Without you

Our love has no end
I know it's what heaven Intended to send

It's the life I have chosen to be
AND I'm thankful
For all the good Things you've given me

AND I need you to know That I'm never Letting you go

As my love for you Is like no other before AND I'm glad you Chose me above Them all I love you mwa

Cold Is The Soul Alone

Cold is the soul
As her body lay stiff Bare and alone
As she's abandoned all of her once known strength...

Broken and lost Wounds can't be repaired
As the girl once known Is now forgotten
In the aching cold mist...

Numb to the core Fingers lost, wrists slit Eyes aware but turned to stone As she lay there dead Beaten and all alone...

Night wind howling
The forest no home

Daelen, Martin, Liam And Austin

Angels On earth
To 4 of them I gave birth How blessed I am
That they chose me
Daelen, Martin, Liam and Austin
You 4 have set My way of love free
AND gave my life
A far better meaning I love you boys
More than you know I'm so happy To have this gift
To see you angels grow

Dead Is My Love

Long has it been forgotten!
A life of passion and romance i once knew Were love magically grew And never was there a dull moment

But now no longer are my eyes filled with desire When I see a guy I dream about Now my heart no longer burns like an undying fire How could I all of a sudden grow so cold?

Were did I go wrong
Was it all the pain I've been through?
Or was it all those that I caused pain Why is that feeling I once knew gone

Is it normal am I the one to blame Am I the loser in this love game!
I need to know it's driving me insane Can romance and passion really fade away?

Oh how I long to feel that love again With every passionate kiss a granted wish How I desire to feel that forgotten love I knew Where I felt loved each and every day

And passion and romance filled my soul and heart
As a love between two people kept on growing strong And nothing could ever take them apart
How I miss all of that as now dead is my feeling of love.

Delusional

Your touch so gentle and magical Undesirable is the feeling it gives me Your eyes seem to see right through who I am Warm and rational are the emotions deep within

As the bond between us grows stronger Desirable is our passion as we kiss Consealed from the world around us As we embraced by our special romance

With all time to spare
Each of us a everlasting love we have to generously share Connecting two purified spirits intensively Becoming a delusion to all those we know

Destiny

Light of my life,
So calm and peaceful in every way, Magically full of faith and hope you tend to strive,
Making a fresh new start to the dawn of each day, Gently luck you send a pone angels wings, Giving me the strength & courage to keep me going strong, Taking hold of all the unbreakable strings, Balancing equally all the right and all the wrong, Wonderfully close to me you choose to be,
Lady destiny is what I call you.

Emotion

As our eyes passionately meet,
For a moment as one our hearts beat,
And the world magically fades away
Were all our problems tend to go astray,
That loving smile you have somehow completes me Allowing me to set my feelings free Somehow in all you do Makes me realize I've fallen for you.

Empty Is The Life

Broken is a heart Unable to mend
As a love once felt is forgotten

Ripped is a soul Impossible to be fixed For a love once lived is no more

Dead is the dream once known Its unseen in the light Were a love once strong is no longer shown Empty is a life

To dead to be filled
As a love that was just packed up and left without saying goodbye

Scard are the lips
With no working band aid
For a love once kept turns deep in darkness not to be found

Wounded is the body
That cant be healed
Were a love once connected has lost signal permently

No longer is love felt and expressed because it does not exists

yolandey breedt

Fate The Unknown

as strangers eyes romantically meet were two different hearts to the same tune beat as two unknown smiles give a shy hi were two connected souls fly upon a different sky as two strangers opposite personalities and drawn attractions some how seduce each other to unknown satisfactions as body, mind, soul and heart are one competing one another in a different direction while this is all felt and done without a word they can mention two strangers with a connection so strong making it clear that what is felt is singing to the same kind of song gently and slowly feelings tend to deeply grow as two strangers in their eyes begin to show now two strangers to each other are known close together their love is strongly forever grown calmly two strangers become passionately meant to be as together their feelings are unexplainably emotionally set free two strangers take on each new challenge were their love for each other keeps a stable balance and every given and taken kiss becoming their every longing, desirable and granted wish as two strangers now make their lifetime promise to forever hold the key to each others heart making it impossible for any body to take them apart thus ends the story of two unknown strangers who live an eternity together cause that was the decision that fate announced upon them.

Feelings Deep Within each night my pillow is wet with tears because of all my unknown fears my heart feels all the pain that's driving my mind insane as I try to hold onto all things we've been through each tear I shed a different meaning from our great magical beginning that amazing day we met to me it felt my life has finally found way to set I think of all the bad things that happened along the way yet for some reason through all that you chose to stay

I have not made it easy for you it's true nor have you made it easy for me too but for some reason we always seem to pull through and now I face the terror of once again losing you so I put all my might in this fight as I still have faith in you and me even though part of you feels it's not ment to be the other part I know seems to disagree our love has brought us thus far it's been a really hard road to take yet we made that promising vow(through the good times and bad times till death do us part) no one said it was going to be easy but I know we can make it once again as you still the great deal that fills my heart you may not know it but please trust this I still love you more than ever and I can't see myself with anther as you are the only one my heart tends to desire you are that non stop deep burning fire all I do now is prey that heaven above can make you see it the same way I do as I choose no life without you and I ask heaven to make you see it too

I love you Wayne Martin share please feel it, act on it and show it than you will see how I change so stop fighting against it and start fighting for it with me and you will see how happy life will be.

Fire Of Anger

Deep inside of me a fire of anger burns
This fire of anger yearns

This fire of anger is my shield It's become my daily need

It's making my heart and soul bleed
This fire of anger has taken over all of me

It's slowly becoming my desire Keeping my mind burning like fire

It's that voice inside me that just wants to scream
This fire of anger is haunting my every dream

It's like a deep secret hidden, unknown one I can't seem to find Making all I once felt, trusted and loved slowly fade away

For My Daughter

5 November 1982

You were sent to me

From heaven above

My angel to forever love

So pure and true

I'm grateful that heaven sent you

My little girl you became

Such a beautiful woman

Time went by so fast

But our moments we share will always last

Today u are 35 and still Remain my little girl

I love u so

How magical it was to See how beautiful u intended to grow

Don't change who u are

As u are unique and one of a kind my only daughter

Don't ever forget mommy

Loves u more than ever

Thank you for choosing me to be ur mother

I couldn't ask for better than u

I love you always

Mommy

yolandey breedt

For My Son

To martin my son

You are 6 years old And your heart is small but its pure gold
As in your eyes I see you have lots of love Which I know comes from heaven above
To be given to me as a reminder of Gods blessings That comes each and every day that he spares you

You have a love that's pure and true
Which I can feel every time you give me A hug and a kiss out of the blue To brighten up my day u have a beautiful smile That makes being your mommy worth while

Your talking non stop drives me sometimes Insane
But its keeps me entertained
I am thankful that god blessed me with you
And I give my life any dayfor you and your brothers I love you please never change who you are As you are special and unique.

For Ouma Joey 28/01/1939 Til 17/04/2017

In die wereld het die Here jou gebring Om almal se harte te laat sing Jy was en is nog steeds en sal altyd wees

N goeie ma Die beste ouma
En n wonderlike vriendin

Wat altyd n hart vol liefde gebring Met alles wat jy gedoen En nou saam die Engele in die hemel gaan jy sing

Vir n rukkie was jy vir ons geleen Nou in die hemel is jy op geneem Vir jou gaan ons baie verlang Maar in ons harte en gedagtes lag en hardloop ons nog baie saam

Ons is baie lief vir jou Alles wat jy ons geleer sal ons onthou Tot die dag wat ons weer ontmoet Vloei jy baie sterk in ons bloed

Dankie liewe ma, ouma en vriendin Mag jy nou in vrede rus Want al jou pyn het nou verdwyn

Forever Happy

I may be out of sight no longer can u touch and hold me sorry I couldn't win this fight but now I am free and can whatch over you were ever u may go and be by your side in all u go through yes I didt want to leave u and make u feel blue but my dears think of it like so now I am released from all my fears

I found my peace but I want u to know I will love u forever more and thank you for the time we had the fights when u made me mad the hugs and kisses we shared that kept me glad thank you for all the gud memories and they wil live on now we can never depart cause I found my home in each and everyone's heart were I can forever be happy

yolandey breedt

Forever I Give To U

I give you my heart i promise you my hand so our love may never drift apart today im still inlove with you as much as i was the first day i layed eyes apon you each moment we share our memories become stronger our love grows deeper making me want to love you longer my thoughts filled with you my heart desiring only you my body longing to feel all of you against me my lips wishing to touch yours my soul wants to feel the connection were we become one sharing with you each moment something new from now until forever and we are no more may our love keep pulling us through what ever comes our way making our love get stronger and deeper forever being something we treasure

Friends Forever

you care for me deeply i know and so our friendship tends to grow in your eyes all the love i see all the feelings you going through are because of me deep in your heart is my special place to hide were in all your great care i can abide on wings of angels our friendship is our gain together u and i can destroy our past pain your heart good and pure thats why my friend you are forsure nothing can replace the friendship bond grown between you and i and no way will it ever die together we build a friendship dream taking on every strong killing stream making our friendship strong and the best when it all ends so i make this lifetime promise that forever we shall be friends as to me you mean the world because you noticed me and picked me to be your friend so i write this to my special friend, yes im writing it to you saying thank you for making me your life long friend.

and those who love you especially me your younger sister
on your side I chose to stay

as I can't stop thinking of you and missing you each and every day
so thank you and know I will still always love you

From Darkness To Light

My mind, My heart my soul gone blind Trapped in a world unknown to mankind Locked up in every emotion For i have forgotten my devotion I can't see nor can i feel Broken am I with no hope to heal

Silence my thoughts start to wonder What is my place on this earth I ponder Alone I roam
In this place of the unknown Now my thoughts are to take my own life
As to the world yonder I am a lowlife

Giving up on all I have done
It seem once again Satan has won
To the darkness I begin to flee
But jus before I disappear completely A bright light I all of a sudden tend to see Reaching it's hands to me Pulling me out of the darkness And into the glorious light
All my negativeturns positive

For i have someone that never gives up on me Who loves me endlessly

How stubborn was I to forget My negativity I regret

In positivityI choose to live For someone has a greater plan for me
With a love that's endless

MY LORD, MY SAVIOUR I THANK THEE FOR HELPING SOMEONE LIKE ME AND FOR PULLING ME ONCE AGAIN THROUGH THE NEGATIVITYAND FOR SENDING THAT GUARDIAN TO LOOK OUT FOR ME

I LOVE YOU FOR ETERNITY

Happy Anniversary

My sweet heart
My love
I THANK the heavens
For our love has Never to part As today is Our special day
We have come along way 14years married 15years together
I am grateful you Chose me How wonderful our life Is to be
For many more years
To come
I love you
Your wife

6 years ago
How lucky I am To have seen how beautiful you grow
You are my 1st love I'm thankful to the heavens
To have been blessed with Such a special angel With a heart so pure Mommy's dream come true
And I intend to protect AND forever love you Happy birthday my little boy May we have many more memories and years to share

I Am Gonna Miss You

I might of not been able to say the things I wanted to or done the things I needed to my heart still hurts like it should I might of not given the care I should of but I am still a part of you and I have feelings to thou you may not be here no more I want u to know I never stopped loving you cause you were a part of me to and deffently I am gonna forever miss you.

I Am The Eagle

As an eagle I shall soar While the Lord the wind shall be Guiding me protecting me and more With only greatness to see

The Lord the wind Me the eagle
Together we will be till the end Defeating all that is evil

The Lord my great friend
My protector, My guardian, My creator U the wind I am the eagle
As I am chosen as one of your people

So I shall soar like the eagle With you as my wind guiding my flight For u Lord are truly regal And full of love, hope, joy, Faith and might

I am yours! do with me as you incline Lord I choose to walk on your path line My salvation I find in you As all you do is pure and true

I love thee
As much as you love me.

I Cant See You But I Know You There

I cant see you but I know you there

I may not see you but I know you there as I feel you warmth in the air although you out of sight u never out of mind your kisses in the suns ray I find are strong and I know u smiling apon me I love and miss you its true but for some reason I know you are free and you watching forever over me

yolandey breedt

I Need To Know

Deep with in me a desire grows Getting stronger each time I look at you There's something in you I intend to admire It's a feeling that constantly through my body flows This emotion in me, what can I do?
As each time you look at me you become my wanted desire

What is this feeling I feel when I look at you Where the world around me grows so still And in some way, why does my heart skip a beat?
Are you becoming my every dream come true?
Is it true that you becoming my strong will?

What is this that I feel?
And do you feel the same way?
Can something like this feel so real?
As it keeps on getting stronger each day

Have I become the fool of being in love?
Tell me I need to know!
Why can't I seem to find away to let you go?
Am I truly the first to fall!

Is there some chance that you can feel it!
Or is it a one way street give or take!
What is the cost?
Am I the one lost!
Or are there others too!
I need to know.

If Only

if only i knew what your mind was saying and understood what your heart was feeling than i would not have to look into your eyes and wonder if you feel what i do i may not know what i wish i knew as you leave me constantly fighting with all the voices in my head and all the emotions in my heart that keeps me wondering if only if only if only if only i really knew what you were feeling

In A Moment Of Nature

I walk through the stillness of the valley
With the wind brushing gently through my hair
In my surroundings natures magical sounds I hear And silenced is my hearts deepest fear
In my soul I sense peace taking over me As through new views natures beauty I see

As I continue in the stillness
My mind begins to wonder to a world I call my own Were the winds whispers softly in my ears?
And all natures' songs can be heard It is there were I find my true self And magically for a moment all my troubles fade

yolandey breedt

In Darkness I Live

Locked away from the world i know in a dark room with chains and bolts you'll find me hidden in a corner and scared where love no longer has a existence the key to the door can only be found by a heart pure and true who would be my rescuer to bring me back to the light were my love can be restored as its been long forgotten.

In My Womb

In my womb u began to grow

With no clue of the world we know

U became Gods greatest gift 2me

I would have it no other way u see

1979 September 27th was my best day

When I held u in my arms

For the first time

It touched every part of my heart

And I knew that moment

Nothing would take us apart

Time went by so fast our moments together wish is had more time to last

U became a wonderful man & u are an awesome son

I love u dearly more than u will ever know

Thank u for being u don't ever change who u are as u one of a kind

& I thank God he sent u to me

I love u don't ever forget that

Love momy

In Time

When our eyes meet we connect at the right time as our hearts passionately in the same tune beat and hopefully in time you may realise how much you truly mean to me when our lips touch our souls unite when we make love our bodies become one than maybe in time you will realise our love was ment to be

yolandey breedt

Jolly Time

All size boxes rapped in all kinds of colorful paper Each with a name what a jolly jolly time surprised faces priceless smiles eyes that sparkle with joy how jolly jolly that time had to be which ment the world to me what a jolly jolly christmas it was 2013

Letter To The Heart

dear heart how much hurt can u indulge? before u break, and you feel nothing anymore, cause everything you work for somehow is never good enough, and no matter what you do and live for seems a waste of time.

How do you teach yourself to let go?

cause its something you can never beat no matter what you do!
why do you keep fighting this battle, you loose continuesly why do you still keep at it even though it drains the life out of you, why do you have faith it will all work out, how do you trust is so easily just to find yourself hurting again, why do you damage yourself so why don't you just let it go? why you holding on when what you truly feel is felt by only you! why why why do you damage yourself so? why do trust that what you feel will be felt by another too, you get pushed away broken down, beaten by hurtful words yet you still choose to love unconditionally, how do you do that why do you do that i guess i will never know why you still keep beating strong.

Life

Life has a strange way to make you learn As there's always something your heart tends to yearn Sometimes all you desire long for & dream Will keep you swimming up a river stream Yet every day is a fresh new start And yet it goes by so fast like the beat of a heart Life is full of ups and downs It's what you make of it that counts, What you choose to do,
Give or take will, make or break you So enjoy life take it day by day As you'll never know if tomorrow ever comes.

Long Life Friends

Today may not be as we planed but tomorrow will be a new start to plan better ur heart may be broken but in time it will mend and make u stronger in the end so smile even for awhile so the world can see that tomorrow will be a better day most defiantly so keep in mind that im here no matter what your life long friend till the end

Love In The Darkness

As night falls
Were the moon is the only light known Gently as i lay my head to dream
All my emotions slowly grown The twinkle of love in my eyes are shown

As i think of you alone Tender is the darkness I see a shooting star
I make my hearts wish

Were my lips long for your romance kiss
And my soul your unclothed body

Becoming my unexplained desire Setting new kinds of emotions Alight like a undieing fire

The more i think of you
The deeper my dream tends to go The stronger my feelings grow
The more i wish you were near So i can make passionate love to you

So that dream of mine
Can come true Slowly our passion and romance entwine When the love in darkness makes you only mine

yolandey breedt

Loving Only You

The magical color of your eyes
The romance in every kiss Giving me a stomach filled with butterflies Granting my every wish

The gentleness of your touch
The passionate way of making love
Making me believe you were sent from heaven above

The comfort of you holding me With a love that feels so strong Making two people meant to be In a world where nothing can go wrong

A life time we share Till death do us apart With so little time to spare With you forever in my heart

A promise I make All these feelings are true Nothing I intend to fake As I truly love you.

Melissa Vanessa Massyn

Angel Melissa Vanessa Massyn

Born into this world 21 August 2003 Taken away that very same day
Why it happened only the heavens may know
AND although it was a short time of knowing you AND I never got to see how beautiful you would grow
I want you to know my little angel Nana still constantly thinks of you AND I have never stopped loving you I intend to keep you for always locked in my heart Till the day we happen to meet again For now I know you watching and smiling over me AND I don't intend to let that go We shall meet again my angel who would of been 14 years old today
I can just imagine what a beautiful young girl you would be I love you always and forever my angel Melissa Vanessa From your nana

Miss U

Its been over a year since u left us Yet your voice one more time i want to hear If only we had one last moment to spare
So I could listern to the wisdom that u use to share

I long for one last hug to comfort me
As I set all my worries free If only there was one last day Theres so many things I'd love to say

I miss you every single day and night Especially those words I LOVE YOU, SWEET DREAMS AND SLEEP TIGHT although u are no more, I LOVE YOU STILL I know that one day we'll meet again But for now your presence in my heart will forever remain

yolandey breedt

Mommy

When you gave birth to me There's a lot you didn't know You didn't know how my life would be Or how fast I was going to grow
So you just raised me with lots of love With the guidance and grace of above

And as great as a new mother should Even though you didn't know much You did an amazing job raising me (which is a full time job)
It might of not turned out the way you wanted it to Mommy you did your best, I hope that you can see Think of all the things you went through And how strong its made you

Mommy you are the worlds greatest mother
I thank God that he gave me the choice to choose you I wouldn't ask for no other

As you to me is the greatest mother, friend and protector, My own earth angel that's what you are I wrote this to remind you that I love you And to thank you for being the greatest mommy that you are.

My Ambition

My ambition in all I do take it on with pride
NO MATTER WHAT LIFE GIVES OUT TO ME OR HOW HARD IT MAYBE I ENJOY THE RIDE

While we will NEVER KNOW IF TOMORROW WILL EVER Come Today is the day I take flight and Soar in the sky like Falcon

As I start to walk on my path of great freedom Forgetting what my past may hold Remembering that my life is more valuable than any Dime or gold Finally I know my true ambition and I set it free

As I recognize the deep and true person I can be With pride upon my heart I announce the real me ALWAYS GOING OUT OF MY WAY GIVING MY BEST IN ALL I DO
Keeping in control if anything should happen to me or you

But preventing whatever maybe as well as I know As envious people in my own world start to grow
To me those people can bring no harm Because of my own way to magically charm

yolandey breedt

My Big Brother

As the sun ray kisses my cheek Your warmth I still feel As the birds sing your favorite song I hear As the wind blows
Your voice I hear as you whisper in my ear SISTER I AM STILL HERE AND I LOVE YOU DEARLY

When u walk im beside you If u cry I'm the hankie that whipes your tears
I still hear your fears
So I want u to know

SISTER I'm still here
Listern closely and you'll feel me in all you do I am beside you never to leave u
As I'm not your heavy I'm your big brother.

My Dad

You are a wonderful dad
And my best friend
Even though at times you make me very mad
I know for me you'd fight till the end

At times it may seem I never listen to what you say You never seemed to give up on me Your words of wisdom always put me on the right way And you've taught me from girl to what a woman should be

I might of used these words very few But my dad I want you to know I really do love you

My Dad's Memory For 31/03/2017

(31/03/2017)

Four years it is today Since u were taken away
On wings of an angel Since u been gone apart of ourself became unstable

Yes we know u gone
And it's been quite long Our broken hearts still struggles to mend Seemingly our pain and longing can't find end

We miss u a lot it's true Life is empty without u
As u still a very strong part of us Although ur body is dust Ur spirit still roaming our hearts and minds While ur memory still magically shines

U may be out of sight
But we still love u with all our might We bound to meet u forsure again Than at last lost shall be our pain

For now ur memory still will remain Loved for always by us all Our dad, brother and our best friend.

My Day Of Jugdement

Brought here to the door of higher power Strangely they look at me What I did wrong is unkown

Jugdement has not even begun!
Unknown are these faces, as I look at them.
Their eyes silently shouting guilty! ! !
For what I'm guilty is yet to be known.

Uncertain of their thoughts, I smile
I have no clue what is to happen.
My friendliness un noticed!
Surrounded am I by serious faces.

Walking towards my seat,
All eyes on me the special prize!
For heaven or hell
The room in silence.....
As we await the judge's appearance.

The judge's enter, all rise to attention Everyone seated, Jugdement begins.....
Looking back to all I've done My pure and unpure divided.

My life scale balanced.
Confused are all the faces An arguement outrages the silence!
Two judge's now deciding my final fate.

My Dream Come True

In your eyes I see a light a light that's unknown to the world to see Yet its become much clear to me.

for your love im willing to fight Its your touch I long to feel As u do crazy things to my heart

That leaves me to wonder are u the real deal
The long forgotten missing part Or is it all still but a dream

How difficult it all may seam A love so hard to find Yet constantly flowing through my mind
Tell me I need to know
Should I hold on or just let go!

Nope I will tell u instead I intend to fight till the end People fought against our love
But it was sent from heaven above

They said a beauty can never love a beast
But guess what look at us now Our love growing stronger with every breathe every day
I would have my life in no other way I loved u yesterday today and forever more for as long as this earth my exists u are forever my love come true.

My Funky Aunty

My life as I know it to be Never have I met someone as great as thee You so much fun to be around Knowing u a new way of living I have found

You touch lives all around you With a greatness pure and true
How blessed I am that the heavens put u in my life
As my wonderful aunty my special angel One of a kind and a unique kind of magical

Truly u amazing and wonderful all things positive With a gift to see life in a different prospective

How lucky I am to call u aunty
If I had one word to describe u
It would be u are truly jaunty
I love u endlessly Words from my heart spoken sincerely
You are my funky aunty.

My Memory

I am in the year 2003
When heaven sent this Angel to me
On the 21 August How lucky I knew I had to be

As I looked into those beautiful eyes
My heart said Melissa is your name Most definitely

That day was a moment I spared
And a memory I treasure till this day
As its there and then this bond we shared A bond unbreakable and in replaceable and Never ending

Thou the time we shared was not as long As I hoped it was I'm glad for that moment heaven sent such A beautiful angel from above for me to love??

You would of been twelve this year Even though I can't see or feel or touch you I know that in heaven you watching over me And everyone else that you love and that had A chance to love you for that moment

I just want you to know I love you more Each day my sweet baby angel girl
And you will always be a very special part of me I miss you a lot more than you know And I love you for now and for always.

My Promise To You

To you I choose to give my heart
My soul is yours too Forever I want to spend with only you

Everything that I am I promise to only you All these words im saying are from deep with in so they are true

I belong and love only you What you choose to do I will always stand by you because my heart chose to love only 1 and that 1 is you always remember that ?

My Special Place

A place to me that truly matters Is where his ashes I scattered Beyond the rocks at sea Where the waves clash beautifully free

As I stand in the water peace fills my heart and mind With my eyes closed his presence I feel and tend to find

As the waves clash against the rocks
All the things of this world he magically blocks
And for a moment I feel complete Until my eyes open and reality I happen to greet

For he is no longer in our midsts
It's been four years now and he is still strongly missed.

My Stupid Poem

Sexy I may never be But that's something that's never bothered me

My mind in tune! YEAH RIGHT!
As I don't go out to pick a fight

Looks I might never have But as for personality, YES MAKES ME BRAVE!

To take a chance in all I do, MMMMM!
Well it's worked because that's why I still have you

If you like call me miss way to silly
As this poem is how I found my sweet heart Billy

My Thoughts Of A Mother

What is a mother Well to me my mommy is an angel sent from heaven put on this earth to love me like no one else ever can to guide me to choose correctly to protect me from bad to be my best friend to support me in choices and to comfort me in sorrows most important to teach me so I may be wiser to enter this world with eyes wide open to me a mother is the greatest gift from God as she is one person but plays the role of many and she is all I have and I love her more than life itself as u can't ever get anther she is one of a kind

My Thoughts Of Love

my eyes filled with desire as my heart cries for a long forgotten fire a smooth smile of warmth a gentle touch of care were love was in the air

a passionate kiss granting that everlasting wish as a romance felt beyond compare this use to be well known to me but now all is gone making me change who I use to be

Never Letting You Go

A love that is true Is what I feel When I'm with you

A love with no end That can only be What heaven intended to send

It's A great way of life I've chosen to be Because of all the good Things you've given me

AND I want you to know That baby I'm never Letting you go

As I love you like No other before
Thank you for choosing Me above them all

Nothing Else But Pain

In darkness alone and affraid lives awounded and scard soul cold and black the heart has grown pain and sorrow fill the body all is forgotten everything a faded memory slowly the world is caving in all is getting darker and colder wounds and scars growing deeper as love slowly becomes no more the soul is colder the heart darker broken are the memories love learns to be no more torn is the heart as love once felt becomes completely lost and forgotton leaving your heart black and cold leaving pain and sorrow in control making you unable to ever feel again hidden you stay from the world So you never have to be hurt again

yolandey breedt

Only Time Will Tell

alone i sit with my thoughts a ponder as my eyes around tend to wonder while i look at the world in anther sight wondering why everyone i see seems to have lost the aura of light up to the sky i gaze to the creator above i embrace with words of the heart in silence i start with so many questions at request each question asked yet unanswered at immediate affect all im hearing from the voice inside

'my child in me you need to begin to abide so set your thoughts aside as i leave you to this note!
only time will tell!
but know this, my time is not your time and your time is not mine all you seek shall arrive at the right time as i know whats best for you. so be patient and see your answers you'll find if you trust in me.

i say it again only time will tell' so i sigh and begin to patiently wait. keeping in mind my creator knows best so i put my thoughts to rest.

Our Nation

Today I see more than one nation A nation that comes together as one No matter what the situation
They stand together they fall together Each with their chosen destination
And a similar way of celebration Hand in hand they thrive to stand Each with a unique gift to give to the nation

My home my hope my stand This land is my home
For when i need time alone
And time with my family and friends I will take my own stand To fight for this land Till the world ends

My hope my home my joy my pride In this land my gift I tend to abide I know the side I choose to be on Now its time to choose your side

My hope my home my pride
This land is my home
Where all nations come together To fight as one combination Taking on every challenged situation

This is our home our joy
Our pain our sorrows Always hoping for better tommorows

yolandey breedt

Passion

My heart is longing for a feeling thats long forgotten my lips wants the sweet taste of your kiss that takes me to a world of the unknown were there is only room for you and I Where we make love from dust to dawn as we share a life time of memories
till the day we are no more our love will keep growing strong....

Poem For Mommy Birthday 14march 2017

You are 50 years old today Yet you look only 20 I might say You wear your age extremely well What is your secret I swear I won't tell

How lucky I am you gave me life Your the one who taught me how to be a good wife You even taught me the understanding of a friend Who will help were I can till the very end

You've shown me the joys of being a daughter as well as a mother Giving me hope to go on without any bother Teaching me my strength and over coming my weakness
As well as showing me the heart of forgiveness

So I end my little rhym
Thank you mommy for always being there I will love you till the end of time

Poem For My Youngest Son

Dear: liam

As you are my special angel
I want you to know my heart broke in more than two When I was busy loosing you

In labor with lots of blood lost Your heart beat slowly fading away
As in that hospital bed I lay Tears in my eyes I begin to pray

If Giving my life was the cost So you may be spared Yes I was scared as the heaven knew what was best and both of us were spared Greatful I am as the heavens herd me Because You are 5months old today And as healthy and beautiful as you should be

My little worrier and protector
I love you more than youll ever know
And I intend to make it known As you continue to wonderfully grow

I am truly blessed to have you and your brothers in my life So I am gonna love and protect You 3 boys with all i got no matter what I end this poem by saying Thank you for choosing me To be your earth angel

Sadly You Are Missed

?Anther year gone by anther birthday missed ?
yet your presence is still ??strong around us I feel you every where I roam?? your voice I hear in every song I listen to ?

I even feel your ? love and calmness when I'm at home so even thou you are no longer with us in flesh?
your spirit is amongst us extremely strong?
even thou we may not see you by sight ?

your love is still shown in each of your grandchildren ? and childrens eyes
? and you even known by the care of all your family members? so you see truely you are missed yet your memory forever will remain?

till our paths cross again we love you ?daddy?
you were a good brother, husband, uncle, friend and a awesome grandfather and ?the worlds greatest dad?

Secrets

We live in two different worlds
But together our worlds become one Those around us don't understand Because we have our own language

Even though our words are few In our eyes are endless stories Our actions are different But our minds keep the same secrets

Although we are two different people Our hearts beat to the same melody
We have different desires
But we share the same dream

To feel and understand that special emotion we call love
So we can share it with that one special person in our life Who understands everything about us the good and the bad?
And who will never give up on what we built together

Short Messages

As you lay peacefully asleep in a magical place U tend to dream I send the kisses Of the angels on the wings of a dove
To protect and cover you with all my love Take care sweet dreams & remember I will love you always

In your eyes I find my strength to get up each new Day to take on every new challenge that comes my way
In your touch I find my reason for giving love A second chance with all my words that Mean so much in every passionate kiss I find my everlasting wish You mean the world to me
So I know our love is meant to be

Angels from heaven above Sending kisses & hugs on the wings of doves Protecting all those that I truly love Guiding them from wrong 2 right Watching over their every move Reminding them every day That to me they mean the world Making sure they always know How special they truly are So thank u angels I appreciate your help These people dear to me & deep in my heart Are the ones I love & can't live without?

Sister Forever

Sisters for life what does that mean

We may not have the same mother and father But to me thats no bother

We may not share the same dreams or seen the same streams but to me well that alright coz together we are the winning fight

We have felt the same hurts you know what I mean

You have become an important part of my life as well as a great part of me

You got that special part in my heart And its glued stamped ect Thats unable to ever depart

You my life long friend And im here for you till the very end In all you do and for all you go through Im reminding you that my sister for life you'll always be

Yes my dear never fear I have a sisterly love for you from my heart pure and true my sister I love you

We are truely sisters for life?

Spare Of The Moment

today it may seem nothing is going like it should a heart may be still broken but in time this broken heart Will be mended but even though it all has ended the scar wil remain as time goes by slowly the scars will fade all you have to do is smile and tel yourself that all wil be well and soon all wil be normal again its only a matter of time when all things come to those who patiently intend to wait just remember that i am always here and i love you lots so you wil find calmness and peace cause my love is much stronger than any problem and much deeper than any sea cause its pure and comes from the heart

Still In The Darkness I Lay

As I lay silently in the darkness
I enter a world of the unknown Around me I hear that silent song Were a love is slowly grown

As passion fulfills my every desire Silent is my song silent is my song
As deep within me I'm warmed by a calming fire
As I feel your gentle touch

Gently in my ears you whisper soothing words
And so my song become my hearts melody Were I find myself lost in a world of you and me
As I begin to build you as part of my life's remedy

Silent is my song silent is my song
As you become my every dream come true Were I lay still in the darkness Constantly thinking of only you.

Take Time To Notice

In my eyes you might find Unseen emotions but only if you look deeply As my soul can reveal what I truly feel Speaking with you with not a single lie

When you look at me you will see A smile that tells you I'm fine But deep in my wounded heart there are unnoticed emotions Where there is a lot I intend to hide

If you had to gently touch me
You could help set my every emotion free With one passionate kiss that could make everything right Only if you knew how you truly make me feel

Deep inside there are so many things I would say Because of how you would make me feel But to you I can never reveal Any emotion as you don't notice me

To you I don't exist I'm invisible So than I guess you will never really know How strong my feelings for you tend to grow
As to you I'm a no body

Even though it hurts me
To know that I would make you happy In more than one way
If only you could take the time and notice me.

The Mystery Of Love

the beauty of the colour of ur eyes with one amazing powerful sparkled glance i am binded by ur magical charm the gorgous way u tend to smile takes me to anther world in a deep trance i am under a spell i know wont cause me harm were i still keep wondering about ur unexplained mystery the gentle and romantic way u touch me completes me and sets my hidden emotion free were i realise to me u are more than a friend calm are my thoughts as i think of only u my heart beating to its own tune as it sings ur name permently i find my self lost in the ways of u as i explore every part of u accepting that to me everything about u is my unending and everlasting dream come true

The Pretender

To the world they see only what they want a pretty face, magical eyes and a wonderous smile they see a life of perfection but they dont really know the darkness hidden deep within the wounded soul and the broken heart as they never take time to truely see the chains that i cant seem to break free so in the end they just walk on by pretending they know me when truely they dont know who i really am.

The Unanswered Question

When you look at me What do you truly see?
Am I the one roaming your every fantasy?
Or am I the one who will never be!

Do I some how fulfill your every need Or do you see me as the desire to your greed,
In some way do I complete you?
Am I the person you can't see through?

Can I be the friend you trust?
Or do you look at me with eyes of lust?
Was I the reason for your dream come true?
Do you see me as the one who will break your heart in two?

So tell me what do you see?
How can you set your emotions free?
Can I be your first passionate kiss?
To grant your every wish

Am I that hidden desire?
Willing to make your heart beat like a deadly fire Awakening a new type of passion and romance Being that taken and given chance

Once again when you look at me What can you truly see?
So ends the question Of a hearts unknown confession!

Thoughts Of You

Every day that goes by There's not a single dull moment with you You've become my daily strength Because of all the silly things you do

Somehow you bring out the best in me Your magical smile becomes my emotional comfort Teaching me the way life should be Your name beating strongly in my heart

Not a moment goes by without you in my thoughts Slowly you become my only desire In your eyes I see a world where we secretly meet Were the passion of us is burning like a everlasting fire

My life without you I never want to know As you are that one person I have been waiting for Sent to me by the Gods above Put on this earth for me to always love

Three Years Today My Owe My

another year since you passed I wish for one last moment to share and since your care

I know you not coming home soon as you are in a better place but you still dearly missed so I close my eyes shed tears as I remember your face with eyes closed

I live in the moment of your dear memory and reminded I am of your great love that you gave and I thank the heavens for choosing you to be my dad

so I say it out loud even though you no longer here I still love and think of you every day I love you my dear Dad and miss you but I know you still watching over me thank you

To My Special Dad

the 16th December 2009 you were taken away I was only but a child of eight when you met your final fate it broke my heart in tiny pieces the day I found out you were no more and never coming back home which made me feel I was all alone

I still feel sort of alone so I close my eyes and remember your smiling face and realise you in a better place even thou I miss you so I'm finding it hard to let you go but I know you always watching over me so I say I really love you which I am sure you already know thank you for being my special dad you the best friend a girl like me has ever had

Today

When i opened eyes this morning i was greatful i could see today when i washed my face and looked in the mirror i realised how unique i am so i smiled when i left home looking around i understood all that i have been blessed with when i got to work i knew my day would turn out great may you to realise how blessed you truely are have a super day every single day

yolandey breedt

Today & Every Other Day

as i close my eyes to sleep each night i am thankful for what i achieved this day so it turned out that everything was alright going exactly the right way how blessed i was today now i say my evening prey for tomorrow come what may i trust and believe it will turn out as good as today so i thank the heavens glory for they took good care of me i am sure they will do the same tomorrow if i am spared to see the rise of the new day

Unexplained Feeling

Deep in my heart i find this strange feeling that i cant seem to explain it hurts but pleases me somehow makes me happy and sad at the same time i want to cry than scream it feels good and bad to what it is i do not really know all i know is if i had you all this would make sense to me

yolandey breedt

Unknown Temptation

In your eyes i find a warming fire you have a special way to smile that allows me to realise my hearts true desire making everything i do for you worth while your gentle touch some how endures me giving me the strength to keep going strong setting my every well felt emotion free balancing the scale of right and wrong as your lips tend to lock with mine i feel our hearts and souls connect in a special way repeatedly reminding me that all will be fine as we take on the challenge of each new day in the end i find myself lost in all you do because of how i truly feel about you

yolandey breedt

When You Are No More

When my eyes are shut
I still tend to see your face Where my body is dead Your touch is still well known As you begin to fade away Your smell still surrounds me

As my mind is filled only with your memory Deep in my heart your legacy still lives Though you are no more A part of you still embrace strongly You may be out of sight
But I know you are always there watching over us

I know you finally found your peace
You put up a good fight
You are dearly missed
But it's ok we will be just fine
So enjoy your world of paradise Rest assured you'll always be remembered for all your greatness

Who Am I?

I am the 1st sunshine that kisses your cheek
I am the annoying head ache that never goes away
I am the pleasure of the bite in your favorite junk food
I am the reason for your every mood
I am the unsung melody of you hearts song
I am the scale that balances your right and your wrong
I am the unknown person haunting your dreams
I am that voice inside you that wants to scream
I am the wound that never heals; I am the scare that never fades
I am every part of you I am who I am, I am me!

Wonderous Is The Rain

Gentle is the rain
As it softly falls Calm is the earth
As its thirst is met By the sweetness of the rain drops That it hungered for so long Satisfied is Mother Nature
As once again she is brought to life
And her beauty becomes once again known Were the magic of her ways are well grown And enjoyed by so many Wonderful is the rain as it falls Like a forgotten romance Were love is given a greater chance And the hunger for passion is discovered

As two bodies warmly unclothed entwine That's when two souls make that promise To forever allow two hearts to beat as one Magical is the sound of the rain Silent is the world as the rain falls Not a single person to be found All is well and calm as the rain softly falls.

Words Of A Mother

Your faces as pure as heavens angels Your smiles that take away all the bad
In your eyes I find peace and never feel sad
As the pleasure of you in my life brings only joy

You and your brothers complete my life entirely Giving me the strength to take on each new day My life has changed I am well aware of But to me I would not have it any other way

The wonders and purity that shines in you Makes me believe in a life that's true
The joy you have when you see me Those magical kisses you give set me free

Every day that goes by how wonderful you tend to grow
My life without you I can never know You and your brothers to me are my dear angels from above Given to me to always protect and never stop to love

Making this my life time vow
To take good care of you till my very last breathe Yes my babies I mean till my death Mommy will always love you no matter what I promise Always remember that these are the words of a mother.

Your Love Dad

Dad today is your birthday how old you are is well known You may not be here were our love is strong But u are home which is were u belong Your love is still found in memories in our smiles and thoughts each day its shown

And even thou you gone a part of you still remains We see you in each of us and thou we have this empty space in our heart filled with certain pains
We know you look down upon us your warm presence reminds us that we are never alone

Your love and memory lives on as you may not be here but nor are you forgotten We loved you dearly we love you in death still But you are in a better home were you belong
One day we shall meet again and our empty space again you shall fill

We love and miss you dad.

Your Memories Forever Lives On

U might not be getting really old like I hoped u would but the time we shared u managed to show ur heart was pure gold the time might of been not long enough to spare but the moments we had showed u truely care although you are here no longer our heart's will forever treasure you and your memories will keep us growing stronger just want you to now its not easy letting you go but u in a better place I know and I will always love you no matter what
